H. WAYNE HUIZENGA

Owner/Chairman of the Board

NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: December 29, 1937

H. Wayne Huizenga began his active involvement in South Florida sports on March 7, 1990, when he purchased 15% of the Miami Dolphins and a 50% interest in Joe Robbie Stadium, now called Pro Player Stadium. That involvement was finalized on January 24, 1994, when he acquired the remaining 85% of the Dolphins and the additional 50% of the stadium, leaving him with 100% ownership of both the team and the stadium.

Mr. Huizenga is Chairman and Co-C.E.O. of Republic Industries, Inc., a diversified service company. He is also Chairman of Extended Stay America and Florida Panthers Holdings, Inc., a leisure-time, recreation, sports and entertainment company that owns the National Hockey League's Florida Panthers and resort properties.

He is also Chairman of Huizenga Holdings, Inc., and is the sole or majority owner of several service businesses. He has numerous real estate interests throughout Florida that include office buildings, warehouses, shopping centers and underdeveloped properties as well as the Marriott's Harbor Beach Resort Hotel. His personal investments also include ownership of Major League Baseball's Florida Marlins, and under his direction the Marlins won the World Series in 1997.

Previously, Mr. Huizenga was Vice Chairman of the Board of Viacom, Inc. and Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation.

In January, 1971, Mr. Huizenga co-founded Waste Management, Inc. (now WMX Technologies, Inc.) which today is the world's largest waste collection and disposal company. He served as President, Chief Operating Officer, Vice Chairman, and Director. Mr. Huizenga resigned from the company in May, 1984 to pursue other business interests.

Mr. Huizenga then directed Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation into a position of world leadership in the video rental industry, serving communities in all 50 states and 26 countries. In 1994, Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation was sold to Viacom for $8.5 billion.

Business and academic groups have honored Mr. Huizenga seven times as "Entrepreneur of the Year," including the 1995 award given by Success Magazine. He is a five-time recipient of Financial World Magazine's "CEO of the Year" and was named the 1993 "Business Leader of the Year" by Georgetown University's Business School.

Among his other awards are the Horatio Alger Award in 1992, and the Gordon Grand Fellow Award, the highest non-academic award that Yale University bestows. Mr. Huizenga also received the Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel's 1989 Excalibur Award for Business leadership. He was inducted into the Video Hall of Fame in 1991 and named Time-Billboard Magazine's "Man of the Year" in 1990 for his contributions to the growth and development of the video retail industry. In 1996, he was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame and the Greater Miami Sports Hall of Champions.

Mr. Huizenga's community involvement honors include the 1994 "Humanitarian of the Year" by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. In addition, he and his wife, Marti, were recognized as "Outstanding Philanthropists of the Year" by the Greater Broward/Fort Lauderdale chapter of the National Society of Fund Raising Executives. He was also honored by the Fort Lauderdale NAACP for his contributions to its programs. Mr. Huizenga sits as a board member of many civic organizations, including the Florida Council of 100, the Broward Economic Development Board, the Salvation Army of Broward County, the Boys and Girls Club of Broward County, and is the immediate past Chairman of the Florida Council on Economic Education.

Mr. Huizenga, 60, and wife Marti live in Fort Lauderdale. They have four children: Wayne, Jr., Ray, Scott, and Pam, and three grandchildren, Savannah, Wayne III, and Shelby.

JIMMY JOHNSON

General Manager/Head Coach

Born: July 16, 1943
College: Arkansas
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Third Season

Jimmy Johnson was named General Manager/Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 11, 1996, signing a four-year contract. He became the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson subsequently signed a one-year extension through the 2000 season on April 18, 1998.

Last year, in his second season in Miami, Johnson led the Dolphins into the playoffs with a 9-7 record. It marked the fourth time in Johnson's seven seasons as an NFL head coach that his team advanced to the playoffs. Johnson led the Dolphins into the playoffs despite a season that saw the Dolphins have 14 players undergo a total of 15 surgeries, while three other players suffered broken bones. In all, seven players were placed on Injured Reserve and the club's top five draft choices in 1997 all suffered significant injuries that limited or ended their availability for the season, and still Johnson guided Miami into postseason play. In addition, for the second straight season under Johnson, the Dolphins finished with a positive turnover ratio, a feat they failed to accomplish for the 11 successive years (1985-95) before his arrival.

In 1996, Johnson's first year as Head Coach of the Dolphins, it did not take him long to make an impact. He took over a team that was one of the oldest in the league, and with an infusion of rookies laid the foundation for success in the future.

The average age of Johnson's 22 starters in his first season with the Dolphins was 25.7 years old, making the Dolphins the youngest team in the NFL. Johnson chanelled the youthfulness into aggression on both sides of the football, as the Dolphins recorded their first positive turnover ratio (+12) since 1984. He established a commitment to run the ball, and that determination produced the Dolphins' first 1,000-yard rusher (Karim Abdul-Jabbar) since 1978. In addition, en route to an 8-8 season, the Dolphins finished strongly by winning their last two games and proved more than competitive in the AFC East, going 6-2 in the division with sweeps of the Buffalo Bills (for the first time since 1986) and the New York Jets.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Johnson spent the 1995 and 1994 seasons as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports and for HBO Sports. Before that, he built one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels. He is one of only two active coaches who has led a team to two Super Bowl titles (the other is the Jets' Bill Parcells, who won a pair of championships with the Giants). Even more impressive, Johnson became the first, and one of only two head coaches ever in football history, to win both a Super Bowl title and a national collegiate championship. He has developed and maintained winning programs everywhere he has been as a head coach.

Johnson served as Head Coach of the Dallas Cowboys from 1989 through 1993, and during that time, he became only the fourth man in NFL history to coach consecutive Super Bowl winners, winning Super Bowl XXVII in 1992, and following that with a victory in Super Bowl XXVIII in 1993. His 1992 Super Bowl win made Johnson the first coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title and a major college football championship (University of Miami - 1987).

In his five years in Dallas, Johnson led the Cowboys to two NFL championships, with their first title in 1992 coming just three years after the franchise produced a 1-15 mark in 1989. In all four years that followed Johnson's initial season with the Cowboys, he was named the NFL Coach of the Year by at least one national news media outlet. In addition, Johnson's post-season winning percentage of .778 (7-2 record) is the second best in NFL history among coaches with five or more post-season wins, behind only Vince Lombardi's mark of .900 (9-1).

Since the start of the 1990 season, Johnson's clubs in Dallas and Miami have compiled an overall record of 67-38 (.638), going 60-36 (.625) in the regular season as well as 7-2 in the playoffs. Johnson's regular season winning percentage of .625 over that period is the sixth best percentage in the NFL during the 1990s among coaches with 50 or more games coached. Even more impressive, starting on November 24, 1991, the Cowboys won 37 of their last 45 games overall (.822) under Johnson before he left the team on March 29, 1994. In addition, during those years Johnson's teams played their best football at the end of the season when championships are decided, as the Cowboys posted a record of 20-4 (.833) in December and January from 1990-93, the best mark in the NFL for those two months in that time span. Overall in Dallas and Miami since 1989, Johnson has a mark of 23-13 (.639) in December and January. Johnson also has claimed at least one victory over 13 of the 14 NFC teams he has faced since 1990, and additionally he is 26-13 in his last 39 games against AFC opponents, including 11-3 in his last 14 contests versus the AFC while coaching the Cowboys.

In 1992, Johnson's first NFL championship team set a Cowboy club record for most regular season victories with 13 (13-3), while also establishing a new team standard for most overall wins (16). He did that with the NFL's youngest team that season, utilizing a roster that averaged 25.6 years of age per man. The Dallas defense was ranked No. 1 in the NFL, while the offense exploded for an average of 37 points per game in its last five contests.

In 1993, en route to a second straight Super Bowl win, Johnson's Cowboys were the only team in the league to be ranked in the top 11 in all six of the NFL's major statistical offensive and defensive categories, and established a new club record by surrendering an NFL-low six interceptions, while again fielding one of the youngest teams in the league.

During Johnson's tenure in Dallas, in addition to his coaching success, his ability to evaluate talent played a key role in his personnel decisions that rebuilt the Cowboys from the worst team in the league into Super Bowl champions. His five drafts produced 17 players who would eventually become starters in one or more of the three Cowboys' Super Bowl championship teams of the 1990s, and nine of those picks would go on to make the Pro Bowl (Troy Aikman, Daryl Johnston, Mark Stepnoski, Emmitt Smith, Russell Maryland, Erik Williams, Leon Lett, Darren Woodson, and Tony Tolbert). In addition to his draft success, Johnson engineered 55 trades of players and/or draft picks during that time and those trades, coupled with free agent signings, added seven other eventual Super Bowl starters, including three more Pro Bowl performers (Jay Novacek, Thomas Everett, and Charles Haley), to the Cowboy roster. In all, during his tenure in Dallas, Johnson brought in 24 players who started in either Super Bowl XXVII, Super Bowl XXVIII, or Super Bowl XXX, and 12 Pro Bowl performers to the Cowboy team he inherited in 1989.

Johnson has continued that same draft-day success with the Dolphins. Eight players that Johnson drafted in 1996 started at least one game for the Dolphins that season, with six of them earning full-time starting positions by the end of the year (Abdul-Jabbar and Stanley Pritchett on offense and Shane Burton, Daryl Gardener, Zach Thomas, and Shawn Wooden on defense). Five other starters were acquired by Johnson either by trades or as free agents. Johnson followed that same formula for success during the 1997 off-season, using the draft to add quality players to the team. He started draft-day in 1997 with ten selections, but by the time the draft was concluded he added a total of 14 draft picks to the roster through two trades. He used that draft to add three more starters to the team (Jason Taylor, Derrick Rodgers, and Sam Madison). He was just as active in 1998, turning seven draft choices into ten selections through four trades, including three on draft day. Overall in his three drafts with Miami, Johnson has parlayed 25 original draft choices into a total of 36 picks through a series of eight trades involving draft choices, including seven on draft day. Since joining the Dolphins, Johnson has revamped the Dolphins to such an extent that only 12 players remain on the roster he inherited in 1996.

Before moving to the NFL, Johnson achieved similar success in the college ranks. At the University of Miami (1984-88) Johnson led the Hurricanes to a 52-9 record, including a 44-4 mark over the final four seasons. His Hurricane teams also captured two Orange Bowl titles, a national championship in 1987 and two No. 2 finishes (1986, 1988). Only a combined five-point difference in two losses separated Miami from three straight 12-0 seasons from 1986-88.

During Johnson's reign, the Hurricanes were 21-9 against teams that were ranked in the Top 20, and 5-0 against preseason No. 1 clubs. They avoided upsets, putting together an unblemished 31-0 mark versus unranked teams. They won 36 straight regular season games from 1985-88, the fifth longest streak in NCAA history, and they won 20 consecutive road games from 1984-88.

Johnson had 14 of his Hurricane players go on to become first-round NFL draft choices, while also coaching Heisman Trophy winner Vinny Testaverde (1986) as well as eight players who would become Pro Bowl performers in the NFL (Eddie Brown, Jerome Brown, Brian Blades, Michael Irvin, Bennie Blades, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Leon Searcy, Testaverde).

In recognition of his accomplishments with the Hurricanes, Johnson was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame on March 30, 1996. He was also recognized for his achievements with the Hurricanes, as well as the Dolphins, when he was voted into the State of Florida Sports Hall of Fame on April 27, 1998.

In his first head coaching job, Johnson took over a losing program at Oklahoma State in 1979 and brought it to national prominence, compiling a 29-24-2 record in five seasons, including two bowl appearances. Johnson was named Big Eight Coach of the Year following his first season.

Before becoming a head coach, Johnson spent 14 years as an assistant coach in the collegiate ranks. He began his coaching career on the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 1965. When an assistant's job fell through at Florida State in 1966, Johnson spent the year as an assistant coach at Picayune High School in Mississippi.

He resumed his college coaching career one year later in 1967 as Wichita State's defensive line coach. In 1968 he became a 25-year old defensive coordinator when Johnny Majors, an Arkansas assistant when Johnson played there, brought him to Iowa State.

After two years at Iowa State, Johnson moved to Chuck Fairbanks' Oklahoma staff (1970-72) as defensive line coach. He returned to Arkansas in 1973 for a four-year tenure as his alma mater's defensive coordinator under his college coach, Frank Broyles.

In 1977, Johnson went to Pittsburgh as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, directing one of college football's all-time great defenses for two years. Johnson's 14-year career as an assistant came to an end in 1979 when he took over the rebuilding mission at Oklahoma State.

Johnson also proved to be as successful in his two years in the broadcast booth as he was on the football field. While an analyst for FOX, Johnson was named as one of five finalists for the 1995 Sports Emmy Award for outstanding analysis, covering broadcasters from every sport who served as game color commentators or studio analysts.

A native Texan, James William Johnson was born on July 16, 1943 in Port Arthur, on Texas' Gulf Coast, where he earned all-state football honors at Jefferson High School as a two-way lineman.

Despite his relatively small size, Johnson became an All-Southwest Conference defensive lineman at Arkansas and helped lead the Razorbacks to the 1964 national championship. A three-year letterman, Johnson was named to Arkansas' All-Decade Team of the 1960s. He graduated from Arkansas with a degree in psychology. The State of Arkansas honored Johnson for his accomplishments on both the collegiate and professional levels by inducting him into the Arkansas Hall of Fame on February 20, 1998.

Johnson and his girlfriend Rhonda Rookmaaker reside in Miami, Florida. He has two sons, Brent, an attorney, and Chad, an account executive for Paine Webber.

JOHNSON'S NFL MILESTONES

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson built one of the most successful coaching records in football during his tenure with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-93. In that time span, he guided the team to a pair of Super Bowl titles (SBs XXVII and XXVIII), with his first title coming just three seasons after the franchise produced a 1-15 mark in 1989.

JOHNSON IN THE 1990s

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson has been one of the NFL's most successful head coaches during the 1990s. Thus far in the decade, Johnson is the only coach to win a pair of Super Bowls (XXVII and XXVIII with Dallas) and his regular season winning percentage of .625 is the sixth best in the league during the 1990s (minimum 50 games coached).

In addition, during his tenure with the Cowboys, Johnson posted an overall record of 20-4 (.833) in December and January in the 1990s. Overall with the Cowboys and the Dolphins, Johnson has a mark of 23-9 (.719) in December and January this decade.

In the 1984 season, the Dolphins established a number of NFL season records, including most yards gained (6,936), most yards gained by passing (5,018), most first downs (387), most touchdowns (70), most passing touchdowns (49) and most PATs (66).

EDDIE J. JONES

President/Chief Operating Officer

College: Louisiana State
NFL: 31st Season
Dolphins: 11th Season
Born: June 18, 1938

Eddie J. Jones, in his 31st season in the NFL, was named as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Dolphins on January 16, 1996, after previously serving as the team's Executive Vice President and General Manager (1990-95) and as Vice President of Administration and Finance (1988-89). In his current capacity, Jones directs the business operation of the Dolphins and acts as the team's representative at all National Football League meetings.

Jones was president and chief operating officer of the New Orleans Saints from 1982-85. He currently serves on the NFL's Employee Benefits Committee and is a Trustee of the Bert Bell player pension plan.

A 1963 accounting graduate of LSU, Jones began his professional career as a CPA with Arthur Andersen & Co. He began his NFL career as business manager of the Saints in 1968.

An Air Force veteran, the Houston native and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Wendy, Todd and Jeff, and one grandchild, Connor.

BRYAN J. WIEDMEIER

Vice President - Administration

College: Carroll
NFL: 18th Season
Dolphins: 18th Season
Born: October 19, 1959

Now in his 18th season with the Dolphins, Bryan Wiedmeier was named as the club's Vice President - Administration in March of 1995, after serving as Assistant General Manager (1990-94) and holding a variety of other positions with the team since 1981.

Wiedmeier works closely with Eddie Jones in managing the club's business affairs. Wiedmeier's duties include salary cap administration, player contract negotiations, operations and legal affairs. Wiedmeier served as project coordinator for the design and construction of the club's new training facility at Nova-Southeastern University.

Wiedmeier earned his J.D. degree from the University of Miami School of Law in 1989 and is a member of the Florida Bar. He received his B.A. degree in business from Carroll College in Montana where he was a captain and three year starter at center for the football team.

A resident of Miramar, he and his wife Mary K. have five children, Lauren, Victoria, John, Danielle, and Matthew.

JILL R. STRAFACI

Vice President - Finance

College: Florida
NFL: Tenth Season
Dolphins: Tenth Season
Born: September 4, 1957

Beginning her tenth season with the Dolphins, Jill Strafaci assumed her current role as Vice President - Finance in 1995 after serving as Treasurer since 1990. She originally joined the Dolphins as Assistant Chief Financial Officer in October, 1989. In her current position, she oversees the financial management of the club, working closely with Eddie Jones. Her duties include all financial operations of the team, human resources and administration of the club's employee benefit plans. Strafaci also was involved in the implementation of the Miami Dolphins Foundation, established in 1995.

Before joining the Dolphins, Strafaci, a CPA, was a tax specialist with Price Waterhouse in Miami for six years, specializing in the areas of professional sports and real estate. She also worked for an accounting firm in her native Sarasota.

Strafaci graduated from the University of Florida in 1980 (accounting/finance), where she was a four-year letter-winner on the Lady Gator golf team. She resides in Miami Beach with her husband, Frank, and their son, Trent.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins Foundation was established in 1995 as the fundraising arm of the Miami Dolphins Football Team. The Dolphins, through the foundation, have made a commitment to the betterment of South Florida youth through a direct focus on, but not limited to, educational, health, social and community service issues.

The Miami Dolphins Foundation contributes, whenever possible, to charitable groups that are compatible with the philosophy of the Foundation. Resources for contributions are procured through various fundraising events throughout the year.

Further information on the Miami Dolphins Foundation is available through the Miami Dolphins Community Relations Department or by calling (954) 452-7121.

DOLPHIN FACT

In the 1991 Pro Bowl, wide receiver Mark Clayton caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Jim Kelly. He joined tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who caught a five-yard scoring toss from Dave Krieg (Seattle) in the '89 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest, as the only Dolphin players to have scored a touchdown in the all-star game.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LARRY BEIGHTOL

Offensive Line

College: Catawba
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: November 21, 1942

Larry Beightol, beginning his third season coaching the offensive line with Miami, joined the Dolphins' staff on February 16, 1996. Beightol came to the Dolphins after 11 NFL seasons including stints with five teams – the Houston Oilers, New York Jets, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, San Diego Chargers and Atlanta Falcons.

Under Beightol's guidance, the Dolphins offensive line in 1996 helped produce the Dolphins' first 1,000-yard rusher since 1978. Last year the offensive line yielded just 22 sacks, second-fewest in the NFL. In fact, in Beightol's two seasons in Miami, the Dolphins' offensive line has allowed a total of 58 sacks, second-fewest in the AFC and tied for third in the NFL over this span.

Beightol joined the Dolphins after one season as the offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers. Prior to joining the Oilers, Beightol spent five seasons in the same role with the New York Jets (1990-94) and inherited an offensive line that gave up 62 sacks in 1989 and improved that number to 21 in 1993 – an NFL best that season. In 1993, New York's offensive line set a club record by not allowing a sack in eight of the club's 16 games.

He spent the 1989 season as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under Dan Henning at San Diego. From 1987-88, Beightol served as offensive line coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before moving to San Diego in 1989. Beightol's first NFL job was as offensive line coach with the Atlanta Falcons (1985-86) and during his stay in Atlanta, Gerald Riggs led the NFC in rushing yards in 1985 and the team finished third in the NFL in rushing yards in 1986.

Before joining the pro ranks, Beightol coached 17 years at the collegiate level with stops at William & Mary (1968-71), North Carolina State (1972-75), Auburn (1976), Arkansas (1977-78, 80-82), head coach at Louisiana Tech (1979), and Missouri (1983-84).

Beightol played guard and linebacker at Catawba College (1961-63) and earned a B.S. in physical education from the school before getting a master's degree from William & Mary. He attended and played football at West Branch High School in Morrisdale, Pa. and is a member of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Division). In addition, Beightol has been inducted into the Catawba Sports Hall of Fame for his prowess at the school.

Beightol and his wife, Marian, have one daughter, Kristin, and live in Plantation. He was born on November 21, 1942, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

DOUG BLEVINS

Kicking

College: East Tennessee State
NFL: Second Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: August 3, 1963

Doug Blevins enters his second season with the Dolphins after being named kicking coach by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on June 3, 1997. In his role, Blevins works with the Dolphins' placekickers.

In Blevins' first year with the Dolphins, kicker Olindo Mare converted 77.8% of his field goals, seventh best in the AFC. Mare's 28 field goals and 117 points were the most-ever by a Dolphins rookie or first-year player. His field goal total tied for the third-most in club history, while his point output tied for the fourth-most.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Blevins served as kicking coordinator for the World League since 1995. He also did consulting work with the New York Jets in 1994 and the New England Patriots in 1996.

A 1988 graduate of East Tennessee State University, Blevins started his coaching career as a student assistant in 1982 while at the University of Tennessee. He worked with the kickers for the Volunteers for two seasons before being named kicking coach at Emory & Henry College in Emory, Virginia, in 1984. He joined the staff at East Tennessee State in 1986, and served as a consultant with the kickers there through 1987, while also continuing his undergraduate work. From 1988-92, Blevins coached high school football in Virginia before starting his own kicking consulting company in 1993. He still owns the Vero Beach, Fla., based company.

A native of Abingdon, Virginia, Blevins and his wife, Nenita, have a son, Roman Douglas (3/4/98). Blevins was born August 3, 1963, in Abingdon, Va.

KIPPY BROWN

Offensive Coordinator

College: Memphis State
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: March 6, 1955

Kippy Brown enters his third season with the Dolphins and his first as the team's offensive coordinator. After serving as running backs coach his first two seasons with Miami, Brown was named to his current post by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on February 11, 1998. He has 19 years of coaching experience, including six in the NFL, and came to Miami after one season as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In his two years in Miami, Brown has been instrumental in the development of running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar. In 1996, Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 1,116 yards, the third-highest single-season total in franchise history and a club rookie record. It also marked the first time since 1978 that the Dolphins produced a 1,000-yard runner.

Last year, Abdul-Jabbar tied for the NFL lead with a club-record 15 rushing touchdowns. Over the last two years, Abdul-Jabbar has totaled 2,008 rushing yards, seventh-most in the AFC and 12th in the NFL over that time span. His 26 rushing touchdowns during this same time is the second-most in the NFL.

Brown joined the Bucs after two seasons as assistant head coach/wide receivers at the University of Tennessee, his second stint at the school. Prior to re-joining the Volunteers, Brown coached the running backs for the New York Jets from 1990-92. In 1991, the Jets ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing and Brad Baxter led all AFC runners in touchdowns.

From 1983-89, Brown was receivers coach at Tennessee under head coach Johnny Majors after spending the 1982 season as receivers coach at the University of Louisville, where he coached future Dolphins wide receiver Mark Clayton. While at Tennessee, Brown tutored future NFL receivers Anthony Miller, Tim McGee and Alvin Harper. He began his coaching career at Memphis State University as running backs coach in 1978, before handling the wide receivers in 1979 and 1980.

Brown played collegiately at Memphis State, where he quarterbacked the Tigers from 1975-77 and was known for his strong arm and scrambling ability. His top collegiate moment came in 1975 when he led Memphis State to a 31-20 upset victory over sixth-ranked Auburn.

Brown and his wife, Deon, have two children, Jerome (1/8/75) and Jennifer (7/28/80), and live in Plantation. He was born on March 6, 1955, in Sweetwater, Tenn.

JOEL COLLIER

Running Backs

College: Northern Colorado
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: December 25, 1963

Joel Collier enters his fifth season with the Dolphins and his first as running backs coach, having been named to the position on February 11, 1998. After serving as a defensive staff assistant in his first four seasons with Miami, Collier returns to the offensive side of the ball, where he began his NFL coaching career in 1990.

As a defensive assistant, Collier assisted defensive coordinator George Hill in coaching the linebackers and in the overall football operation. In 1997, Collier worked extensively with rookie linebacker Derrick Rodgers, a third-round draft choice who garnered several all-rookie accolades, including Sports Illustrated's Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Collier joined the Dolphins after having worked three seasons (1991-93) in various capacities with the New England Patriots. He served in the pro scouting department in 1993 and worked as assistant running backs and wide receivers coach from 1991-92.

Collier joined the Patriots after serving as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during 1990. Prior to his experience with the Bucs, Collier worked two years with the quarterbacks and running backs as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker at Northern Colorado, Collier was a three-time academic All-North Central Conference performer. He received his bachelor's degree in social science education.

Collier, the son of former Bills head coach and longtime Broncos defensive coordinator Joe Collier, is married to Shirley Ann. The couple has one son, Jeremy Grayson (4/16/96) and they live in Plantation. He was born on December 25, 1963, in Buffalo, N.Y.

ROBERT FORD

Wide Receivers

College: Houston
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: June 21, 1951

Robert Ford enters his eighth season as an NFL assistant and his first with the Dolphins. He was named the team's wide receivers coach on February 11, 1998 by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. He re-joins Johnson after having served on the Dallas Cowboys staff for the past seven seasons, all as tight ends coach.

Ford joined Dallas in 1991 and during his seven seasons tutoring the club's tight ends, Jay Novacek was voted to the Pro Bowl five times (1991-95). From 1991-95, Novacek recorded 280 receptions, more than any other NFL tight end during this five-year span. Before joining Dallas on a full-time basis, Ford spent the summer of 1990 with the Cowboys as part of the club's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ford spent sixteen seasons as an assistant at both the high school and collegiate levels. He began his coaching career in 1973 at Saginaw (Michigan) High School. He embarked on his collegiate tenure the following year, tutoring the wide receivers at Western Illinois where he spent 1974-76. That was followed by stops at New Mexico (1977-79), Oregon State (1980-81) and Mississippi State (1982-83). His first pro job came as receivers coach with the Houston Gamblers of the USFL in 1985. Ford returned to the collegiate ranks where he held posts at Kansas (1986), Texas Tech (1987-88) and Texas A&M (1989-90) preceding his NFL stint.

A native of Belton, Texas, Ford earned his degree in education from the University of Houston and his master's in athletic administration from Western Illinois. At Houston, where he played wide receiver from 1970-72, Ford led the Cougars in receiving, punt returns and kickoff returns in his final season, when he earned third-team All-America accolades. He is the only player in NCAA history to account for two 99-yard receptions. Born June 21, 1951 in Belton, Ford and his wife, Janice, have two sons, Bobby and Jason. The family resides in Ft. Lauderdale.

JOHN GAMBLE

Strength and Conditioning

College: Hampton Institute
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: June 26, 1957

John Gamble enters his fifth season with the Dolphins as strength and conditioning coach, having been named to the position on March 16, 1994. Gamble has the primary responsibility in the area of strength and conditioning for the club.

In his position, Gamble is responsible for the organization and implementation of the programs for the team's overall conditioning development. Brad Roll, the club's assistant strength coach, assists Gamble with the implementation of the programs and his interaction with the Dolphins' training and medical staffs. Gamble was named by the Professional Strength Coaches Society as its 1998 Coach of the Year.

Gamble joined the Dolphins after having served ten years (1984-93) as the head strength coach at the University of Virginia. He also served two seasons as assistant strength coach (1982-83) and one year on a part-time basis (1981) at Virginia. He was named 1985 Strength Coach of the Year by the National Strength and Conditioning Association. At Virginia, Gamble helped develop such future NFL stars as Jim Dombrowski, Jeff Lageman, Herman Moore and Ray Roberts.

Gamble served an eight-year stint as state director for the National Strength and Conditioning Association and was named Outstanding State Director for Region II in 1984.

A world renowned powerlifter, Gamble was the number-one ranked powerlifter in the world in the 275-pound class from 1981 to 1983. His personal records for total pounds in three lifts while competing in the United States Powerlifting Federation was 2,270 pounds, and he has personal bests of full squat, 892 lbs.; bench press, 573 lbs., and dead lift, 826.5 lbs. in those three elements.

Gamble played linebacker at Hampton Institute and was selected first-team Black College All-America. He also earned All-Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association honors in football and in track and field.

Married to Sharon, the couple has three sons, John Nathan, III (12/16/87), Austin Craig (9/27/90) and Tucker Scott (9/19/95) and they live in Ft. Lauderdale. He was born on June 26, 1957, in Richmond, Va.

CARY GODETTE

Defensive Line

College: East Carolina
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: March 20, 1954

Cary Godette is in his third season with the Dolphins, being named defensive line coach on January 17, 1996, by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. Godette joined the club following one season in the same position with the Carolina Panthers.

Under Godette's guidance, defensive ends Trace Armstrong and Daniel Stubbs combined for 21 sacks in 1996, the fifth-best sack combination in club history, while Jason Taylor emerged as one of the best rookies in the NFL last year. In addition, in Godette's two seasons with the Dolphins, Tim Bowens and Daryl Gardener have developed into one of the finest tackle tandems in the NFL.

Before joining the Panthers, Godette coached the outside linebackers at North Carolina State in 1994 after two seasons as defensive line coach at Georgia Tech, where he helped defensive standout Coleman Rudolph earn first-team All-America honors.

His coaching career began at East Carolina in 1977, where he spent three seasons as defensive ends coach. After his stint at East Carolina, Godette coached the linebackers at Wyoming (1980-82) before moving on to the University of Cincinnati for the 1983 season. He spent six seasons in Cincinnati and coached the linebackers, tight ends and defensive line for the Bearcats before returning to East Carolina for the 1990 and '91 campaigns.

Godette took part in the NFL's minority coaching program for the Dallas Cowboys while Johnson was head coach of the club.

He had a distinguished playing career as a defensive end at East Carolina from 1972-76, as his Pirate teams compiled a 32-12 record and won three Southern Conference championships. Godette earned third-team All-America honors as a senior during the 1976 season.

Godette and his wife, Ruby, reside in Plantation. He was born on March 20, 1954, in New Bern, N.C.

DOLPHIN FACT

In regular season action, the Dolphins were 8-5 in 1997 on natural grass (6-2 at home and 2-3 on the road) and 1-2 on artificial turf (all on the road). Since 1980 (regular season games only), the Dolphins are 124-61-1 (.669) on grass — 96-42-1 (.694) at home and 28-19 (.596) on the road. On turf over the same period of time, the Dolphins are 46-48 (.489).

Twelve of Miami's 16 games in 1998 will be played on natural grass. The Dolphins' only games on artificial turf are on September 6 at Indianapolis, October 4 at the N.Y. Jets, November 1 at Buffalo and December 27 at Atlanta.

GEORGE HILL

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

College: Denison
NFL: 20th Season
Dolphins: Tenth Season
Born: April 28, 1933

George Hill is entering his tenth season with the Dolphins and his third as defensive coordinator after being named to the post by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. Hill spent his first seven years with the Dolphins as linebackers coach and retains those duties along with his defensive coordinator title.

Under Hill's tutelage the Dolphins have produced a Defensive Rookie of the Year award winner at linebacker each of his two seasons as coordinator – Zach Thomas in 1996 and Derrick Rodgers last year. In addition, the Dolphins' defense has forced 63 turnovers during the last two years, tied for the fourth-most in the AFC and eighth in the NFL over this span.

Before originally coming to the Dolphins on March 1, 1989, Hill spent the previous four seasons (1985-88) as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts. While with the Colts, Hill's coaching helped earn Indianapolis respect around the league for that team's defense and in 1987, the Colts allowed just 238 points, the fewest in the NFL.

Prior to his stint with the Colts, Hill spent six seasons (1979-84) as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Hill originally joined the Dallas Cowboys staff on February 13, 1989, as Tom Landry's defensive coordinator, but left the Cowboys to join the Dolphins following Landry's departure.

Before joining the Eagles, Hill was part of Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State for eight seasons (1971-78) as defensive coordinator, and during that time, the Buckeyes won six consecutive Big Ten Championships and made four Rose Bowl appearances. He also was the defensive coordinator at Duke from 1966 through 1970 and served as defensive coordinator at Cornell (1965), Denison University (1960-64), and Findlay (Ohio) College (1959). Before beginning his coaching career, Hill was a four-year letterman at Denison (1951-57).

Hill was born on April 28, 1933 in Bay Village, Ohio, and now lives in Plantation with his wife, Cloyde (married 6/16/56). They have two children, Greg (11/4/64) and Tammy (2/26/69).

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins), while four other teams have accomplished a 10 or more game season opening winning streak on one occasion — Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins), Chicago in 1985 (13 wins), N.Y. Giants in 1990 (10 wins), San Francisco in 1990 (10 wins) and Washington (11 games) in 1991.

PAT JONES

Tight Ends

College: Arkansas
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: November 4, 1947

Pat Jones begins his third season as the Dolphins' tight ends coach after being named to the position by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on January 17, 1996. It is Jones' fourth year in the NFL after spending 1995 with the Chicago Bears as a special assistant with the offensive line. Prior to joining the Bears, he spent 11 seasons as head coach at Oklahoma State University (1984-94) and has spent 22 years at the collegiate level and 30 years overall in coaching.

In the two seasons that Jones has coached the Dolphins' tight ends, Troy Drayton has emerged as one of the top tight ends in the NFL. Last year he was second on the team with 39 receptions for 558 yards and four touchdowns. Drayton's receiving yardage total marked a career-high. His second place finish among Dolphin receivers was the highest ranking by a tight end since Keith Jackson also placed second on the team in 1992.

Jones led Oklahoma State to a 62-60-3 record during his tenure in Stillwater and was at the helm during the school's only 10-win seasons (1984, 1987 and 1988) in its football history. He led the Cowboys to four bowl games (1984 and 1985 Gator Bowl, 1987 Sun Bowl and 1988 Holiday Bowl) with three victories during his 11 seasons. Jones finished as the school's all-time winningest coach and 11th-most successful coach all-time in Big Eight history. He was twice named Big Eight Coach of the Year (1984 and 1992) and was National Coach of the Year by Football Yearbook in 1984.

Jones coached nine All-Americans at OSU, including Thurman Thomas, Hart Lee Dykes, Leslie O'Neal, and Barry Sanders. Dykes ended his career as the all-time leading receiver in Big Eight history, O'Neal was a Lombardi Award finalist in 1985, and Sanders won the Heisman Trophy in 1988.

Jones became Oklahoma State's head football coach when Jimmy Johnson left to become head coach at the University of Miami in 1984, and he was promoted from assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. Jones' inaugural season at OSU saw the Cowboys achieve its highest national ranking (second in the UPI poll and third in the AP ratings) prior to a regular-season finale against Oklahoma for the Big Eight title. The Cowboys finished the season with ten wins and a final ranking of fifth in UPI and sixth in AP. Jones' ten wins was just the third time in conference history that a rookie head coach had achieved that milestone, joining Oklahoma's Barry Switzer and Colorado's Chuck Fairbanks. In addition, his Cowboys teams finished three other seasons ranked in the Top 20 with finishes of 17th in 1985, 11th in 1987 and 11th in 1988. During his tenure at OSU, Jones also coached in the 1986 Japan Bowl, the 1988 Hula Bowl, and the 1992 Blue-Gray Game.

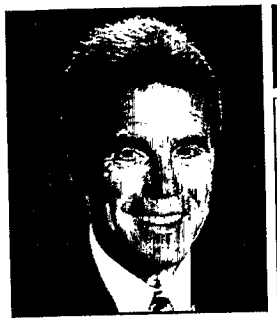

Jones began his coaching career in the Little Rock (Ark.) public schools in 1969 before moving on to the collegiate level as assistant defensive line coach at Arkansas under then-defensive coordinator Johnson (1974-75). He also made stops as defensive ends coach at Southern Methodist (1976-77), defensive ends coach at Pittsburgh with Johnson in 1978, and defensive ends coach/defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State (1979-83), before taking the head coach position at OSU in 1984.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Jones played collegiately at Arkansas Tech in 1965 before transferring to Arkansas for 1966-67 as a walk-on linebacker and nose guard.

Jones lives in Ft. Lauderdale and was born on November 4, 1947, in Memphis, Tenn.

BILL LEWIS

Defensive Nickel Package

College: East Stroudsburg St.
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: August 5, 1941

Bill Lewis is in his third season with the Dolphins after being named defense nickel package coach on January 17, 1996, by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. Lewis joined the NFL coaching ranks after 32 years (1963-94) of coaching at the collegiate level. He teams with Mel Phillips in tutoring the Dolphins' defensive backs.

He spent 1995 as athletic director at The Marist School in Atlanta after three seasons as head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94. Prior to his stint at Georgia Tech, Lewis served as head coach at East Carolina for three seasons (1989-91), during which time he led the Pirates to an 11-1 record and a victory in the Peach Bowl over North Carolina State following the 1991 season. At the conclusion of the '91 campaign, Lewis received National Coach of the Year honors from A.F.C.A., UPI and Scripps-Howard.

Lewis began his coaching career at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) State in 1963 and made stops as defensive backs coach at Pittsburgh (1966-68), Wake Forest (1969-70), Georgia Tech (1971-72) and Arkansas (1973-76). He became head coach at Wyoming in 1977 and spent three years at the helm of the Cowboys. He began a nine-year stint at the University of Georgia in 1980 as defensive backs coach before occupying the job of defensive coordinator in his last eight seasons with the Bulldogs.

While in Athens, the Bulldogs won the 1980 National Championship and during his nine years at the school, Georgia appeared in nine straight bowl games and won three Southeastern Conference titles. He coached 23 All-SEC honorees and seven All-Americas.

Lewis was a four-year letterman at quarterback at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) State from 1959-62 and earned Little All-America honors during his playing days. In addition, Lewis spent two years in the Detroit Tigers' minor league system as a pitcher.

He and his wife, Sandy, reside in Ft. Lauderdale, and have three sons, Mark (7/17/67), Gregg (3/3/70) and Geoff (2/17/72). Lewis was born on August 5, 1941, in Bristol, Pa.

RICH McGEORGE

Assistant Offensive Line

College: Elon
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: September 14, 1948

Rich McGeorge enters his sixth season with the Dolphins after being named to the position of assistant offensive line coach by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. McGeorge originally came to the Dolphins on June 1, 1993, as assistant offensive line and tight ends coach. In his current role, McGeorge assists Larry Beightol in coaching the club's offensive linemen.

McGeorge joined the Dolphins following three seasons as offensive line coach at the University of Florida. During his tenure with the Gators, his offensive lines produced a total of four selections to the first-team All-Southeastern Conference team. In 1991, McGeorge's offensive line permitted just 16 quarterback sacks despite attempting a conference-high 390 passes.

He joined the Gators in January, 1990, following three seasons (1987-89) as offensive line coach at Duke University. McGeorge began his coaching career at Duke from 1981-82 as tight ends coach. Following stints as tight ends/wide receivers coach with the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League from 1983-84 and offensive line coach of the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits in 1985, McGeorge returned to Duke as offensive line coach.

A member of the NAIA Hall of Fame, McGeorge played tight end at Elon College (1966-69) and was a first-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1970. A member of the Packers from 1970-78, McGeorge caught 175 career passes during his nine pro seasons and was the club's Offensive Player of the Year in 1973.

Married to Bonnie, the couple has two sons, Randy (26) and Jason (24), and they live in Plantation. McGeorge was born September 14, 1948, in Roanoke, Va.

MEL PHILLIPS

Secondary

College: North Carolina A&T
NFL: 19th Season
Dolphins: 14th Season
Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips enters his 14th season as a coach for the Dolphins, teaming with Bill Lewis in coaching the secondary for the third consecutive year. During his first 11 years with the club, Phillips was defensive backs coach.

Under Phillips, Dolphins defensive backs have had a knack for coming up with the big play, having returned six interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns over the last three years. In Phillips' 13 previous seasons, the team's defensive backs have brought back a total of 17 interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns.

Before coming to Miami in 1985, the 56-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84). In Detroit, Phillips was on a staff that also included current Dolphins quarterbacks coach Larry Seiple.

Phillips, a native of Shelby, N.C., played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include ten interceptions for 106 return yards (including a 35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, he rushed for 648 yards and 11 touchdowns on 100 carries, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73) and live in Miami Lakes. He was born on January 6, 1942, in Shelby, N.C.

BRAD ROLL

Assistant Strength and Conditioning

College: Stephen F. Austin
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: July 4, 1958

Brad Roll is in his third season with the Dolphins after being named assistant strength and conditioning coach on March 1, 1996, by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. Roll joined the club after three seasons in the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Roll joined the Bucs as strength and conditioning coach in 1993 and was instrumental in helping to develop and implement the club's offseason conditioning program. He went to Tampa Bay after spending the 1989-92 seasons in a similar capacity at the University of Miami. While at UM, the team won the national championship in 1989 and 1991, and Roll worked with players such as Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Warren Sapp and Leon Searcy.

Prior to his arrival at Miami, Roll was strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kansas from 1987-88, and while at the school, he worked closely with KU's 1988 national championship basketball team. From 1981-86, Roll served as the first full-time strength and conditioning coach at Southwestern Louisiana and he was a graduate assistant at Stephen F. Austin, his alma mater, in 1980.

Roll played collegiately at Blinn (Texas) Junior College and Stephen F. Austin, where he was a center. He holds a bachelor's and a master's degree in education. He also studied at the Moscow (Russia) Sports Institute during the summers of 1985 and 1986, as well as with the German Olympic weightlifting coaching and training staff in Leipzeg in 1987.

He lives in Ft. Lauderdale and was born on July 4, 1958, in Houston, Texas.

LARRY SEIPLE

Quarterbacks

College: Kentucky
NFL: 18th Season
Dolphins: 11th Season
Born: February 14, 1945

Larry Seiple begins his eleventh season as a member of the Dolphins coaching staff and his first as the team's quarterbacks coach. He tutored the club's wide receivers each of his first ten seasons on the staff. Seiple was named to his current post by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on February 11, 1998. He also spent 12 seasons in Miami as a player and rejoined the team in February, 1988, as receivers coach.

Since Seiple joined the Dolphins' staff in 1988, he has coached two Pro Bowl performers in Mark Clayton (1988, 1991) and Irving Fryar (1993-94). In addition, he has overseen the development of O.J. McDuffie, who has totaled 150 catches over the last two seasons, including 74 in 1996 and 76 last year. The total is tied with Clayton (150 from 1988-89) for the highest reception total by a Dolphins receiver in consecutive seasons. McDuffie is one of three receivers in club history to register 70 receptions in two different seasons, and one of only two to achieve the mark in consecutive seasons (also Clayton, 1984-85). In addition, McDuffie is one of five receivers in the AFC to reach the 70-catch plateau in each of the last two seasons, and one of eight in the NFL to attain this mark.

Seiple, an Allentown, Pa., native, brought seven years of experience as an NFL receivers coach to Miami. He formerly served as receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (1980-84) and then moved on to Tampa Bay, where he was receivers coach from 1985-86. While in Detroit, Seiple was on a staff that also included current Miami secondary coach Mel Phillips.

Seiple began his coaching career at the University of Miami under another former Dolphins assistant, Howard Schnellenberger. Seiple was with the Hurricanes during the 1979 season.

Seiple's playing career with the Dolphins spanned 11 seasons (1967-77) after he made the team as a seventh-round draft choice out of Kentucky. He played in 149 regular season games for Miami (11th-most in team history) as a punter, tight end, wide receiver and running back. Seiple finished his career with 72 receptions for 935 yards (13.0 average) and seven touchdowns. His best season came in 1969 when he led the Dolphins in receiving with 41 catches for 577 yards (14.1 average) and five touchdowns. He also had 16 carries for 159 yards in his career. He was a member of both Miami Super Bowl championship teams, including the 1972 club which went 17-0, the only team in NFL history to go through an entire season unbeaten and untied.

Seiple still holds the Dolphins record for most career punts (633) and his career punting average (40.0 yards) is fourth-best in team history. Seiple's most memorable exploit as a Dolphin came against Pittsburgh in the 1972 AFC Championship game when his 37-yard run on fourth down from punt formation set up Miami's first touchdown in a 21-17 victory.

He and his wife, Trudy, have three children, Keri Lyn (6/10/67), Larry (7/10/69) and Lori Ann (11/26/71) and they live in Pembroke Pines. They have one grandson, Austyn (11/1/93). Seiple was born on February 14, 1945, in Allentown, Pa.

RANDY SHANNON

Defensive Assistant

College: Miami (Fla.)
NFL: First Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: February 24, 1966

Randy Shannon begins his first season as an NFL coach following a seven-year stint as an assistant at the collegiate level. He was named as a defensive assistant by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on February 11, 1998. In his role with the Dolphins, Shannon will be responsible for quality control on the defensive side of the ball, including the breaking down of game tapes and on-field duties.

The 32-year old Shannon played for Johnson during his career at the University of Miami (Fla.), where he played linebacker from 1985-88. He started at strongside linebacker each of his final two years, and was a member of the Hurricanes' 1987 National Championship team. Shannon also was the recipient of the Christopher Plumer Award as Miami's most inspirational player his senior season.

Following his collegiate career, Shannon re-joined Johnson as the 11th-round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1989. In his rookie season he played in all 16 games, starting four of them, and registered 50 tackles. He became the first Cowboys rookie to start a game at outside linebacker since 1963. He also finished second on the team with 14 special teams tackles. Shannon played with Dallas through the 1990 season.

After two years in the NFL, Shannon was named as a graduate assistant at the University of Miami in 1991, where he worked with the linebackers and special teams. He split time with the linebackers and defensive line on a full-time basis the following year, prior to being named linebackers coach in 1993. In addition, Shannon spent 1993 training camp working with the Dallas coaching staff as part of the team's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program.

A native of Miami, Shannon earned his degree in criminal justice from UM. He was an all-state linebacker at Norland High School in Miami, where he also performed on the school's basketball team. Shannon, who was born on February 24, 1966 in Miami, has a daughter, TyQuitha, and a son, Xavier.

DOLPHIN FACT

In season openers, Miami is 17-14-1. The Dolphins are 11-10-1 in season openers on the road and 6-4 in season openers which have been at home. The Dolphins have won six straight league-openers, the longest current streak in the NFL.

MIKE WESTHOFF

Special Teams

College: Wichita State
NFL: 16th Season
Dolphins: 13th Season
Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his 16th NFL season and 13th as Dolphins special teams coach. Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year as offensive line coach of the Arizona Outlaws of the United States Football League in 1985 and three seasons with the Indianapolis/Baltimore Colts serving as offensive line, tight ends and special teams coach from 1982-84.

Under Westhoff, the Dolphins' special teams units have consistently ranked among the best in the NFL. In 1997, Miami was second in the league in kickoff return defense (19.2 yards) and fifth in punt return defense (7.5 yards). In addition, the Dolphins' opponents' average drive start of 23.9 yards tied for the best mark in the AFC, marking the second straight year in which Miami has led the conference or shared the top spot in this category. Kicker Olindo Mare set a club record for a rookie or first-year player with 28 field goals and 117 points. His 21 touchbacks also were the second-most in the AFC and tied for fourth in the NFL last year.

During his coaching career, Westhoff has been associated with some of the NFL's premier kickers and punters, including Rohn Stark (Colts, 1982-84), Reggie Roby (Miami, 1986-92), Raul Allegre (Colts, 1983-84), Dean Biasucci (Colts, 1984), Fuad Reveiz (Miami, 1986-88), Pete Stoyanovich (Miami, 1989-95) and John Kidd (Miami, 1994-current).

Westhoff began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University, where he earned a master's degree in educational psychology in 1974. He was named as a full-time coach at IU in 1975 before becoming offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976. Following that, he coached the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. His final two stops at the collegiate level were as offensive line coach at Northwestern (1978-80) and Texas Christian (1981).

Westhoff began his collegiate playing days at Wyoming in 1965, where he was a starting outside linebacker as a freshman. He then transferred to Wichita State, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker and center. He was voted the team's Most Valuable Player as a junior and served as team captain as a senior. He graduated from Wichita State in 1970 with a degree in history.

In 1989, the Dolphins players honored Westhoff's off-the-field courage by awarding him special recognition with the NFL's Ed Block Courage Award. As a coach, Westhoff has faced many battles both on and off the field, but none can compare to his battle with bone cancer. Throughout his treatments, Westhoff continued to coach with the Dolphins and for his courage and determination, the players saluted him with the Ed Block Courage Award.

Westhoff and his wife, Marilyn, have one son, John Thomas (4/27/81) and live in Plantation. Westhoff was born on January 10, 1948, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

FOOTBALL STAFF

BOB ACKLES

Director of Football Operations

NFL: 13th Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: September 16, 1938

On January 24, 1996, the Miami Dolphins named Bob Ackles, 59, as Director of Football Operations. Ackles re-joined Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, having worked with Johnson previously in Dallas where he helped lay the foundation that would result in back-to-back Super Bowl wins by the Cowboys. In his current capacity with the Dolphins, Ackles is involved in all aspects of the team's football administration, including contract negotiations and player personnel and scouting operations on both the professional and collegiate levels.

Ackles, one of the most widely respected executives in the National Football League, joined the Dolphins from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he served as Director of Football Administration in 1995. He spent the three previous seasons in the Arizona Cardinals' front office, first as that club's Director of College Scouting from 1992-93 and then as Assistant General Manager in 1994.

Ackles first joined the NFL ranks in 1986 when he was named as the Cowboys' first-ever Vice President of Pro Personnel. Three years later, with the arrival of Johnson as Head Coach in Dallas, Ackles was promoted to Vice President of Player Personnel and helped begin the Cowboys' dramatic resurgence as an NFL power. His efforts to acquire talent through several trades, waiver acquisitions, and Plan B free agency provided an infusion of top draft picks and players. Those efforts were rewarded in 1991 when, following an 11-5 regular season, Dallas earned a berth in the playoffs, setting the stage for the first of their consecutive Super Bowl wins the following season.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ackles spent 11 years as General Manager of the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions. Under his leadership, the Lions became one of the winningest teams in the CFL, moved into a new stadium, and built a training facility. In his last season with B.C., the Lions won the Grey Cup, the CFL's equivalent of the Super Bowl.

Ackles first joined B.C. as a water boy at the age of 15 and over the next 34 years, performed virtually every administrative duty in the organization from equipment manager to general manager. He was recognized for his outstanding contributions to the CFL in 1986 when he was presented with the Schenley Award, becoming the first non-player in league history to receive that award, which symbolizes excellence in football in Canada.

A native Canadian, Ackles was born in Sarnia, Ontario, near the United States border. Raised in Toronto, and Vancouver, British Columbia, he played organized football and hockey (goalie), and later coached two years of high school football in Vancouver.

Bob and his wife, Kay, reside in Ft. Lauderdale. They have two married sons, Steve (36), and Scott (33), and three grandchildren.

DOLPHIN FACT

Miami was 6-2 in games in which the team had an interception in 1997. The Dolphins own a 132-50-1 (.724) record since 1980 in regular season games which they have at least one interception.

TOM HECKERT

Director of Pro Personnel

College: Youngstown State
NFL: 17th Season
Dolphins: Tenth Season
Born: September 18, 1938

Beginning his tenth season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert was named as the club's Director of Pro Personnel prior to the start of the 1996 season. He originally joined the Dolphins in 1989 as Director of College Scouting. In his current capacity, Heckert's main responsibility is in the evaluation of talent on the professional level in addition to other overlapping duties.

During Heckert's three years as Director of College Scouting, the Dolphins used the draft to add such players as Richmond Webb, Keith Sims, Bryan Cox, Troy Vincent, Marco Coleman, and Dwight Hollier to their roster. In fact, those three drafts produced seven starters, three Pro Bowl selections (Cox, Sims, and Webb) and two Rookie of the Year selections (Coleman and Webb). In Heckert's five seasons in pro personnel, the Dolphins added such players as Keith Jackson, Irving Fryar, Ron Heller, Trace Armstrong, Terrell Buckley, Troy Drayton, Brock Marion and Kevin Donnalley.

Heckert has a varied background in football, including spending seven years as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Cleveland Browns. He also has both administrative and coaching experience on the collegiate level as well.

Heckert, 60, joined the Dolphins after serving two years (1987-88) as a national scout for the Buccaneers. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1987, he spent the previous five seasons (1982-86) as the Midwest area scout for the Browns. He also was involved in personnel and advance scouting in the NFL during his tenure with the Browns.

A 1961 graduate of Youngstown (Ohio) State, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Fitch High School in Youngstown in 1961 before a two-year hitch as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He returned to Fitch where he stayed through 1965 prior to enrolling as a graduate assistant at Kent State, where he earned a master's degree in education. He served as Head Coach at Maumee (Ohio) High School in 1967 and 1968 and then moved up to the college ranks as an assistant at Adrian (Michigan) College from 1969-72. He was named Head Coach at Adrian in 1973 and Athletic Director in 1977, where he remained until joining the Browns in 1982. His overall record as a Head Coach at Adrian was 43-36-2. His last three teams there were 23-3-1, including a 9-0 season in 1980.

Heckert and his wife, Rose (married 12/29/62), have two children, Kim (34) and Tom, Jr. (31), and four grandchildren. Tom, Jr. is a scout for the Dolphins.

TOM BRAATZ

Director of College Scouting

College: Marquette
NFL: 34th Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: May 12, 1933

Tom Braatz was named as the Dolphins' Director of College Scouting on June 12, 1992. He is responsible for the scouting of college players and Miami's preparation for the NFL draft, and in that role, he works closely with Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, and the rest of the team's football staff. In the past five years, he played a key role in the selection of a number of players who made an immediate impact as rookies, including the 1994 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, defensive lineman Tim Bowens, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie, linebacker Zach Thomas, running backs Karim Abdul-Jabbar and Stanley Pritchett, defensive lineman Daryl Gardener, and, last season, defensive lineman Jason Taylor, linebacker Derrick Rodgers and cornerback Sam Madison.

Braatz joined the Dolphins with a wealth of NFL experience and is regarded as one of the leading personnel experts in professional football. He is a veteran of 34 years in the NFL as a front office executive, personnel director, and talent scout with the Atlanta Falcons, the Green Bay Packers, and the Dolphins.

From 1987 through 1991, Braatz served as Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Packers, where his duties included the hiring and managing of the scouting staff, conducting the college draft, handling trades and waivers, and conducting contract negotiations with players.

Before joining the Packers on January 31, 1987, Braatz was a member of the Atlanta Falcons front office since the club's inception in 1965. He joined the team as an area scout, and went on to hold a number of positions with the Falcons, including Director of Player Personnel, Director of Scouting, and General Manager. While in Atlanta, Braatz' principal responsibility was overseeing the draft, where he was responsible for bringing a number of Pro Bowl players to the Falcons including William Andrews, Gerald Riggs, Mike Kenn, Bill Fralic, and Steve Bartkowski. He also handled most of the club's contract negotiations in the later years of his tenure with the Falcons.

Before beginning his executive career in the NFL, Braatz played with the Washington Redskins as a linebacker and closed out his pro career under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys in their charter 1960 season. He played collegiately at Marquette University, where he captained the school's football team as a senior.

Braatz, 65, and his wife, Jeri, have two sons, Tommy, 35, and Jon, 31.

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

College Scout

College: Wyoming
NFL: 20th Season
Dolphins: 16th Season
Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the western states fall on the shoulders of Mike Cartwright. In his 16th Dolphins season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyoming, for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High School. Also a former teacher, Cartwright earned a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming in 1970.

Mike and his wife, Mary (married 9/25/74), live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77) and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

TOM HECKERT, JR.

College Scout

College: Hillsdale
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: July 17, 1967

Beginning his eighth season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert, Jr. is responsible for scouting college players in the southeast. In his first four seasons in Miami, his primary involvement was in pro personnel.

Heckert, 31, joined the Dolphins after serving two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College in Michigan. Heckert was a defensive back for Hillsdale College and was a member of their National Championship team in 1985.

Heckert, his wife, Kathy, son Griffin (three), and daughter Madison (one), reside in Weston.

RON LABADIE

College Scout

College: Adrian
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: April 7, 1949

Beginning his ninth year with the Dolphins as a college scout, Ron Labadie concentrates his duties on college athletics in the midwestern states.

Labadie, 49, joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. Through his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, he posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and '89 as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall High School (1974-81), compiling a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and '77.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilynn, have three children, Lisa (23), Brad (20) and Ben (16).

JEFF SMITH

College Scout

College: Washington State
NFL: 19th Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: May 20, 1947

Beginning his third season with the Dolphins, Jeff Smith is responsible for scouting the central states for the team.

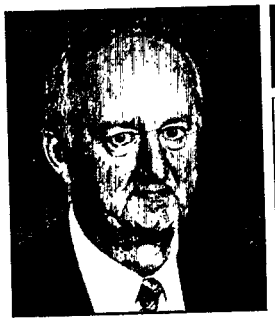

Smith joined the Dolphins on May 21, 1996, from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he spent the 1995 season working with current Dolphins Director of Football Operations Bob Ackles as a national scout, responsible for evaluating draft-eligible players throughout the country.

Smith spent the previous two seasons (1993-94) with Denver as the Broncos' Director of College Scouting. In that role, he coordinated all phases of the Broncos' college scouting operation. Before that, he was a member of the Cowboys' scouting department from 1984-92, working with Ackles and current Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson.

Smith first entered the NFL ranks in 1980 when he became a full-time scout with the Seattle Seahawks after spending the previous four seasons grading film on a part-time basis for Seattle while coaching full-time at Mercer Island (Wash.) High School. He began his coaching career at South Mercer (Wash.) Junior High School in 1970.

After two years as an offensive tackle at Washington State, Smith transferred to the University of Hawaii. He later returned to WSU, where he earned his degree in science education and mathematics.

Smith was born in Williamsport, Pa., and grew up in Clarkston, Wash., where he attended Clarkston High School. He and his wife, Ann Bixby, reside in Dallas.

JERE STRIPLING

College Scout

College: Murray State
NFL: 11th Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: August 24, 1935

Entering his 11th season as an NFL college scout, Jere Stripling begins his ninth season with the Dolphins. Stripling's responsibilities with Miami include serving as the club's BLESTO scout as well as scouting the south central states.

Stripling, 63, joined the Dolphins after serving the previous two years (1988-89) as an area scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, with his primary concentration on the southeastern states. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1988, he served two years (1986-87) as one of four national scouts for Canadian IX (the Canadian Football League's official scouting service), with his responsibilities focusing on the southeastern colleges in the United States.

A native of Newbern, Tenn., Stripling spent eight seasons (1978-85) as offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Northeast Louisiana University. He also served as the school's recruiting coordinator. Under Stripling, the Indians set season records for most yards passing, most yards in total offense and most points scored. In 1983, the Indians ranked sixth nationally in Division I-AA rushing offense.

A 1958 graduate of Murray State, Stripling began his coaching career right after graduation by serving as an assistant coach at Union City (Tenn.) High School. In 1960, he became head coach at Bartlett (Tenn.) High School, and in 1965 he moved to Dyersburg (Tenn.) High School. After his third and final season at Dyersburg, he and his aides were selected as the conference's "Coaching Staff of the Year."

Stripling played quarterback at the University of Tennessee for one year before transferring to Murray State for his final three years. He served as team captain, was named as the school's most valuable player and earned all-conference recognition as a senior.

Stripling and his wife, Corinne, have two children, David (38) and Susan (36).

KEVIN O'NEILL

Head Athletic Trainer

College: Pittsburgh
NFL: Tenth Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: August 2, 1954

Kevin O'Neill joined the Dolphins on March 1, 1996, as Head Athletic Trainer after serving seven seasons in a similar capacity with the Dallas Cowboys. Along with Ryan Vermillion and Troy Maurer, O'Neill is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins players in coordination with the club's medical staff. He also has other specific administrative duties as assigned by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson.

O'Neill re-joined Johnson with the Dolphins in 1996, having worked with him previously in Dallas and at the University of Miami. During his tenure in Dallas (1989-95), O'Neill was part of three Cowboys Super Bowl wins. He also was a member of Johnson's University of Miami National Championship club during his four years (1985-88) as Head Athletic Trainer at the school.

A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, O'Neill earned his master's degree in physical education from the University of Arizona while serving as athletic trainer for Catalina High School in Tucson, Ariz. O'Neill spent three years as the head athletic trainer at Oregon State, and one year at the University of Central Florida before joining the University of Miami.

A native of Pittsburgh, O'Neill and his wife, Anne, have two children, McKenzie and Kaitlyn, and live in Fort Lauderdale.

RYAN VERMILLION

Director of Rehabilitation/Associate Athletic Trainer

College: Miami (Fla.)
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: May 24, 1963

Ryan Vermillion, who joined the Dolphins' training staff on April 10, 1992, serves as the club's Director of Rehabilitation and Associate Athletic Trainer. He is responsible for the day-to-day rehabilitative needs of the team as well as many of the overall programs designed to maintain the team's health and welfare.

Vermillion served as the club's Physical Therapist in 1991, where he helped supervise the rehabilitation program for many of the team's injured players along with the Dolphins' medical staff. Vermillion also spent six seasons (1986-91) as the Physical Therapist for the University of Miami and was based at Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables. Before that, he spent three seasons as a volunteer trainer for the Hurricanes.

Vermillion, 35, received his degree in Physical Therapy from Miami in 1987 and has been certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife Margaret (7/27/91) live in Coral Springs with their children – Erin, Riley, and Ryan, Jr.

TONY EGUES

Equipment Manager

College: St. Thomas
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: December 22, 1969

Tony Egues begins his fourth year as Dolphin equipment manager after serving in a number of positions in his three previous seasons with the club. Egues is responsible for issuing and ordering all playing equipment for the team. In addition, Egues, along with assistants Charlie Thiele and Joe Cimino, coordinates the transport of the club's equipment to and from each road site, including an American Bowl game in Mexico City last year.

The 28-year old Egues began his career with the Dolphins on a part-time basis as an equipment assistant, then joined the club full-time in 1992 as an administrative assistant to the coaching staff. He was named as assistant equipment manager in 1994 and then was promoted to his current position prior to the start of the 1995 season. Egues also was elected by NFL Properties the past two years to serve on their Pro Line advisory board.

Egues resides in Pembroke Pines.

DAVID HACK

Video Director

College: Miami (Fla.)
NFL: 25th Season
Dolphins: 25th Season
Born: July 16, 1952

David Hack begins his 14th season with the Dolphins as the club's video director after having served 11 seasons as an assistant in the department. Hack and his assistant, Robert Hack, have the responsibility for providing the coaching and player personnel staffs with their audio/visual needs. They videotape all practices and games and maintain an extensive tape and film library.

During his 24 years with the Dolphins, Hack has shot two Super Bowls and also coordinated the team's video operations on international trips to London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City. He and Robert have also been selected by the NFL to shoot numerous college bowl and all star games, including the Orange Bowl, CarQuest Bowl and Senior Bowl All-Star games. In addition, Hack serves as the AFC East representative to the NFL Video Director's quality control committee.

Hack and his wife of 23 years, Connie, reside in Pembroke Pines and have two children, Heather (19) and Brett (16).

Mascot
Born: 4/18/97
College: Atlantis '97
Acquired: FA, 1997
NFL: Second Season • Dolphins: Second Season

The Miami Dolphins' 1997 addition might have been their biggest – literally. The club unveiled "T.D.", its new mascot, on Friday, April 18, 1997, the first "official" mascot in the history of the franchise. The 7-foot tall mascot made its public debut at the team's Draft Day Party at Pro Player Stadium on April 19, 1997. In addition, the mascot performs at every Dolphins home game.

When the mascot was first unveiled, it was without a name. The club held a "Name the Mascot" contest that drew over 13,000 entries covering all 50 states and 22 countries, with 529 different names suggested. The name "T.D." was first submitted by Sara Fernandez of Miami, and when that name was selected by the Dolphin organization, she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII for her winning entry, which was announced at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

The club had a live dolphin, "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl during the team's early years, and "Dolfan Denny," who has prowled the sidelines for many seasons, including 1998. However, this marks the first time the club actually has an official mascot, one who participates in many of the team's programs in addition to his gameday activities.

"T.D." is available for appearances. For more information, call the Dolphins mascot hotline at (954) 452-7002.

MIAMI DOLPHINS CHEERLEADERS

The Miami Dolphins inaugural season in 1966 also marked the beginning of cheerleaders on the sidelines at Dolphins home games. Besides bringing spirit and entertainment to the sidelines, the Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders also perform and appear at special events, grand openings, state and county fairs, and various other sporting events. The cheerleaders are closely involved in the community and donate their time to many charitable and civic organizations.

The 1998 Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders range in age from 18-28 and include a dental hygienist, an on-air radio personality, a second-degree black belt, elementary and high school teachers, graduate and undergraduate students, and a mother. This diverse squad includes ladies from across the United States, Brazil, Cuba, Honduras, the Philippines, and Singapore.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

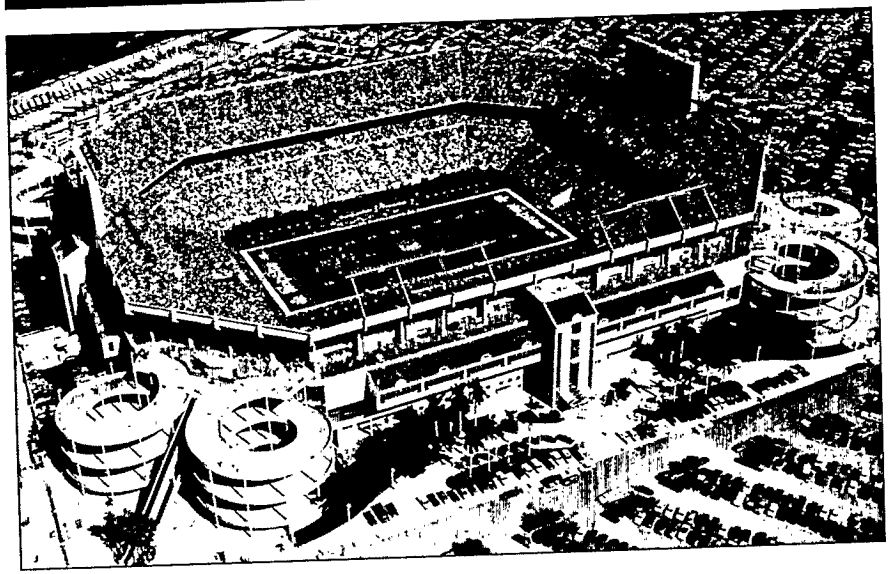

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

PRO PLAYER STADIUM

Pro Player Stadium, South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins and Florida Marlins, is in its 12th season as the premier sports and entertainment facility in the country. This state-of-the-art open-air complex hosted its first football game in August 1987, its first regular season Major League baseball game in April 1993 and stages world class events throughout the calendar year. Pro Player Stadium is one of only nine facilities in the country to host NFL football and Major League Baseball in the same venue.

HISTORY

Now in its 12th year of operation, the 75,000 seat, 115 million dollar, state-of-the-art, open-air facility, originally called Dolphin Stadium, was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened in 1987. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership. Since 1991, several million dollars have been spent to upgrade and renovate the stadium. The improvement and revitalization of the building under Huizenga allowed the stadium to remain the finest sports and entertainment facility in the United States.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. This industry leader, which specializes in licensed sports apparel, became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten year absence. A second Super Bowl was hosted when Super Bowl XXIX was played in the facility on January 29, 1995. The Super Bowl will return to Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999, when the facility will play host to Super Bowl XXXIII.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Pro Player Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers.

In 1997, Pro Player Stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on Oct. 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on October 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to thirteen spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, Pro Player Stadium underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the southwest corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of a hyrdolic disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. At the time, the only other facility to feature this type of track was Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at Pro Player Stadium.

On the field, Pro Player Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rain fall.

LOCATION

The stadium is located at 2269 N.W. 199th St. in Miami, only one mile south of the Dade-Broward County Line. The 160 acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD CLASS EVENTS

Pro Player Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football and Florida Marlins baseball, college football takes the field with the FedEx Orange Bowl (which played host to the national championship game in 1998) and the Sunshine Football Classic (formerly known as the Carquest Bowl). Super Bowl XXXIII will be held at Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at Pro Player Stadium in 1997, and the All-Star Game will take place at the stadium in 2000.

Pro Player Stadium has also played host to numerous concerts, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, the Three Tenors World Tour and U2.

Other events held in the past at Pro Player Stadium include international soccer games, featuring the United States World Cup Team, high school football, and numerous trade shows.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Pro Player Stadium's 195 suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. The ten, twelve, sixteen, twenty four and thirty two seat suites have been completely renovated and offer DirecTV access, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Uniformed Suite Captains provide personal service in each suite during the events. The Levy Restaurants of Chicago cater the suites with a delectable, wide-variety of food and beverages from which to choose. During Dolphins season, a unique feature which is broadcast on one of the stadium's closed circuit channels is the "Coach's Cam." A field camera dedicated to Coach Jimmy Johnson gives suiteholders a bird's-eye view of the coach as he calls the plays.

CLUB LEVEL SEATING

Located on the second level, the 10,200 club level seats provide exceptional luxury with the most space and leg room available in the stadium, featuring seats 21" wide (compared to the 19" wide general seating). The Club Seats lead to air-conditioned lounges with full-service bars and concession areas. The protective overhang and ventilation system, along with wait-staff service also are unique elements of the club level.

HALL OF CHAMPIONS

Pro Player Stadium was proud to introduce the new Hall of Champions during the 1997 Miami Dolphins season. Located in the east endzone area of the Club Level, the Hall of Champions allows groups of 50 to 270 to experience a Miami Dolphins football or Florida Marlins baseball game in style. In addition to club level amenities and entertainment, the Hall of Champions offers interior and exterior seating, a full bar with bartender, and many other exclusive privileges.

DINING

Full service concession facilities are available on the 100 and 400 levels. Theme areas include Port-O-Call, Bru's Wings, Premo's Subs and Salads, Domino's Pizza, Carvel Ice Cream and Carvel Yogurt. The stadium was recently recognized by Sports Illustrated for the high quality of its food and beverage service.

VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Pro Player Stadium will continue to enhance the fan experience by its commitment to capital improvements. These new renovations will heighten the guest experience by providing increased comfort and new amenities.

DOLPHINS TRAINING CENTER

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova-Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 68,226 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel and the club's administrative staff, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs as well.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include lounges, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings, and a dance studio for the team's cheerleaders.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coaches' office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Pro Player Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Pro Player Stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop, ticket windows, and rest rooms.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 1998

MIAMI DOLPHINS...
- Need 11 more wins for the 300th regular season victory in franchise history. They enter 1998 with an all-time regular season mark of 289-187-4.

RB KARIM ABDUL-JABBAR...
- Needs 641 more rushing yards to move into the top five on the Dolphins' all-time rushing chart. He enters 1998 with 2,008 yards, which ranks ninth all-time. He needs 122 more yards to move past Benny Malone (2,129) for eighth, 225 more yards to surpass Andra Franklin (2,232) for seventh, 624 more yards to overtake Delvin Williams (2,632) for sixth and 641 more yards to move ahead of Mark Higgs (2,648) for fifth.
- Needs 36 more points to move into the top ten on the Dolphins' all-time scoring list. He enters 1998 with 162 points, 14th all-time. With 36 points, Abdul-Jabbar would tie Mercury Morris, Paul Warfield and Tony Nathan - all of whom totaled 198 career points - for ninth all-time.
- Needs two more rushing touchdowns to tie Jim Kiick (28) for third on the Dolphins' all-time list, and three more to equal Mercury Morris (29) for second. Abdul-Jabbar enters 1998 with 26 career rushing scores.
- Needs one more 100-yard rushing game to tie Mark Higgs (seven) for fourth-most on the Dolphins' all-time chart. Abdul-Jabbar enters 1998 with six career 100-yard rushing games. With two more he would tie Benny Malone (eight) for third, with four more would join Mercury Morris (10) for second and with nine more would equal Larry Csonka (15) for first.
- Needs 113 more carries to break into the top five on the Dolphins' all-time rushing attempts chart. Abdul-Jabbar enters 1998 with 590 carries, eighth on the all-time list. With 33 more he would pass Andra Franklin (622) for seventh. With 54 more he would pass Delvin Williams (643) for sixth. With 113 more he would pass Mark Higgs (702) for fifth. With 143 more, he would pass Tony Nathan (732) for fourth. With 165 more he would pass Mercury Morris (754) for third.
- With a 1,000-yard rushing season, would become just the second Dolphins player to reach that plateau in two different seasons. Larry Csonka put together three 1,000-yard rushing seasons (1971, 1972, 1973). Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 1,116 yards in his rookie season of 1996.
- If he leads the team in rushing in 1998, Abdul-Jabbar would become just the third Dolphins player to top the club's rushing chart three straight seasons. Larry Csonka did it five consecutive years (1970-74) and Mark Higgs accomplished the feat on three straight occasions (1991-93).
- Needs six more touchdowns to break into the top five on the Dolphins' all-time touchdown chart. Abdul-Jabbar enters 1998 with 27 total touchdowns, 10th on the all-time list. With one more he would tie Lorenzo Hampton (28) for ninth. With four more he would equal Jim Kiick (29) for eighth. With six more he would join Mercury Morris, Paul Warfield and Tony Nathan - all of whom scored 33 times - for fifth.

DE TRACE ARMSTRONG...
- Needs to play in 15 regular season game to reach the 150 mark for his career. He enters 1998 having appeared in 135 regular season contests during his previous nine seasons.
- Needs 11 more sacks to attain 75 for his NFL career. He has amassed 64 entering 1998.
- If he leads the team in sacks in 1998, Armstrong would become just the second Dolphins player to top the club's sack chart three straight seasons. Jeff Cross did it three consecutive years (1989-91).
- Needs two more sacks to break into the top ten on the Dolphins' all-time sack chart. Armstrong enters 1998 with 22 sacks for the Dolphins, 11th on the all-time list. With two more he would tie Marco Coleman (24) for tenth. With 9.5 he would tie Bryan Cox (31.5) for ninth.

DT TIM BOWENS...
- Can extend his consecutive games played and started streak of 62, the second-longest current streak on the club, and longest among Dolphins defenders.

CB TERRELL BUCKLEY...
- Needs to play in six more regular season games to reach the 100 mark in his NFL career. He enters 1998 having appeared in 94 regular seasons contests in six previous NFL seasons.
- Needs four more interceptions for 25 in his career. He enters 1998 with 21.

- If he leads the team in interceptions, Buckley would become just the second Dolphins player to top the team's interception chart three straight years. Louis Oliver did it four consecutive seasons, from 1989-92.

TE TROY DRAYTON...
- Needs 27 more receptions to reach 200 in his NFL career. He has caught 173 in his previous five NFL seasons.

QB CRAIG ERICKSON...
- Needs 2,375 more passing yards to reach 10,000 in his NFL career. He has thrown for 7,625 in his previous six NFL seasons.
- Needs nine more pass completions to reach 600 in his NFL career. He has completed 591 passes entering 1998.

CB COREY HARRIS...
- Needs to play in nine regular season games for 100 in his NFL career. He enters 1998 having appeared in 91 regular season contests.

LB DWIGHT HOLLIER...
- Needs to play in ten regular season games for 100 in his NFL career. He enters 1998 having appeared in 90 regular season contests.

LB ROBERT JONES...
- Needs to play in 12 regular season games to reach 100 for his NFL career. He enters 1998 having appeared in 88 contests.

P JOHN KIDD...
- Needs 27 more punts to surpass George Roberts (227) for third on the Dolphins' all-time chart for most punts. Kidd has punted 201 times with Miami entering 1998.

QB DAN MARINO...
- Needs to play in one game to achieve his 16th season of service with the Dolphins, moving him into sole possession of first on the club's all-time list. He currently is tied with Bob Kuechenberg (1970-84) for first at 15 seasons.
- Needs 15 touchdown passes to become the first player in NFL history to throw 400 touchdowns. He enters 1998 with 385.
- Should he lead the league in passing yards, Marino would accomplish the feat for the sixth time in his career and set an NFL standard for most seasons leading the league in that category. He led the league from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992. He currently is tied with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) at five.
- Should he lead the league in touchdown passes, Marino would join John Unitas (1957-60) and Len Dawson (1962-63, 1965-66) as the only players to lead the league in that category four times. Marino has done it on three occasions, from 1984-86.
- Should he throw for 3,000 yards this year, he would establish an NFL record for most seasons with 3,000 yards passing at 13. His 12 seasons are currently tied with Denver's John Elway for first on the league's all-time list. Marino has accomplished the feat in 1984-92, 1994-95 and 1997.

WR O.J. McDUFFIE...
- Needs two more receptions to surpass Duriel Harris (269) for fifth on the Dolphins' all-time reception list. McDuffie enters 1998 with 268 catches.
- Needs 228 more receiving yards to move ahead of Tony Nathan (3,592) into fifth on the Dolphins' all-time receiving yardage chart. McDuffie enters 1998 with 3,365 yards. Needs 1,170 yards to overtake Duriel Harris (4,534) for fourth all-time.
- Can extend his streak of 46 straight regular season games with a reception.
- If he leads the team in receptions, McDuffie would become just the second Dolphins player to top the team's reception chart three straight years. Nat Moore did it six straight years, from 1974-79.
- Needs five receiving touchdowns to tie Bruce Hardy (25) and move into the top five on the Dolphins' all-time list for receiving touchdowns. McDuffie has notched 20 receiving touchdowns entering 1998, tied for eighth all-time. He needs three more to tie Howard Twilley and Jim Mandich (23 each) for the sixth spot.
- Needs to return a punt for a touchdown to set the team record for most career punt returns for touchdowns. He has brought back two punts for scores in his previous five seasons, and is tied with Freddie Solomon and Tommy Vigorito for the club mark.

RB BERNIE PARMALEE...
- Needs 61 more rushing yards for 2,000 in his NFL career. He enters 1998 with 1,939.
- Needs 11 more rushing yards to move past Lorenzo Hampton (1,949) into the top ten on the Dolphins' all-time rushing chart.
- Needs two touchdowns to reach 20 in his NFL career and five rushing scores for 20. He has tallied 18 touchdowns in his career, 15 of them on the ground.
- Needs one more 100-yard rushing game to tie Mark Higgs (7) for fourth-most on the Dolphins' all-time chart. Parmalee enters 1998 with six career 100-yard rushing games. With two more he would tie Benny Malone (8) for third, with four more would join Mercury Morris (10) for second, and with nine more would equal Larry Csonka (15) for first.
- Needs to play in 11 more regular season games to reach 100 for his career. He has appeared in 89 regular season contests entering 1998.

LB ZACH THOMAS...
- If he leads the team in tackles, Thomas would become just the fourth Dolphins player to top the team's tackle chart three straight years. Nick Buoniconti did it five straight seasons from 1969-73, Bryan Cox accomplished the feat four consecutive years, from 1992-95, and Steve Towle led the team three straight seasons, from 1975-77.

T RICHMOND WEBB...
- Can extend his consecutive games played and started streak of 110.
- If he plays in all 16 regular season games in 1998, Webb would move past Bob Baumhower (125) into third on the Dolphins' all-time chart for consecutive games played.

DOLPHINS ARE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins are the winningest team in professional football. The Dolphins, who own a regular season record of 274-148-2 (.649) and an overall mark of 291-163-2 (.640), have the best regular-season and overall winning percentage of any NFL team during that span.

DOLPHIN FACT

Running back Bernie Parmalee holds the team record for rushing yardage in consecutive games. Parmalee gained 150 yards on 30 carries against the L.A. Raiders on October 16, 1994, and followed that performance with a 123-yard effort on 25 carries at New England on October 30. His 273 rushing yards in those two games set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous best of 258 yards rushing by Mercury Morris accomplished with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973.

PRO CAREER

1997 – Played in all 16 games with 14 starts in his second NFL season . . . Rushed for 892 yards and 15 touchdowns on 283 attempts, the second straight season in which he topped the Dolphins' rushing chart . . . He also caught 29 passes for 261 yards and a TD . . . Reception total was fourth on the squad . . . He led the team in rushing on 14 occasions and in receiving once . . . His 283 rush attempts are the second-most in Dolphins history, trailing only his own figure of 307 from 1996 . . . He became the second Dolphin to lead the team in rushing in each of his first two seasons, with Jim Kiick being the first (1968-69) . . . Abdul-Jabbar's rushing total ranked tenth in the AFC, and his 1,153 total yards from scrimmage were 14th in the conference . . . He led the NFL in total touchdowns (16), and tied with Denver's Terrell Davis for the league-lead in rushing touchdowns (15) . . . Abdul-Jabbar's 2,008 rushing yards over the last two years are the third-most ever by a Dolphin in consecutive seasons, trailing only Larry Csonka, who combined for 2,168 rushing yards from 1971-72 and 2,120 yards from 1972-73 . . . His rushing total, which currently places him ninth on the Dolphins' all-time list, also is the most by a Dolphins player in his first two NFL seasons . . . 590 career rush attempts is the eighth-most over by a Dolphins player . . .

100-YARD GAMES: Abdul-Jabbar reached the 100-yard plateau twice in 1997, and the Dolphins won both of those games . . . His six career 100-yard rushing games are tied with Delvin Williams (1978-80) and Bernie Parmalee (1992-97) for the fifth-most in Dolphins history . . . In fact, Miami is 5-1 when he rushes for 100 or more yards . . . On October 19, 1997, at Baltimore, Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 108 yards and three touchdowns on 22 carries in the Dolphins' 24-13 victory. . . His rushing total in that game was the fourth-highest of his career . . . He totaled 103 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 25 attempts in Miami's 24-17 victory over the N.Y. Jets on November 9, 1997 . . . He has put together four other 100-yard rushing games: 152 yards on December 22, 1996, at N.Y. Jets; 104 yards on November 3, 1996, at New England (the lone Dolphins loss among Abdul-Jabbar's six career 100-yard rushing games); 124 yards on September 15, 1996, vs. N.Y. Jets; and 115 yards on September 1, 1996, vs. N.Y. Jets . . .

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the five AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over Kansas City on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 — 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and '89 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 straight games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

DOLPHIN FACT

Despite having 126 players selected to appear in the Pro Bowl since 1970, the Dolphins have never had a cornerback play in the post-season all-star contest. Offensive guard is the position which Miami has been represented at most often (19 times, led by Bob Kuechenberg's six appearances). Surprisingly, despite the high number of appearances by the rest of the offensive line (also, 12 by centers), Dolphins offensive tackles have played in the Pro Bowl on only ten occasions (Richmond Webb, seven times; Norm Evans, twice and Wayne Moore, once).

erall in Marino's career the Dolphins are 12-20 in the 32 regular season games in which he ed to throw a touchdown pass (and 12-21 in his 33 overall games, including playoffs), with e victories coming in 1997 (Oct. 19th at Baltimore, Sept. 7th vs. Tennessee and Aug. 31st Indianapolis), one win in 1996 (Sept. 1st vs. New England), one win in 1995 (Oct. 29th vs. ffalo), one win in 1994 (Dec. 25th vs. Detroit), two in 1992 (Dec. 27th at New England and t. 11th vs. Atlanta), one in 1991 (September 22nd vs. Green Bay), one in 1990 (Oct. 18th New England), and the other two coming in 1989 (Oct. 15th at Cincinnati and December h vs. New England) . . . Two of those 12 wins for Marino without throwing a touchdown pass ne in the first two games of the 1997 season, and it marked only the fourth time in his career t Marino has not thrown a touchdown pass in consecutive games . . . He has never gone e games in a row in his career without a TD pass . . . When he threw a touchdown pass Charles Jordan on the his final attempt of the game on Sept. 14, 1997 at Green Bay, it ended treak of two-plus games (covering the first two games of the season and most of the Packer ne) that Marino did not throw a touchdown pass, covering 116 attempts . . . It also included consecutive quarters (the first 11 quarters of the season) that Marino went without throwing ouchdown pass, the longest such streak of his career . . . Marino has six career games of owing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins are 4-2 in those contests . . . rino has 20 career games passing for four or more touchdowns, and he is 15-5 in those 20 ests . . . When Marino threw for five touchdowns on September 4, 1994 vs. New England, as the 18th time he threw for four or more touchdowns, breaking an NFL record he had ed with Johnny Unitas for most career games (17) throwing four or more touchdown ses . . In his career Marino has thrown three or more touchdowns in 58 games (63, uding playoffs), and he is 39-19 in those contests (42-21 including post-season games) Marino has thrown for 20 or more TD passes in 12 of his 15 years in the NFL . . . In addition 997 and 1996, the only other season when he failed to reach 20 TD passes came in 1993, en he played only five games due to injury . . . By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 5, he extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown ses to 12 seasons . . . In 1991 Marino became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight erent seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more chdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the gue, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL:

rino also is the only player in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in his first NFL seasons and in ten consecutive seasons . . . Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) rino has thrown for 30 or more touchdowns, and he is tied with Brett Favre (1994-97) for NFL record of most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . . In addition to ino and Favre, only six other quarterbacks have thrown 30 or more TD passes twice nny Jurgensen, 1961, 1967; Y.A. Tittle, 1962, 1963; Daryle Lamonica, 1967, 1969; Dan ts, 1980, 1981; Steve Bartkowski, 1980, 1981; and Warren Moon, 1990, 1995) . . . Marino e only QB to throw 40 or more TDs in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: In his career, Marino has not thrown an interception in 77 games (81, uding playoffs), including seven times in 1997 (on Dec. 14th at Indianapolis, Nov. 9th us N.Y. Jets, on Oct. 19th at Baltimore, on Oct. 12th at N.Y. Jets, on Oct. 5th versus sas City, on Sept. 21st at Tampa Bay and on Sept. 7th vs. Tennessee) . . . The Dolphins 55-22 in those 77 games in which he was not intercepted (58-23, including playoffs), uding 5-2 in 1997 . . . Marino went four straight games without throwing an interception in 7 (from game four, on Sept. 21st at Tampa Bay through game seven, on Oct. 19th at imore), tying him with Bob Griese's Dolphin record of going four consecutive games (which se set in the fifth through eighth game in 1971) without an interception . . . Marino's 11- completion to O.J. McDuffie in the fourth quarter at the N.Y. Jets on Oct. 12, 1997 was his 123rd straight pass attempt without an interception, breaking Griese's club record o consecutive passes without an interception, which Griese set in the 10th through the game in 1967 . . . Marino extended that club record to 156 consecutive passes witho interception, before breaking that streak when he was intercepted by the Bears' An Marshall in the first quarter on Oct. 27, 1997 versus Chicago . . . His last interception b Marshall's pick came on the last play of the first half at Green Bay on Sept. 14th, and he over 4-1/2 games (the second half of game three and all of games four through seven pl early part of game eight) since then without an INT . . . On Dec. 28, 1997 in the AFC Wild playoff game at New England, Marino was intercepted by the Patriots' Todd Collins, returned the INT 40 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the first time in Marino's post-se career he had an interception returned for a touchdown . . . It also was the fifth time in (including four times in regular season play) that he had an interception returned touchdown . . . On Dec. 7, 1997 versus Detroit, Marino was intercepted by the Lions' B Westbrook, who returned the INT 64 yards for a touchdown, the fourth time in the 1997 re season Marino had an interception returned for a touchdown . . . On Nov. 23, 1997 at England, Marino threw three interceptions, two of which were returned for touchdowns, yard return for a touchdown by Larry Whigham and a 100-yard return for a TD by J Hitchcock . . . Hitchcock's return was tied for the second longest interception return Dolphins opponent (along with the Jets' Aaron Glenn's 100-yard return of a Marino l Sept. 15, 1996 in Miami), surpassed only by the Raiders' Eddie Anderson's 102-yard retur Marino interception on December 14, 1992 in Miami . . . The two Patriot interception retur touchdowns marked only the second time in Marino's career and in Dolphin history tha interceptions were returned for touchdowns in the same game . . . The only other tim happened in Dolphin history was on December 18, 1988 in Pittsburgh when the Ste Dwayne Woodruff returned a Marino interception 78 yards for a touchdown, followed by Jordan's 28-yard touchdown return of another Marino interception . . . On August 31, 19 Indianapolis, Marino was intercepted by the Colts' Elijah Alexander, who returned the yards for a touchdown . . . Marino's four interceptions for touchdowns in the 1997 regular s matches the highest single regular season figure in Marino's career, along with his four l touchdowns in 1988 and in 1992 . . . Overall in his career, Marino has thrown 23 interce that have been returned for touchdowns, 22 in the regular season and one in the playoffs

SACKS: Marino was sacked 20 times in 1997, the fourth highest single-season total career . . . en Marino started in the 1997 season opener on August 31st versus Indianapolis, it was rino's 14th consecutive opening game start, the second-longest streak among active arterbacks, trailing only Denver's John Elway, who has started 15 straight season openers Until suffering a left ankle sprain on Nov. 2, 1997 at Buffalo, Marino had taken every snap the Dolphins in 1997, covering all of the first eight games and most of the first half of the th contest . . . At the time of that injury Marino had been one of only five quarterbacks in the L to have taken every snap in 1997 (including Detroit's Scott Mitchell, Green Bay's Brett vre, Minnesota's Brad Johnson, and Oakland's Jeff George) . . . The game against the Bills Nov. 2, 1997 and the contest at Indianapolis on Dec. 14, 1997 when Erickson relieved Marino he third quarter were the only two contests that season that Marino failed to take every snap a game . . . Marino in 1998 is in his 16th year of service with the Dolphins, breaking Bob chenberg's club record for most seasons (15) as a Dolphin, which Kuechenberg originally from 1970-84 . . . On Aug. 31, 1997 vs. Indianapolis, Marino played in his 200th regular son game, becoming the first Dolphin to reach that milestone . . . On Oct. 27, 1996 vs. las, Marino played in his 191st career regular season game, breaking Kuechenberg's former m record (190) for most regular season games played . . . He now has played in 215 regular son games with Miami, including 213 starts, and has started all 14 playoff games the lphins have played in since he joined the team . . . Since the start of the 1984 season, Marino s started 204 of the Dolphins' last 220 regular season games (and 217 of 233 games overall luding playoffs), not counting the three 1987 replacement games . . .

INJURIES: On November 2, 1997 at Buffalo, Marino suffered a left ankle sprain late in the cond quarter that forced him to miss the final play of the first half and all but the first series he second half . . . Before being forced from the Bills contest, the last time Marino was ced to leave a game due to injury came on Sept. 23, 1996 at Indianapolis when he was ced from the contest permanently midway through the first quarter with a fractured right kle, suffered without being hit on a 34-yard pass completion to O.J. McDuffie, an injury that ed him to miss the next three games that season (Oct. 6th vs. Seattle, Oct. 13th at Buffalo, Oct. 20th at Philadelphia) . . . Those remain the last games that Marino has missed due injury . . . Overall the Dolphins are 8-10 in the 18 games that Marino has missed during his eer because of injury . . . Before their win on Oct. 13, 1996 at Buffalo, Miami had lost the previous games Marino missed (the final five contests in 1993, two games in 1995, and contest in 1996) . . . Of the 18 games Marino has missed due to injury, three came in 1996 e above for dates) while recovering from surgery to repair a fractured right ankle, two nes in 1995 (Oct. 22nd at N.Y. Jets and Oct. 15 at New Orleans) while recovering from a ised left hip and arthroscopic surgery on his right knee, the final 11 games of the 1993 son after being placed on Injured Reserve on Oct. 13th as a result of a torn Achilles' tendon is right leg, and the final two games of the 1983 season due to a left knee sprain . . . The game he missed as a result of his Achilles injury, on October 24, 1993 vs. Indianapolis, ke his streak of playing 145 straight regular season games (excluding the three lacement contests in 1987), dating back to the start of the 1984 season (155 straight games layoff games are counted) . . . Before that injury, Marino was the only NFL quarterback to e started every game since the replacement games in 1987 . . . Marino is one of only five L quarterbacks who have started 100 or more straight regular season games since the 0 merger (also: Ron Jaworski, Phila., 116 games [1977-84], Brian Sipe, Cleve., 109 games 75-83], Joe Ferguson, Buff., 107 games [1977-84], and Steve Bartkowski, Atl., 100 games 77-84]) . . .

OPERATIONS: Did not undergo any surgical procedures following the 1997 season . . . It ked the ninth time in his career and fourth straight year that his off-season was surgery- (after the 1997, 1996, 1995, 1994 1992, 1990, 1989, 1988, and 1986 seasons) . . . On tember 24, 1996, Marino underwent an arthroscopic debridement (cleaning) as well as an rnal fixation (screw insertion) of his right ankle fracture . . . The surgery was performed at thSouth Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables by Dolphins team physicians Dr. John Uribe Dr. Dan Kanell . . . His previous surgery was on Oct. 9, 1995, when Dolphins team

McDuffie . . . It was the first time he was forced from a game permanently due to injury s September 18, 1995 vs. Pittsburgh, when he was forced from that contest late in the quarter due to a contusion of the sternum following a tackle by the Steelers' Greg Lloyd Marino underwent an arthroscopic debridement (cleaning) as well as an internal fixa (screw insertion) of his right ankle fracture on September 24, 1996 . . . The surgery performed at HealthSouth Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables by Dolphins team physicians John Uribe and Dr. Dan Kanell . . . Missed next three games (Oct. 6th vs. Seattle, Oct. 13th ffalo, and Oct. 20th at Philadelphia) while recovering from that surgery, and the Dolphins nt 1-2 in those three contests . . . Started all four preseason games and in those contests arino was 28-50 (56.0%) for 348 yards, three touchdowns and one interception for a rating 89.4 . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: On Sept. 23, 1996 at Indianapolis, Marino completed ly five passes in eight attempts before leaving the game permanently midway in the first arter with a sprained right ankle . . . His pass attempts and completions in that contest both present his single-game career lows, breaking his former single-game lows of eight mpletions and 16 attempts, both set on November 25, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh (Marino later atched his low of five completions on Nov. 2, 1997 at Buffalo) . . . On Nov. 25, 1996 vs.
ttsburgh he completed his first seven passes at the start of the game before throwing an completion, and coupled with the seven straight completions he had to finish his previous ntest, at Houston on Nov. 17, 1996, his 14 consecutive completions over those two games the second highest figure in club history, surpassed only by his team record of 15 nsecutive completions, which he set over the course of two games, on Nov. 8, 1992 at dianapolis and on Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo . . . In addition, on Nov. 10, 1996 vs.
dianapolis, Marino completed 13 consecutive passes, tying him with Earl Morrall (Dec. 1, 75 at New England) for third place on the Dolphins' all-time list for most consecutive mpletions . . .

YARDAGE: On Nov. 10, 1996 vs Indianapolis, when Marino completed a 36-yard pass to J. McDuffie in the second quarter, he went over 50,000 career yards passing, becoming the st quarterback in NFL history to pass for 50,000 yards . . . Marino reached that milestone in e 193rd game of his career . . . In 1996, Marino threw for 2,795 yards, the second lowest ngle-season yardage total of his career (not including the 1993 season when he played in ly five games), behind only his rookie year of 1983 when he threw for 2,210 yards . . . Marino d not have a game passing for 400 or 300 yards in 1996 . . . It marked the first time in arino's career (except for the 1993 season when he played in only five games) when he did t have a 300-yard passing game in a season . . . On Sept. 23, 1996 at Indianapolis, Marino d only 67 yards passing before being forced from the game permanently midway through e first quarter with a fractured right ankle . . . His 67 yards passing in that contest is his new reer single-game low in passing yardage, fewer than his previous single game low of 90 rds passing at the L.A. Raiders on Sept. 19, 1983 . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: On Sept. 15, 1996 vs. N.Y. Jets, Marino had an interception by the ts' Aaron Glenn returned 100 yards for a touchdown . . . It was tied for the second longest T return against the Dolphins in club history (along with the Patriots' Jimmy Hitchcock, who turned a Marino INT 100 yards for a TD on Nov. 23, 1997), surpassed only by a 102-yard turn by the L.A. Raiders' Eddie Anderson of a Marino pass at Miami on Dec. 14, 1992 . . . It so was the first time an opponent had returned a Marino interception for a touchdown since y Buchanan of the Indianapolis Colts returned a Marino INT 28 yards for a TD on November 1994 . . . On Dec. 1, 1996 at Oakland, Marino's first interception in that contest, by the aiders' Terry McDaniel in the second quarter, ended a streak of 110 consecutive passes arino threw without an interception, dating back to the third quarter on Nov. 3, 1996 at New gland and covering the remainder of that game, the next three complete games, and arino's first 11 passes against the Raiders . . . He finished 12 passes shy of tying Bob iese's former club record of 122 consecutive passes without an interception, which Griese t in the tenth through 14th games in 1967, a record Marino did break in 1997 . . . In addition, e interception by McDaniel broke a streak of three consecutive games when Marino did not row an interception (Nov. 10th vs. Indianapolis, Nov. 17th at Houston, and Nov. 25th vs. ttsburgh), leaving him one game short of tying the Dolphins record of four straight games thout an INT, which was set by Griese in the fifth through eighth games in 1971 and later tied Marino in 1997 . . .

SACKS: Marino's 18 sacks in 1996 is tied for the fifth highest single-season sack total of s career . . . Marino was not sacked three times in 1996, on Oct. 27th vs. Dallas, on Sept.

HONORS: Marino was named AFC Player of the Week once in 1995, for the week o December 2-3 following his performance on December 3rd against Atlanta when he went 35 50 for 343 yards, two touchdowns, two interceptions, and no sacks . . . His second touchdow pass, a 21-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar, came with 11 seconds left in the game, accounted fo the final points in the game to bring the Dolphins back from a 20-15 deficit to a 21-2 comeback win . . . His touchdown pass to Fryar also was Marino's 20th TD pass of the season marking the 12th time in his 13 years in the NFL he has thrown for 20 or more touchdow passes, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 20 or more touchdowns . . . Marino's 343 yards passing versus the Falcons was his third 300-yard passing game o the season and his 52nd career 300-yard passing game in the regular season, breaking Da Fouts' former NFL record of most career games passing for 300 or more yards (51) . . . H addition, Marino's 35 completions against the Falcons is tied for the second most completion in a game in Marino's career (accomplished twice previously) and in Dolphins histor surpassed only by his 39 completions at Buffalo on November 16, 1986 . . . It was the 15t time that Marino won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his one playoff game in 1995, an AFC Wild Card playoff game on Dec. 30 1995 at Buffalo, Marino was 33-64 (51.6%) for 422 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions for a 63.4 rating . . . His 64 attempts is Marino's single game career high (playoff or regular season), it is the most by any Dolphins player in a postseason or regular season game, breaking Marino's club playoff record of 50 attempts in Super Bowl XIX vs. San Francisco on January 20, 1985 and it surpassed the overall Dolphins team record of 6 attempts by Marino on October 23, 1988 vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . In addition, his 64 attempts tie he highest single-game total in NFL postseason history, matching the record of 64 attempts y Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3, 1987 . . . Marino's 33 ompletions is his single-game playoff high and it is the most by any Dolphins player in the ostseason, breaking the Dolphins single-game playoff record of 29 completions, which was et by Don Strock on January 2, 1982 vs. San Diego and later tied by Marino in Super Bowl IX vs. San Francisco on January 20, 1985 . . . It also is tied for the second highest single-ame total in NFL playoff history, along with the 33 completions by San Diego's Dan Fouts at Miami on January 2, 1982 and matched by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on anuary 3, 1987, surpassed only by the NFL postseason record of 36 completions by Houston's Warren Moon at Buffalo on January 3, 1993 . . . Marino's 422 yards passing vs. the Bills was the most yards passing by any Dolphins player in the postseason, breaking the Dolphins single-game playoff record of 421 yards passing by Marino in the AFC Championship ame vs. Pittsburgh on January 6, 1985 . . . It also was the third highest single game total in NFL playoff history, surpassed only by the 489 yards passing by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3, 1987 and the 433 yards passing by San Diego's Dan Fouts at Miami on January 2, 1982 . . . Marino's 422 yards passing was his second 400-yard passing game in 1995 and it also was his 15th career 400-yard passing game (including two playoff games) . . . It also was Marino's 56th career 300-yard passing game (including four playoff games) . . . Marino's two touchdown passes in that AFC Wild Card game at Buffalo came on a five-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie and a 45-yard TD pass to Randal Hill.

1994 -- Started all 16 games (and both playoff contests) in 1994 and finished the season going 385 for 615 (62.6%) for 4,453 yards, 30 touchdowns, 17 interceptions and 17 sacks for an 89.2 rating . . . In the preseason played in four games and was 22-43 (51.1%) for 314 yards, three touchdowns, two interceptions, and no sacks for a rating of 79.0 . . . Marino ranked first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Steve Young and Brett Favre) in passing efficiency, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Drew Bledsoe) in attempts, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Bledsoe) in completions, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Bledsoe) in yards passing, and first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Young and Favre) in touchdown passes . . . It marked the first time that Marino led the AFC in passing efficiency since 1986 . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: With 615 pass attempts in 1994, Marino had the second highest number of attempts in Dolphins history, surpassed only by the team record he set in 1986 with 623 attempts . . . On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis Marino attempted the 6,000th pass of his career, joining Fran Tarkenton as the only two quarterbacks in NFL history to record 6,000 pass attempts . . . On Oct. 2, 1994 at Cincinnati, Marino attempted his 5,605th pass of his career and moved past Dan Fouts into second place among the NFL all-time pass completion leaders, behind only Tarkenton . . . With 385 completions in 1994, Marino set a new Dolphins record for most completions in a season, breaking the former team record for most completions in a season, which he set in 1986 with 378 completions . . . On Sept. 25, 1994 at Minnesota, Marino completed the 3,298th pass of his career to move past Fouts into sole possession of second place among the NFL all-time pass completion leaders, behind only Tarkenton . . . Marino's completion percentage in 1994 of 62.6% was the third highest completion percentage of his career and is the fourth highest single-season completion percentage in Dolphins history . . .

YARDAGE: On Nov. 6, 1994 vs. Indianapolis, Marino passed Dan Fouts (43,040 career passing yards) and moved into second place on the NFL's all-time career passing yardage list . . . Marino's 4,453 yards passing in 1994 is the third highest single-season total in Dolphins history, surpassed only by his NFL record of 5,084 yards passing in 1984 and 4,746 yards passing in 1986 . . . On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis, Marino went over 4,000 yards passing for the season, marking the sixth time in his career he has thrown for 4,000 or more yards in a season, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards . . . Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to have six 4,000-yard seasons (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994) . . . Warren Moon (four, 1990-91, 1994-95), Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81), and Drew Bledsoe (two, 1994, 1996) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts he is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . Marino's six 4,000-yard seasons account for five of the top 22 and six of the 24 leading single-season passing yardage totals in NFL history:

On Nov. 20, 1994 at Pittsburgh, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, his tenth 3,000-yard season . . . Marino had two 400-yard passing games in 1994, on Sept. 4th vs. New England, when he threw for 473 yards, and on Sept. 25th at Minnesota, when Marino threw for 431 yards . . . Those two figures represent the second highest and sixth highest single-game passing yardage totals in Dolphins history . . . Marino had five 300-yard passing games in 1994, on September 4, 1994 vs. New England, when Marino threw for 473 yards, on Sept. 25th at Minnesota, when Marino threw for 431 yards, on Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh, when Marino threw for 312 yards, on Nov. 27th at the N.Y. Jets, when Marino threw for 359 yards, and on Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo, when he threw for 311 yards . . . Marino's three consecutive games of 300 or more passing yards (Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh, Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets, and Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo) tied his own team record for most consecutive 300-yard passing games . . . He previously had three consecutive 300-yard passing games in the 14th through 16th games in 1984 and then tied that record in the 13th through 15th games in 1988 . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: On September 4, 1994 vs. New England, Marino threw for five touchdown passes . . . His second touchdown pass in that contest, a 26-yard TD pass to Keith Jackson, was the 300th touchdown pass of Marino's career . . . He joined Fran Tarkenton (342 career TD passes) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to reach that milestone . . . Marino, who took 157 career games to throw for 300 TD passes, reached that plateau faster than Tarkenton (217 games):

In addition to that game, Marino had one other contest in 1994 when he threw for four or more touchdown passes, throwing four TD passes on Nov. 27th at the N.Y. Jets . . . All four of his TD passes in that Jets contest were caught by Mark Ingram, who tied the Dolphins single-game team records for most points, touchdowns, and touchdown receptions, all of which originally were set by Paul Warfield when he had four TD receptions on Dec. 15, 1973 vs. Detroit . . . When Marino threw for five touchdowns on September 4th vs. New England, it was the 18th time he threw for four or more touchdowns, breaking an NFL record he had shared with Johnny Unitas for most career games (17) throwing four or more touchdown passes . . . On Nov. 13th vs. Chicago, Marino's 11-yard touchdown pass to Keith Jackson was his 20th TD pass of the season, his 11th season throwing 20 or more touchdown passes . . . Marino finished the 1994 season with 30 touchdown passes, which is tied for the third highest single-season total of his career, surpassed only by his NFL record of 48 touchdown passes in 1984 and his 44 TD passes in 1986 (he also had 30 touchdown passes in 1985) . . . On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Marino threw a four-yard touchdown pass to Irving Fryar, which was Marino's 30th touchdown pass of the season . . . It marked the fourth time in his career (1984-86, 94) he has thrown for 30 or more touchdowns, extending his own NFL record for most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes, a record later tied by Brett Favre (1994-97) . . .

INTERCEPTIONS, SACKS AND RUSHING: Marino did not throw an interception in five games in 1994 (seven, including playoffs), and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those five games (4-3, including playoffs) . . . Overall including the post-season, Marino went the final five games of the 1994 season without throwing an interception (the last three regular season contests and the playoff games on December 31st vs. Kansas City and January 8th at San Diego), covering his last 169 pass attempts . . . On Nov. 6th at Indianapolis, Marino threw an interception to the Colts' Ray Buchanan, who returned it 28 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the first time Marino had an interception returned for a TD since Bobby Houston of the New York Jets returned a Marino interception for a touchdown on December 20, 1992 in Miami . . . Marino was not sacked in seven games in 1994 (Dec. 25th vs. Detroit, Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets, Oct. 30th at New England, Oct. 9th at Buffalo, Oct. 2nd at Cincinnati and Sept. 18th vs. N.Y. Jets), and the Dolphins went 6-1 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked four times on Nov. 20, 1994 at Pittsburgh, the most he was sacked in a game in 1994 and it was tied for the second-highest single-game sack total of his career . . . In his first game of the 1994 season, on September 4th vs. New England, Marino finished second on the Dolphins in rushing with eight yards on two carries, including a ten-yard run . . . On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Marino rushed for a four-yard touchdown, his only rushing touchdown of the 1994 season . . .

COMEBACKS: In 1994, Marino led the Dolphins to four fourth-quarter comebacks: On Nov. 27th in New York, when Marino was 15-18 for 164 yards and two touchdowns and no interceptions to lead the Dolphins back from a 24-14 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 28-24 win (In addition, Marino brought the Dolphins back from an 18-point deficit in the third quarter (24-6), which tied for the second-best comeback in team history, along with an 18-point rebound on January 4, 1986 in an AFC Playoff contest against the Cleveland Browns in which the Dolphins came back from a 21-3 deficit to post a 24-21 win; the Dolphins had a club-record 24-point comeback on December 15, 1974 vs. New England, rebounding from a 24-0 deficit to a 34-27 victory); On Nov. 6th vs. Indianapolis, when Marino went 13-16 for 123 yards, one touchdown, and one interception in the fourth quarter to lead the Dolphins back from a 14-6 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 22-21 win; On Oct. 16th vs. the L.A. Raiders, when Marino went 4-9 for 55 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions in the fourth quarter and overtime to lead the Dolphins back from a 17-10 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 20-17 win in overtime; And on Sept. 4th vs. New England, when Marino went 8-13 for 179 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions to lead the Dolphins back from a 35-32 deficit in the fourth quarter to a 39-35 victory . . . His 179 yards passing in the fourth quarter of that game are the most yards passing for Marino in the fourth quarter in any of his fourth-quarter comeback wins . . .

PRO BOWL: Marino was named as the starting quarterback for the 1994 AFC Pro Bowl team, but he was not able to play in the game due to soreness in his Achilles' tendon . . . He joined four other Dolphins - tackle Richmond Webb, guard Keith Sims, wide receiver Irving Fryar, and inside linebacker Bryan Cox - to be selected to the AFC squad . . . It was Marino's eighth career Pro Bowl selection and his sixth selection as a starter . . .

HONORS: For the 1994 season, Marino was named as second-team all-NFL by the Associated Press, first team all-AFC by United Press International and Football News, the AFC Most Valuable Player by the National Football League Players Association, and AFC Comeback Player of the Year by the NFLPA . . . Marino won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week Award twice overall in 1994, once in the regular season and once in the playoffs . . . His regular season honor was for the week of Sept. 4-5, when he was selected as AFC Offensive Player of the Week as a result of his performance against the New England Patriots . . . In that game Marino was 23-42 for 473 yards, five touchdowns, one interception, and two sacks . . . His honor in the post-season came when he was named the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of December 31-January 1 following his performance in the AFC Wild Card Playoff Game vs. Kansas City on December 31st . . . In that contest, he went 22-29 for 257 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and one sack . . . With his two TD passes vs. the Chiefs, it marked the 11th consecutive post-season game that Marino had thrown a touchdown pass, setting a new NFL record . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1994 in balloting of South Florida media for the 11th year . . . Marino also won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award, the tenth time he won that award (1983-90, 1992, 1994) . . . His ten years winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his two games in the 1994 playoffs, Marino was 46-67 (68.7%) for 519 yards, five touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 116.4 . . . In AFC Divisional Playoff contest on January 8, 1995 at San Diego, Marino was 24-38 for 262 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions . . . His three touchdown passes was tied for the third highest single-game total in Dolphins playoff history . . . In AFC First Round Playoff Game vs. Kansas City on December 31, 1994, went 22-29 for 257 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and one sack . . . His touchdown passes came on a one-yard pass to Ronnie Williams and a seven-yard pass to Irving Fryar . . . With his two TD passes vs. the Chiefs, it marked the 11th consecutive post-season game that Marino threw a touchdown pass, setting a new NFL record . . . Marino had been tied with ten consecutive post-season games with a TD pass along with Joe Montana (1988-93) and Ken Stabler (1973-77) . . . For his efforts in that Chiefs game, Marino was named as the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of December 31-January 1 . . . It was the second time Marino won AFC or NFL Offensive Player of the Week honors in 1994, having also won the award for the week of September 4-5 as a result of his performance against the New England Patriots . . . It also was the second time Marino won a post-season award, as he was named as NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the NFL First Round Playoff Games (January 5-6, 1990) following his performance on January 5, 1990 vs. Kansas City . . .

1993 – Played only five games and finished 91-150 (60.7%) for 1,218 yards, eight touchdowns, three interceptions, and seven sacks for a rating of 95.9 . . . Suffered a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg in the second quarter at Cleveland on October 10th . . . Was operated on to repair that tendon on October 11, 1993 by Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Imperial Point Medical Center . . . Was placed on Injured Reserve on October 13, 1993 and missed the remainder of the season . . . The first game he missed because of his injury, on Oct. 24, 1993 vs. Indianapolis, broke his string of playing 145 straight games (excluding the three replacement contests in 1987), dating back to the start of the 1984 season . . . The last games he missed due to injury before that Colts contest were the final two games of the 1983 campaign . . . Started all four preseason games and was 38-71 (53.5%) for 542 yards, three touchdowns and one interception for a rating of 86.7 . . . In 1993 for the first time in his career, Marino did not finish among the conference and league leaders due to his Achilles' tendon injury that ended his season after five games . . . However, at the time of his injury (following the weekend of Oct. 10th), Marino ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in passer rating, fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in pass attempts, third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in completions, third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in passing yards, and tied for second in the AFC and in the NFL in touchdown passes . . . With his 11-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the fourth quarter on September 12, 1993 vs. the N.Y. Jets, Marino went over the 40,000-yard passing mark for his career . . . He became only the fourth quarterback to pass for 40,000 yards and reached that milestone in 153 games, faster than any quarterback in NFL history:

limited to only five games in 1993, Marino threw for 1,218 yards, the lowest single-season figure of his career . . . Marino did not have a 400-yard or 300-yard passing game in 1993 . . . Marino's first touchdown pass at Indianapolis on September 5, 1993, a 40-yard toss to Keith Jackson, gave him 291 touchdown passes for his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas and moving him into sole possession of second place on the NFL's all-time TD list . . . On October 4, 1993 vs. Washington, Marino threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Tony Martin . . . It was tied for the third longest pass play in Marino's career and it was tied for the fourth longest play in Dolphins history . . . It also was the longest play by the Dolphins since Marino threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Ferrell Edmunds on November 27, 1988 at the N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in all five of his regular season games in 1993 . . . Marino did not throw an interception in two of his five games in 1993, and the Dolphins went 1-1 in those two contests . . . Marino was sacked seven times in his five games in 1993 . . . Marino was sacked four times on September 12, 1993 vs. the N.Y. Jets, the most he was sacked in a game in 1993 . . . It was the ninth time in his career he was sacked four or more times and was one sack shy of his single-game career high of five sacks . . . On September 26, 1993 at Buffalo, Marino scored on a four-yard touchdown run . . . It was the seventh time in the regular season (and eighth overall) that Marino has rushed for a touchdown . . . In 1993, Marino led the Dolphins to one fourth quarter comeback, on Sept. 5th at Indianapolis, from a 20-17 deficit to a 24-20 victory . . . Marino won the AFC Player of the Week Award once in 1993, for the week of September 26, 1993, when he was 20-32 for 282 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and one rushing touchdown in the Dolphins' 22-13 win at Buffalo over the Bills . . .

1992 – In 1992 he started all 16 games and was 330-554 (59.6%) for 4,116 yards, 24 touchdowns, 16 interceptions, and 28 sacks for a rating of 85.1 . . . Marino finished second in the AFC (behind Warren Moon's rating of 89.3) and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.1 . . . He was first in the AFC and the NFL in pass attempts (554), first in the AFC and the NFL in completions (330), first in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards (4,116), and was first in the AFC and second in the NFL in touchdown passes (24) . . . Marino's league-leading 554 pass attempts marked the fourth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass attempts during a season . . . Marino's league-leading 330 pass completions marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass completions . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino completed the 3,000th pass of his career, joining Dan Fouts (3,297) and Fran Tarkenton (3,686) as the only quarterbacks to complete 3,000 passes . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino opened the game by completing his first 11 pass attempts, and coupled with his four consecutive completions at the end of his previous contest, on Nov. 8th at Indianapolis, his 15 straight completions set a new personal high as well as a new Dolphins team record for most consecutive completions . . . The previous Dolphins record was 13 straight completions, set by Earl Morrall on December 1, 1975 against New England:

MIAMI DOLPHINS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS HIGHS

NAME	DATE	OPPONENT	CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS

Marino threw for 4,116 yards in 1992, the fifth season he threw for 4,000 or more yards, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards . . . In addition, in the Houston contest on Nov. 22, 1992, Marino also extended his own NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons to nine seasons (1984-92) . . . Marino's league-leading 4,116 passing yards marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in passing yards during a season . . . Marino had three 300-yard games in 1992, on November 16th vs. Buffalo (321 yards), October 25th vs. Indianapolis (355 yards) and on September 14th at Cleveland (322 yards) and the Dolphins were 1-2 in those contests . . . Marino's two touchdown passes on Dec. 20, 1992 vs. the N.Y. Jets gave him 290 touchdown passes for his career, tying him with Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time TD list . . . He passed for four touchdowns on October 18th against New England, tying him with Johnny Unitas' NFL record of 17 career four-touchdown passing games . . . It was his first four-TD game since he threw four touchdown passes on December 12, 1988 against the Cleveland Browns . . . In addition to his four TD passes against the Patriots, Marino threw for three touchdown passes one other time in 1992, on October 4th at Buffalo . . . On Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Houston, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, extending his NFL record of most seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes to ten seasons (1983-92) . . . Had five games in 1992 (six, including post-season play) without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those contests (4-2 including playoffs) . . . He threw three interceptions in 1992 that were returned for touchdowns: Bobby Houston of the N.Y. Jets on Dec. 20th, Eddie Anderson of the L.A. Raiders on Dec. 14th, and Vince Buck of the Saints on Nov. 29th . . . Anderson returned his Marino interception 102 yards for a touchdown, accounting for the Raiders' only score of the game . . . His 102-yard return was tied for the third longest interception return in NFL history and was the longest INT return against the Dolphins in club history . . . Marino was sacked 28 times in 1992, the highest single-season sack total of his career, surpassing his 27 sacks in 1991 . . . Marino had two games in the regular season (Oct. 4th at Buffalo and Sept. 20th vs. L.A. Rams) and one in the playoffs (Jan. 10th vs. San Diego) in 1992 in which he was not sacked . . . On Nov. 29th at New Orleans, Marino was sacked five times, the most he has been sacked in a single game in his career (his previous high had been four sacks six different games, including the previous two contests) . . . It was the third straight game (including Nov. 22nd vs. Houston and Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo) that Marino was sacked four or more times, and he was sacked a total of 13 times in those three games . . . One of Marino's five sacks on Nov. 29th at New Orleans resulted in a defensive touchdown when he fumbled after being sacked by Pat Swilling and the fumble was returned 28 yards for a touchdown by Robert Goff . . . It was the first time that Marino lost a fumble after a sack that was returned for a touchdown since Nov. 18, 1991 vs. Buffalo when Cornelius Bennett sacked Marino and returned his fumble six yards for a touchdown . . . When he was sacked in the end zone by Marvin Washington for a safety on Nov. 1st at the N.Y. Jets, it marked the first time in Marino's career he was sacked for a safety . . . Marino finished third on the Dolphins in rushing in 1992 with 66 yards on 20 carries, an average of 3.3 yards per rush . . . His 66 yards rushing was greater than his career rushing total (43 yards) that he accumulated heading into the 1992 season, and also had his single-season career rushing best, surpassing his previous single season rushing high, which he set in his rookie year of 1983 when he ran for 45 yards on 28 carries . . . Marino had to leave a game twice in 1992 due to injuries . . . He missed one snap on Dec. 27th at New England due to a twisted knee . . . Marino suffered a mild concussion late in the fourth quarter on September 27th at Seattle, forcing him to miss one snap in Miami's game-winning drive (Scott Mitchell completed a key 18-yard pass on third down in his place) before returning to throw the winning 15-yard touchdown pass to Fred Banks on his third play back, and then also missed the next series when Mitchell ran out the clock to preserve the victory

. . . It was the first time Marino was forced to miss a snap due to an injury since November 26, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh, when he suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in his shoulder), forcing him to leave that game for good with seven minutes left in the fourth quarter . . . In 1992, Marino led the Dolphins to six fourth quarter comebacks, Dec. 27th at New England (from 6-13 to 16-13), on Dec. 20th vs. N.Y. Jets (from 16-17 to 19-17), Nov. 22nd vs. Houston (from 13-16 to 19-16), October 11th vs. Atlanta (from 14-17 to 21-17), on September 27th at Seattle (from 12-17 to 19-17), and on September 14th at Cleveland (from 20-23 to 27-23) . . . In his two games in the 1992 playoffs Marino was 39-74 (52.7%) for 435 yards, four touchdowns, two interceptions, and four sacks for a 77.3 rating . . . In AFC title game vs. Buffalo on January 17th, Marino was 22-45 for 268 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions, and four sacks . . . In first playoff game in 1992, on January 10th vs. San Diego, Marino was 17-29 for 167 yards, three touchdowns, and no interceptions or sacks . . . His three touchdown passes is tied for the third best single-game mark in Dolphins playoff history . . . Marino was named as the starting quarterback on the 1992 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . He joined three other Dolphins who were named as starters on the AFC Pro Bowl squad: offensive lineman Richmond Webb, outside linebacker Bryan Cox, and tight end Keith Jackson (who missed the game due to injury) . . . It was Marino's seventh career Pro Bowl selection and his fifth selection as a starter . . . League-wide in 1992, Marino was named to the All-AFC first team by Football News and United Press International and was named second-team All-Pro by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Newspaper Enterprise Association . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1992 in balloting of South Florida media for the tenth straight year . . . He also won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award, the ninth time he won that award.

1991 – In 1991 he started all 16 games and was 318-549 (57.9%) for 3,970 yards, 25 touchdowns and 13 interceptions for a rating of 85.8 . . . In his first eight games of the year, Marino was 142-260 (54.6%) with 1,811 yards (an average of 226 yards per game), eight touchdowns and six interceptions, with the Dolphins going 3-5 . . . In his last eight games, Marino was 176-289 (60.1%) for 2,159 yards (an average of 270 yards per game), 17 touchdowns and seven interceptions, and the Dolphins were 5-3 in those contests . . . He threw 16 touchdown passes in his last seven games . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Dan Kanell) to repair loose cartilage in his left knee on December 26, 1991 . . . Marino finished third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.8 . . . Was second in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards with 3,970 yards, was second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in touchdown passes with 25, was second in the AFC and the NFL in completions with 318, and was second in the AFC and the NFL in attempts with 549 . . . With 3,970 yards passing in 1991, Marino missed by 30 yards passing to reach the 4,000-yard passing mark . . . On Dec. 1, 1991 vs. Tampa Bay, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, and he became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in eight seasons (1984-91) . . . Before setting that NFL record, he had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1991 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards three times in 1991: on Oct. 6th at New England (321 yards), on Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo (326 yards), and on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay (307 yards) . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 16 regular season games in 1991 . . . The three games in 1991 where Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass came in a 42-7 loss at Kansas City on Oct. 13th, a 16-13 win vs. Green Bay on September 22nd and in a 17-14 loss at Detroit on September 15th . . . The games against Green Bay and Detroit were only the second time (now three times) in his career he failed to throw a touchdown pass in back-to-back games, with the other time coming on December 10, 1989 vs. New England and December 17, 1989 at Indianapolis . . . Those back-to-back touchdown-less games against the Packers and Lions comprised the bulk of a streak of nine consecutive quarters that Marino did not throw a touchdown pass . . . The streak ran from the first quarter of the game on September 15th at Detroit through the first quarter of the game on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, covering two full games and the first quarter of a third, before ending when Marino threw a TD pass to Mark Clayton on the first play of the second quarter on Sept 29th at N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw for three touchdown passes in four games in 1991: On Sept. 1st at Buffalo, Nov. 10th vs. New England, Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, and Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . On Dec. 9, 1991 vs. Cincinnati, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, marking the ninth time in his nine-year career he threw for 20 or more touchdowns passes in a season . . . He became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL . . . Marino threw 13 interceptions in 1991, tied for the fourth lowest total of his career (in a full season) . . . His three interceptions Oct. 20th at Houston was his 1991 single-game high, and it was the first time he threw three or more interceptions since he had three INTs on September 9, 1990 at New England . . . Had seven games in 1991 without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 4-3 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked 27 times for 182 yards in losses in 1991, the second highest total of his career, surpassed only by his 28 sacks in 1992 . . . Overall in 1991, Marino and Scott Secules (one sack), were sacked 28 times, which tied the Dolphins for seventh place in the NFL for the fewest quarterback sacks allowed . . . It ended a streak of nine consecutive seasons that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . . On Dec. 15th at San Diego he was sacked by the Chargers' Leslie O'Neal in the fourth quarter, forcing Marino to fumble and the Chargers recovered on the Dolphins' 13-yard line . . . San Diego went in to score a touchdown to give them a 24-23 lead that they did not relinquish . . . On Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo, he was sacked for a nine-yard loss by Cornelius Bennett, forcing Marino to fumble . . . Bennett recovered the fumble and returned it six yards for a touchdown . . . Had one touchdown rushing in 1991, coming on a 10-yard scramble on Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . It was the longest touchdown run of his career . . . Was named as a reserve quarterback on the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991, his sixth career Pro Bowl selection but he was unable to play in the game due to his recovery from arthroscopic knee surgery . . . His selection broke a three-year streak (1988-90) in which he did not make the Pro Bowl . . . Marino was named as the AFC's Offensive Player of the Week for December 1-2 after going 20-32 for 307 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions in Dolphins' 33-14 victory over Tampa Bay . . . In that game, Marino went over 3,000 passing yards for the eighth time in his career to set an NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons, and he also extended his own NFL record to eight consecutive 3,000 yard seasons (1984-91) . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1991 in balloting of South Florida media for the ninth straight year.

1990 – Was 306-531 (57.6%) for 3,563 yards, 21 touchdowns, 11 interceptions, 15 sacks and a final rating of 82.6 . . . His 21 touchdown passes was the third fewest of his career in a full season (behind only his 20 TD passes as a rookie in 1983 and his 17 touchdown passes in 1996), but his 11 interceptions also was the third fewest of his career in a full season (behind his six INTs as a rookie in 1983 and his nine interceptions in 1996) . . . His 6.71 average yards per gain was the second lowest among the top twenty quarterbacks in the NFL (by rating) and had only five completions of 40 or more yards . . . In his final ten games, Marino was 195-340 (57.4%) for 2,334 yards, 15 touchdowns, and four interceptions, a rating of 88.3 . . . Marino finished fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in passing with a rating of 82.6 . . . His 531 attempts were second in the AFC and third in the NFL, his 306 completions were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 3,563 passing yards were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 21 touchdown passes were fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL, and his 2.1 interception percentage was second lowest in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Marino's 13-yard completion to Jim Jensen in the second quarter on Nov. 25, 1990 at Cleveland gave Marino over 30,000 career yards passing, becoming the 11th quarterback in NFL history to throw for 30,000 yards . . . Marino reached the 30,000 yard mark in 114 career regular season games, reaching that milestone faster than any QB in league history . . . The previous record for fastest to reach 30,000 yards was 131 games by former San Diego Charger QB Dan Fouts . . . Marino joined San Francisco's Joe Montana as the only active quarterbacks with 30,000-plus passing yards, while Steve DeBerg joined that group in 1991, Warren Moon, Phil Simms, and John Elway joined that group in 1992, Dave Krieg joined in 1993, Boomer Esiason joined in 1994, and Jim Everett and Jim Kelly joined in 1995:

Did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1990, but did have two 300-yard efforts, on Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia (365 yards), and in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo (323 yards) . . . Marino had a span of 99 straight pass attempts without throwing an interception, from the first quarter on Oct. 18th vs. New England to the second quarter on Nov. 11th at the N.Y. Jets . . . After throwing an interception in that Jets contest, then went another 91 pass attempts until his next interception, in the first quarter on Dec. 2nd at Washington . . . Overall during that entire span, starting on Oct. 18th and ending on Dec. 2nd (covering five full games and parts of two others), he had 191 pass attempts and threw just one interception . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low 15 times in 1990 for 90 yards in losses . . . Overall, Dolphins quarterbacks were sacked 16 times in 1990, the ninth year in a row that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league (a streak that ended in 1991), including each of Marino's first eight years with the club . . . Marino had one carry for 14 yards to lead the Dolphins in rushing on Nov. 19, 1990 vs. the L.A. Raiders . . . It was the first time in his career that he led the Dolphins in rushing in a single game . . . Marino scored one touchdown rushing, coming on a two-yard run in the Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo on January 12th . . . In the 1990 regular season, Marino led the Dolphins back in the final period at New England (from 20-24 to 27-24), vs. the N.Y. Jets (from 13-16 to 20-16) and vs. the Philadelphia Eagles (10-20 to 23-20 in overtime) . . . In Miami's 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 15, 1991, Marino led the Dolphins back from a 16-3 fourth quarter deficit by completing all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and a pair of scores . . . Marino's rally from the 13-point deficit against the Chiefs was the largest fourth-quarter comeback of his career; prior to the Chiefs game, Marino's largest comeback was 11 points (17-28 to 31-28) against the San Diego Chargers on October 16, 1988 . . . In his two playoff games in 1990, Marino was 42-79 (53.2%) for 544 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions, a rating of 85.6 . . . In the playoffs, Marino had a string of 11 straight pass completions over a two-game stretch . . . Completed his last ten pass attempts against Kansas City Chiefs in AFC First Round Playoff game on Jan. 5th, going 10-10 for 130 yards and two touchdowns (including 8-8 for 101 yards and two TDs in final quarter), and in next game, in AFC Divisional Playoff game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo, hit on his first pass attempt before throwing an incompletion . . . Marino's 11 consecutive pass completions is the fourth-longest streak in team history and the longest in Dolphins postseason history . . . Marino was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for December 9-10 after going 27-54 for 365 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in 23-20 overtime win over the Eagles . . . Also was named NFL Player of the Week for the first round playoff games (January 5-6) after going 19-30 for 221 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in Miami's 17-16 win over the Chiefs . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1990 in balloting of South Florida media for the eighth straight year . . . Marino also was voted the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back by the media for the eighth consecutive year.

1989 – In 1989 was 308-550 for 3,997 yards with 24 touchdowns and 22 interceptions . . . Had a quarterback rating of 76.9, finishing fifth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in passing . . . Reached the 100-games played plateau on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending September 18th after going 17-28 for 226 yards, three touchdowns (including his 200th career TD pass) and three INTs on September 17th in New England to lead Miami to a 24-10 win over the Patriots . . . Marino finished first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Don Majkowski's 4,318 yards and Jim Everett's 4,310 yards) in passing yardage (3,997), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 599) in attempts (550), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 353) in completions (308), third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in touchdown passes (24), and first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (with Vinny Testaverde) in interceptions (22) . . . Marino's 11-yard completion to Mark Duper in the second quarter vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th put him over 25,000 career yards passing, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone . . . With 3,997 yards passing in 1989, Marino missed his fifth 4,000-yard season by three yards . . . Marino went over the 3,000 yards passing mark on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, his sixth straight 3,000-yard season . . . Threw for 400 yards once in 1989, accumulating 427 yards passing against the Jets on Sept. 24th, the most yards passing by an AFC quarterback in 1989 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards five times in 1989: Dec. 24th vs. Kansas City (339 yards), Dec. 10th vs. New England (300 yards), Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets (359 yards), Oct. 22nd vs. Green Bay (333 yards), and on Sept. 24th vs. the Jets (427 yards) . . . Marino's five 300-yard games tied him for second with Washington's Mark Rypien for the most 300-yard games in the NFL in 1989, surpassed only by Green Bay's Don Majkowski, who had six 300-yard games . . . His 10-yard touchdown pass to Jim Jensen with 7:15 elapsed in the second quarter on September 17th at New England was the 200th career TD pass of his career, and he became the 13th player in NFL history to throw 200 TD passes . . . He reached that plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history; Johnny Unitas, the former record-holder, threw for his 200th touchdown in the 121st game of his career, while Marino threw his 200th career TD pass in his 89th career game (covering 3,152 pass attempts):

Threw 22 interceptions in 1989, and his +2 touchdown to interception differential (24 TD passes, 22 interceptions) was the lowest of his career . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low ten times in 1989 for a total of 86 yards in losses . . . When Bills NT Jeff Wright tackled Marino for an 11-yard loss on Oct. 29th, it stopped the Dolphins' NFL record of 19 consecutive games (the last 12 games in 1988 and the first seven in 1989) without allowing a quarterback sack, covering 775 total passes, including 759 attempts by Marino (as well as 11 by Ron Jaworski, three by Scott Secules, and one each by Troy Stradford and Jim Jensen) . . . The last time Marino had been sacked prior to the Bills game was on September 25, 1988 at Indianapolis, when he was sacked by Duane Bickett of the Colts in the third quarter of that game . . . Had two rushing touchdowns in 1989, on Oct. 15th vs. Cincinnati and on Dec. 10th vs. New England . . . They were the fourth and fifth rushing TDs of his career . . . His TD against the Bengals came on a one-yard bootleg with 6:42 elapsed in the third quarter . . . It was his first rushing touchdown since December 7, 1987 vs. the N.Y. Jets in Miami . . . In 1989, Marino (who already held the Dolphins team record for touchdown passes entering the season) broke Bob Griese's club career records in attempts, completions, and yards . . . On Sept. 24th against the Jets, Marino broke Griese's team record of 1,926 completions and on Oct. 8th vs. Browns his 20-yard pass to Fred Banks in overtime broke Griese's team record of 25,092 career passing yards . . . Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino was finishing his seventh year in the league . . . Was 8-16 for 128 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions Nov. 26th vs. Pittsburgh . . . His eight completions and his 16 pass attempts both are the second-lowest single-game figures of his career . . . Suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder) in the second quarter on a hit by Carnell Lake, forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the third quarter . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to leave a game due to an injury since he suffered a left knee sprain in the fourth quarter at Houston on December 4, 1983.

1988 – Was 354-606 for 4,434 yards with 28 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was sacked six times for 31 yards lost . . . Had a passing efficiency rating of 80.8, finishing fifth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL in passing . . . Led the NFL in attempts (606), completions (354), and yards (4,434), and finished tied for second in the NFL (and tied for first in the AFC with Cincinnati's Boomer Esiason) in touchdown passes (28), behind the Rams' Jim Everett (31) . . . Also finished second in the NFL (and first in the AFC) in interceptions (23), behind Tampa Bay's Vinny Testaverde (35) . . . Threw for over 400 yards twice (521 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 404 yards vs. Cleveland on Monday, December 12th), and his 521 yards passing vs. Jets on October 23rd was the high yardage figure by a QB in 1988 and not only was a new Dolphins single-game record, but it also is the fourth highest single game passing yardage total by a QB in NFL history:

TOP FIVE PASSING YARDAGE GAMES IN NFL HISTORY

PLAYER	ATT-COM	YARDS	TDs	RESULT/OPPONENT	DATE
Norm Van Brocklin, Rams	41-27	554	5 TDs	Won vs. N.Y. Yanks	9/28/51
Warren Moon, Houston	45-27	527	3 TDs	Won vs. K.C.	12/16/90
Boomer Esiason, Arizona	59-35	522	3 TDs	Won vs, Wash.	11/10/96
DAN MARINO, MIAMI	60-35	521	3 TDs	Lost vs. N.Y. Jets	10/23/88
Phil Simms, Giants	62-40	513	1 TD	Lost vs. Cin.	10/13/85

In that October 23rd game vs. the Jets, Marino also set a team record with 60 attempts (completing 35) and tied a team record with five interceptions . . . It was his first-ever game of five interceptions; his previous high had been four interceptions, twice (vs. San Francisco on November 28, 1986, and vs. Atlanta on November 30, 1986) . . . Had two games of four or more touchdown passes: November 27th at Jets (five TD passes) and December 12th vs. Cleveland (four TDs) . . . His five-TD game at the Jets was the fifth five-plus TD game of his career and his first since December 14, 1986 . . . Marino's first TD pass on December 12th vs. Cleveland was his 193rd career TD pass, breaking Bob Griese's Dolphins team record of 192 career touchdown passes . . . Had a ratio of one sack every 101 pass attempts (606 attempts/six sacks) . . . Was not sacked in his last 12 games, with his last sack coming on September 25th at Indianapolis . . . Carried ball 20 times for minus-17 yards . . . Made the first opposition fumble recovery of his career on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Had three sub-50 percent completion percentage games (September 4th at Chicago, October 9th at the Raiders, and November 27th at the Jets) . . . Became the 45th quarterback in NFL history to go over 20,000 career yards passing, reaching that milestone September 18th vs. Green Bay . . . With his 4,434 yards passing, Marino went over 4,000 yards in a season for the fourth time

. . . Enjoyed the finest game percentage wise (81.3) of his career on December 4th vs. Indianapolis, hitting on 26 of 32 passes for 304 yards and three TDs with only one interception . . . Threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ferrell Edmunds at the Jets on November 27th, the longest pass play of the season and tied for the fourth longest pass play in Dolphins history . . . On September 25th at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times for only the third time in his career . . . Against Bears at Chicago on September 4th, had a then-career low nine completions, while his 113 yards passing was the third lowest figure of his career.

1987 – Led AFC in attempts (444) and completions (263) . . . Was second in NFL in attempts behind Neil Lomax (463) and third in completions behind Lomax and Montana (266) . . . Finished second in AFC in passing with 89.2 rating behind Bernie Kosar (95.4) . . . Placed fourth in league passer rating . . . Was behind Boomer Esiason (3,321) in AFC passing yards with 3,245 yards . . . Led AFC in touchdowns with 26 (Montana topped league with 31) . . . Did not play in three replacement games, breaking his string of 50 straight starts . . . Had a streak of 30 consecutive games with at least one TD pass stopped at Buffalo on November 29th, marking the end of the second-longest string in NFL history behind Johnny Unitas' 47 straight games with a TD pass.

1986 – Led AFC in passer rating (92.5); second in league to Tommy Kramer (92.6) . . . Only QB in league to throw TD pass in every game in '86 . . . Threw for 4,746 yards, third-highest total in NFL history . . . Threw 44 TDs in '86, second-highest total ever behind his own 48 . . . Set an NFL record of three consecutive seasons throwing for 30 or more touchdown passes (a record Brett Favre broke in 1997) . . . At one point, had 103 straight pass attempts without interception . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week following week 15 (OT win over Rams in Anaheim) when he hit on 29 of 46 for 403 yards and five TDs, including 20-yard toss to Mark Duper in OT for the win . . . Tabbed AFC's Player of the Month for November when in five games he completed 122 of 198 (61.6%) for 1,510 yards (302 per-game average) and 16 TDs . . . Had longest pass completion in league (85 yards for TD to Duper vs. Houston, 11/2/86) . . . Tied team record, set personal high with six TD passes versus Jets (9/21/86) . . . With his second touchdown pass on September 7th at San Diego, he set an NFL record for 100 career TD passes in the fewest amount of games to start a career, reaching that milestone in his 44th contest, breaking the previous mark (53 games) held by Johnny Unitas . . . Went over 15,000 yards passing in career versus Atlanta (11/30/86) . . . For first time in career, threw four INTs in a game; did it twice, vs. 49ers (9/28) and Atlanta (11/30).

1985 – Finished fourth in AFC in passing; fifth in league . . . Led league in yards (4,137), completions (336) and touchdowns (30) . . . Was second in AFC in attempts behind John Elway (605) . . . Threw for over 300 yards six times; Dolphins won all six games . . . Was 45 of 93 for 486 yards, three TDs and three INTs in two playoff games.

1984 – Had sensational season in '84; named in nationwide poll by CBS and The New York Times as most popular pro football player in America despite second-year status . . . Led NFL in attempts (564), completions (362), yards (5,084), average gain per pass attempt (9.0), percentage of TDs per attempt (8.5), TDs (48) and rating (108.9) . . . His yards, TDs and completions were new NFL records . . . His completions record was later broken by Warren Moon in 1991 . . . Marino's 48 touchdowns are more than 22 of Miami's 23 other quarterbacks have thrown in their Dolphins careers . . . Only Bob Griese (192) threw for more touchdowns in his career than Marino recorded in 1984 . . . In addition, Marino's 5,084 yards in 1984 are more than 21 of those quarterbacks threw in their Dolphins careers, surpassed only by Griese (25,092 yards) and David Woodley (5,928) . . . Threw four TDs versus Patriots (10/21), breaking Bob Griese's single-season team record for TD passes in just eight games . . . In game number nine, broke Griese's seasonal team mark for passing yards that was set in '68 . . . Set AFC Championship game records by throwing for 421 yards and four TDs in 45-28 win over Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . In Super Bowl XIX, completed 29 of 50 for 318 yards and one TD.

1983 – Enjoyed unparalleled success for first-year QB in '83 . . . Named Rookie of the Year and was first rookie QB named to start in Pro Bowl . . . Amazingly, accumulated all stats and honors despite playing only the equivalent of 10 games . . . Miniscule interception rate of 2.0 shattered Griese's '71 team record of 3.4 . . . Led AFC in passing with 96.0 rating; first rookie QB since 1970 league merger to lead a conference in passing (fifth in NFL history) . . . Third in league behind Steve Bartkowski (97.6) and Joe Theismann (97.0) . . . Tied for fourth in AFC in TDs with 20 . . . In relief appearance against Raiders (9/18), engineered TD drives on first two possessions as an NFL quarterback . . . Made first start in overtime loss to Buffalo (10/9) and was 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TDs . . . At one point, threw 95 passes without an INT and tossed just three in 242 attempts . . . First play as an NFL QB was a sideline pass completion thrown to Mark Duper for nine yards versus the Raiders (9/18) . . . Marino's first NFL TD came at the end of his first drive in the league: a six-yarder to TE Joe Rose . . . Marino's first NFL INT came a week later (10/2) in New Orleans as Reggie Lewis returned it 27 yards for a TD . . . Suffered left knee sprain in fourth quarter at Houston (12/4) and missed last two regular-season games (Strock quarterbacked Dolphins to wins in both) . . . With knee brace, returned to complete 15 of 25 in playoff loss to Seattle . . . First-round draft choice (27th overall and sixth QB, behind John Elway, Todd Blackledge, Jim Kelly, Tony Eason, and Ken O'Brien) of Miami in 1983.

COLLEGE

Had record-setting career at University of Pittsburgh from 1979-82 . . . In four seasons at Pitt, completed 693 of 1,204 passes (57.5) for 8,597 yards, 79 touchdowns and 69 interceptions . . . Graduated as Panthers' record-holder in passing yards for season (2,876 in 1981) and career (8,597); in passes attempted and completed for season (226 of 380 in 1981) and career (693 of 1,204), and in touchdown passes for season (37 in 1981) and career (79) . . . Graduated as school's all-time total offense leader with 8,290 yards compared to 6,526 of runner-up Tony Dorsett (Dallas/Denver) . . . Along with Dorsett, Hugh Green (Tampa Bay/Miami) and Bill Fralic (Atlanta) is one of only four players to have Pitt jersey retired . . . Finished college career ranked on NCAA all-time lists as fifth in passing yardage, fourth in completions and fourth in TD passes . . . During tenure at hometown school, Panthers posted records of 11-1, 11-1, 11-1 and 9-3, including four bowl appearances (Fiesta, Gator, Sugar and Cotton) . . . In senior season, stats show 221 completions in 378 attempts (58.4) for 2,432 yards, 17 TDs and 23 interceptions, including Pitt's 7-3 Cotton Bowl loss to SMU . . . Earned All-America honors as a junior and finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting . . . Connected on 226 of 380 attempts (59.5) for 2,876 yards, 37 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was MVP at Sugar Bowl that year for second-ranked Panthers, completing 26 passes for 261 yards and three TDs in 24-20 edging of Georgia . . . Led Pitt to Gator Bowl in 1980, completing 116 of 224 throws (51.8) for 1,609 yards, 15 TDs and 14 interceptions . . . Became starter midway through freshman season of '79, hitting on 130 of 222 passes (58.6) for 1,680 yards, 10 scores and nine pick-offs . . . Suffered knee injury versus West Virginia that season, missing three games and later requiring off-season surgery . . . Has B.A. in communications.

PERSONAL

Married to Claire (1/30/85), Marino and his wife have four children, Daniel Charles (9/4/86), Michael Joseph (5/18/88), Joseph Donald (7/26/89) and Alexandra Claire (5/13/92) and reside in Weston . . . PRO CAREER 1997 – Started all 16 regular season games . . . Led team with 76 catches for 943 yards and one touchdown reception . . . Also advanced a Charles Jordan fumble four yards for a touchdown at N.Y. Jets (10/12) . . . Reception total ranked fifth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL, while receiving yardage figure was 11th in the conference . . . Both totals represented single-season career-highs, surpassing his previous bests of 74 catches and 918 yards, both achieved in 1996 . . . Led Dolphins in receiving a total of 11 times and receiving yardage on seven occasions . . . Also returned two punts for four yards on the season . . . Was voted as an offensive captain in a vote of his teammates on November 5 . . . Was selected as the team's 1997 Most Valuable Player in a vote of South Florida media, becoming only the second wide receiver in franchise history to receive the award (Paul Warfield was co-MVP for the 1970 season) . . . Underwent surgery to repair bi-lateral inguinal hernias (double hernia) by Dr. Joseph Diaco at St. Joseph's Hospital in Tampa, Fla., on May 6, 1997 . . .

AMONG DOLPHINS RECEIVING LEADERS: His 76 receptions in 1997 was the second-most ever by a Dolphins player, and McDuffie now owns two of the four-highest marks in club history:

SINGLE-SEASON DOLPHINS RECEPTION LEADERS

PLAYER	POSITION	YEAR	RECEPTIONS
1. Mark Clayton	Wide Receiver	1988	86
2. O.J. McDUFFIE	WIDE RECEIVER	1997	76
3. Terry Kirby	Running Back	1993	75
4. O.J. McDUFFIE	WIDE RECEIVER	1996	74
5. Mark Clayton	Wide Receiver	1984	73
Irving Fryar	Wide Receiver	1994	73

Coupled with his 74 catches in 1996, McDuffie's total of 150 receptions from 1996-97 is tied with Mark Clayton (150 from 1988-89) for the highest reception total by a Dolphins player in consecutive seasons . . . He is also one of three players in club history to register 70 receptions in two different seasons (Clayton 1984-85, 1988, 1991 and Mark Duper 1984, 1991), and one of only two to achieve this mark in consecutive seasons (Clayton, 1984-85) . . . With 268 career receptions, McDuffie now ranks sixth on the team's all-time list . . . With 3,365 receiving yards, McDuffie also stands sixth in club annals . . .

Wide Receiver #18
Born: 6/26/72
College: East Carolina '96
Acquired: D5a, 1996 • Signed Through: 1998
NFL: Third Season • Dolphins: Third Season

PRO CAREER

1997 – Underwent surgery on June 1, 1998, for a debridement of the M-P joint and to remove a spur from his right big toe . . . The surgery was performed at HealthSouth Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables by Dr. Keith Kashuk, a foot specialist . . . Moved to wide receiver in 1998 after playing running back for his first two NFL seasons . . . Played in 14 regular season games, including one start . . . Finished with 146 yards rushing and a touchdown on 17 carries, and caught 34 passes for 262 yards and a score . . . Also returned 15 kickoffs for a 20.9-yard average with a long of 39 . . . Rushing total was third on the team, and reception total was third and first among backs . . . Kickoff return average was second on the squad . . . Was inactive for each of the first two games of the season (vs. Indianapolis 8/31, vs. Tennessee 9/7) . . . Tied for team-lead with four receptions, totaling 24 yards, at Green Bay (9/14) . . . Made only start of the year, at Tampa Bay (9/21), and had one carry for three yards and three receptions for 28 yards . . . Turned in best performance of two-year career vs. Chicago (10/27) . . . Led Dolphins with 77 yards rushing and a touchdown on just two attempts, and added two catches for 19 yards and a score . . . Rushing touchdown came on a 71-yard burst, the longest run of his career and his first rushing touchdown . . . It also was the third-longest run in Dolphins history, surpassed only by a 77-yard run by Leroy Harris on December 5, 1977, versus Baltimore, and a 77-yard run by Keith Byars on November 25, 1993, at Dallas . . . Touchdown reception occurred on a ten-yard grab from Dan Marino, the first TD catch of his career . . . Became the first Dolphins player to score both a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same game since Keith Byars had a one-yard scoring run and a seven-yard TD catch on October 30, 1994 at New England . . . Tied for team-lead in receptions with three for 34 yards at Buffalo (11/2) . . . Also brought back two kickoffs for 76 yards, including a season-long return of 39 yards, in the Bills game . . . Hauled in five passes for 47 yards at New England (11/23) . . . The five receptions represent the third-highest single-game total of his career, while his 47 yards are the fourth-highest figure of his career . . . Saw action in a reserve role in First-Round Playoff game at New England (12/28) . . . Had one carry for four yards, and led team in receptions with five catches for 28 yards.

1996 – Played in nine games with one start as a rookie . . . Finished with six rushes for 28 yards and 20 catches for 282 yards . . . Also returned 15 kickoffs for 22.3-yard average with a long of 40 yards and had seven special teams tackles . . . Led Dolphins in receiving once and in reception yardage once . . . Made Dolphins debut, in a reserve role against New England (9/1), and had two rushes for two yards and added one catch for 21 yards . . . Made his first NFL start, at running back against N.Y. Jets (9/15), and did not have a rush but did have one reception for 52 yards from Dan Marino on the game's first offensive play . . . Had one rush for ten yards, and led Dolphins in both receptions and reception yardage with six catches for 86 yards against Seattle (10/6) . . . Had six catches for 71 yards at Philadelphia (10/20) . . . Had one carry for two yards at New England (11/3) before leaving the game permanently with a fractured left radius (wrist) . . . Missed last seven games of season . . . Placed on Injured Reserve on December 17 . . . Fifth-round draft pick (134th overall) by Miami in 1996.

PRO CAREER

1997 – Played in all 16 regular season games with four starts . . . All four starting assignments came at fullback . . . Finished with 59 yards rushing on 18 attempts, and 28 catches for 301 yards and one touchdown . . . Reception total tied for fifth on the team . . . Placed first on the Dolphins' special teams unit with 31 total tackles . . . Has accumulated 1,939 yards rushing in his career, 11th on the Dolphins' all-time rushing chart, and ten yards shy of Lorenzo Hampton, who stands in the tenth spot . . . Made starting debut at fullback, at Tampa Bay (9/21) . . . Also opened contests vs. N.Y. Jets (10/12), at Baltimore (10/19) and vs. Chicago (10/27) . . . Only score of the season came on a seven-yard reception from Dan Marino, vs. Kansas City (10/5), when he caught four passes for 32 yards . . . Caught a season-high six passes for 91 yards, at N.Y. Jets (10/12) . . . The six catches equaled a career-high that he set on three previous occasions, while his 91 receiving yards also matched a career-best, tying the figure that he first established on November 12, 1995 vs. New England . . . Also was credited with four assists on special teams in the Jets game . . . Along with O.J. Brigance, was named a co-captain on special teams in a vote of his teammates on November 5 . . . Tallied four total tackles on special teams vs. N.Y. Jets (11/9) . . . Amassed a season-high 46 yards rushing on 11 carries, including a long run of 12 yards, at Oakland (11/30) . . . Contributed four tackles on special teams vs. Detroit (12/7) . . . Started at running back in First-Round Playoff game at New England (12/28) and led team with 22 yards rushing on nine carries . . . Also caught three passes for 13 yards.

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: Parmalee has six 100-yard rushing games in his career, three in 1995 and three in 1994: 102 yards on Nov. 26, 1995, at Indianapolis; 103 yards on Nov. 5, 1995 at San Diego; 120 yards on Oct. 22, 1995, at N.Y. Jets, 127 yards on Dec. 12, 1994, vs. Kansas City; 123 yards at New England on October 30, 1994; and 150 yards vs. L.A. Raiders on Oct. 16, 1994 . . . His three 100-yard games in 1995 was the second time he gained 100 or more yards three times in a single season (he also had three 100-yard games in 1994), and it ties him for fourth place on Dolphins' all-time list of most 100-yard games in a single season . . . His six career 100-yard games ties him with Delvin Williams and Karim Abdul-Jabbar for fifth place on the Dolphins' all-time list of most career 100-yard rushing games:

MOST 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES IN DOLPHINS HISTORY

Caught three passes for 41 yards, including a career-best 35-yarder, against Indianapolis (10/8) . . . Started at N.Y. Jets and led club in rushing with 120 yards on 24 carries and added six receptions for 12 yards . . . Led club against Buffalo (10/29) with 83 yards on 20 carries and a touchdown and added season-high 48 receiving yards on three receptions . . . Had team-high 103 rushing yards on 19 carries (including a 40-yarder) at San Diego (11/5) . . . Notched season-high 91 receiving yards on six receptions against New England (11/12) . . . Scored a touchdown and ran for 34 yards on nine carries against San Francisco (11/20) . . . Had third 100-yard game of season (tying single-season career-high achieved in 1994) by rushing for 102 yards on 20 carries at Indianapolis (11/26) . . . Ran for 70 yards on 19 carries and a touchdown and added four catches for 19 yards at Atlanta (12/3) . . . Tallied 83 yards on 24 carries and added two receptions for nine yards vs. Kansas City (12/11) . . . Started AFC First-Round Playoff game at Buffalo (12/30) and ran five times for 13 yards and caught four passes for 51 yards . . . Underwent surgery on right knee to repair torn anterior cruciate ligament by Dr. John Uribe and Dr. Dan Kanell at Doctors Hospital in Coral Gables on January 19, 1996.

1994 – Played in 15 games with ten starts in regular season and started both playoff contests . . . Finished with 216 carries for 868 yards (4.0 yards per rush) with six touchdowns . . . Added 34 receptions for 249 yards and one touchdown . . . Ranked eighth in AFC and 16th in NFL in rushing, 14th in AFC in total yards from scrimmage, and tied for 11th in AFC and tied for 25th in NFL in touchdowns . . . Led team in rushing 11 times during season . . . Gained 736 yards on 182 carries (4.0 yards per carry) in his ten starts for an average of 73.6 yards per game . . . If those ten games were projected over a 16-game schedule, he would have totaled 1,178 rushing yards . . .

BIGGEST RUSHING IMPROVEMENT: Parmalee was the NFL's most improved running back in 1994 . . . After gaining only 14 rushing yards in 1993, his increase to 868 yards in 1994 was an improvement of 854 yards . . . That total was the largest single season rushing improvement in Dolphins history and also was the largest improvement by any NFL running back in 1994 from his 1993 total (not counting rookie running back totals, and Minnesota's Terry Allen, who missed the entire 1993 season on Injured Reserve):

MIAMI DOLPHINS SINGLE SEASON RUSHING IMPROVEMENT

	PLAYER	FIRST SEASON	YARDS	SECOND SEASON	YARDS	IMPROVEMENT
1.	BERNIE PARMALEE	1993	14	1994	868	+ 854

4.	Natrone Means	San Diego	645	1,350	+ 705
5.	Leroy Hoard	Cleveland	227	890	+ 663

BACK-TO-BACK RUSHING YARDAGE: Parmalee posted the most productive two-game streak of any running back in team history . . . Had combined total of 273 rushing yards in consecutive games (150 yards on 30 carries on October 16 against the L.A. Raiders and 123 yards on 25 carries on October 30 at New England) to set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, breaking the former team record of 258 yards rushing in back-to-back games that was set by Mercury Morris in 1973:

MOST RUSHING YARDS IN BACK-TO-BACK GAMES

PLAYER	COMBINED RUSHING YARDS	BACK-TO-BACK GAMES
BERNIE PARMALEE	273	30 carries for 150 yards vs. L.A. Raiders, 10/16/94 25 carries for 123 yards at New England, 10/30/94
Mercury Morris	258	15 carries for 197 yards vs. New England, 9/30/73 18 carries for 61 yards at N.Y. Jets, 10/7/73
Mark Higgs	257	30 carries for 146 yards at Buffalo, 9/1/91 27 carries for 111 yards vs. Indianapolis, 9/8/91

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Rushed for 37 yards on ten carries and first career touchdown, against N.Y. Jets (9/18) . . . Saw extensive action at Minnesota (9/25) in place of injured Terry Kirby and led team in rushing with 22 yards on six carries and a score and added one catch for nine yards . . . Came off bench to lead team with 73 yards on 18 carries and added three catches for minus-two yards at Cincinnati (10/2) . . . Made first NFL start, at Buffalo (10/9), and had team-high 91 rushing yards on 15 carries with long of 27 yards . . . Earned game balls for both offense and special teams against L.A. Raiders (10/16) with 150 rushing yards on 30 carries, while also recovering a fumble off a Tim Brown punt return that eventually led to a Miami touchdown . . . Rushing total was most by a Dolphins player since Sammie Smith gained 159 yards at New England on September 9, 1990 . . . Parmalee's 30 rushing attempts was the third highest single-game total in Dolphins history (behind 31 carries by Mercury Morris at Green Bay on October 5, 1975, and 33 carries by Larry Csonka against Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII on January 13, 1974) . . . Had second consecutive 100-yard game, at New England (10/30), with 123 yards on 25 carries and added four receptions for 21 yards . . . Marked ninth time in team history a runner had consecutive 100 rushing yard games, tying the club record (the last was Mark Higgs in 1991) and his total of 273 yards rushing in those two contests set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous two-game best of 258 rushing yards by Mercury Morris in successive games in 1973 . . . Had team-high 81 yards on 22 carries and added two catches for 11 yards against Indianapolis (11/6) before being forced from game permanently in second half with right knee and shoulder injuries . . . Missed contest against Chicago (11/13) due to knee injury . . . Returned to starting role at Pittsburgh (11/20) and gained 29 yards on 16 carries . . . Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week with 19 carries for 127 yards and one touchdown and adding two catches for 32 yards and a touchdown against Kansas City (12/12) . . . It was his first time winning that honor, and was just the second time a Dolphins running back had captured that award (Troy Stradford was named as the Offensive Player of the Week following the 11th weekend of the 1987 season) . . . Closed regular season against Detroit (12/25) with 18 carries for 39 yards and three touchdowns and added five catches for 47 yards . . . Tied a team record for most rushing touchdowns in a game, which was accomplished 12 previous times, most recently by Sammie Smith against New England on December 10, 1989 . . .

PLAYOFFS: Started both playoff games . . . Led team in rushing with 73 yards on 25 carries and one touchdown, and added four catches for 42 yards . . . Rushed for 57 yards on 18 carries and scored one touchdown, and added two catches for 34 yards in First-Round Playoff game against Kansas City (12/31) . . . Recorded 16 yards on seven carries in Divisional Playoff game at San Diego (1/8/95).

1993 – Played in all 16 games . . . Finished with four carries for 16 yards and one reception for one yard . . . Ranked tied for second on team with ten special teams tackles . . . Recorded only carries of the season, at San Diego (12/27), by gaining 16 yards on four carries, including a long run of 12 yards . . . Also recorded first career NFL reception with one catch for a one-yard gain against Chargers.

1992 – Played in ten regular season games and one playoff contest as a rookie . . . Saw action as reserve running back and kickoff returner . . . Signed by Miami as undrafted free agent on May 1, 1992 . . . Rushed six times for 38 yards with a long of 20 yards . . . Added seven special teams tackles and 14 kickoff returns for 289 yards for a 20.6 average and a long of 32 yards . . . Waived on final roster cut on August 31 . . . Signed for team's practice squad on September 1 . . . Activated by team on October 21 after running back Aaron Craver was placed on Injured Reserve . . . Saw first NFL action, vs. Houston (10/22) . . . Had only rushing attempts of regular season, at Indianapolis (11/8), with six carries for 38 yards . . . Saw action in AFC Divisional Playoff game vs. San Diego (1/10/93) and rushed five times for 18 yards with a long of six yards . . . DOLPHIN FACT

In 1997, in games in which the local TV blackout is lifted because the game was sold out 72 hours in advance of kickoff, the Dolphins were 6-8, including marks of 4-2 at home and 2-6 on the road. Since 1973, when the local TV blackout first could be lifted provided that a game is sold out 72 hours in advance of kickoff, Miami is 98-88 (.527) in games where the game is locally televised. The Dolphins are 55-23 (.705) when a home game has been televised in the Miami area. When a road game has been televised in the city of the opposing team, Miami is 43-65.

PRO CAREER

1997 – Played in six games with five starts . . . Missed ten contests with a knee injury . . . Finished the year with seven yards rushing on three carries, and five receptions for 35 yards . . . Started each of the first two games at fullback . . . Left contest vs. Tennessee (9/7) early in first quarter with a right knee injury . . . Had a season-long 17-yard reception, tied for the fourth-longest of his career, before leaving the game . . . Underwent surgery on September 7 to repair a tear of the medial retinaculum (the band of connective tissue that attaches to the medial structures of the knee joint, including the patella and the patellar tendon) of his right knee . . . The surgery was performed by Dolphins team physicians Dr. John Uribe and Dr. Dan Kanell at HealthSouth Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables . . . Was inactive each of the next ten weeks . . . Returned to action at Oakland (11/30) in a starting role at fullback . . . Opened three of the final four regular season contests . . . Started First-Round Playoff game at New England (12/28) . . . Had one carry for minus-two yards.

1996 – Started all 16 games at fullback as a rookie . . . Finished with 27 yards rushing on seven carries and was third on team in receptions and fourth in receiving yardage with 33 catches for 354 yards and two touchdowns . . . Led the Dolphins in receiving twice and in reception yardage once . . . Caught four passes in a game on three occasions . . . Along with Karim Abdul-Jabbar, it marked the first time in Dolphins history that two rookies started in the backfield on opening day (against New England, 9/1) . . . Along with Daryl Gardener and Zach Thomas, it was the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins started four rookies in the season-opener . . . Proved to be an integral blocker for Abdul-Jabbar, who rushed for 1,116 yards, the second-highest total among NFL rookies in 1996 and the third-best performance ever by Dolphins player . . . Led team in both receptions and receiving yardage with six catches for 77 yards in season-opener against New England (9/1) . . . Had 52-yard catch in that contest, marking the longest reception by a Miami running back since Sammie Smith had a 53-yard catch against Indianapolis on December 30, 1990 . . . Hauled in 74-yard touchdown reception from Dan Marino against N.Y. Jets (9/15), marking the longest reception ever by a Dolphins running back, and the second-longest reception by a Dolphins rookie in club history, surpassed only by tight end Ferrell Edmunds' 80-yard touchdown reception as rookie on November 27, 1988 . . . Season-high rushing total of 16 yards occurred at Buffalo (10/13), when he carried the ball just once . . . Had 16-yard scoring reception against Dallas (10/27) . . . Fourth-round draft choice (118th overall) of Miami in 1996

1997 – Started 14 of the 15 games in which he appeared at rightside linebacker during his rookie season . . . Finished with 91 total tackles (69 solo), five sacks for 32 yards lost, a fumble recovery, three forced fumbles and four passes defensed . . . Tackle total ranked fourth on the team and was second among linebackers . . . Led team in tackles on two occasions and finished second twice . . . Sack total tied with Jason Taylor and Tim Bowens for second on the squad . . . His five sacks tied Taylor for the fourth-most ever by a Dolphins rookie, and they tied for fourth among NFL rookies in 1997, along with Minnesota's Dwayne Rudd:

ROOKIE SACK LEADERS

MOST SACKS BY A DOLPHINS ROOKIE

PLAYER	YEAR	SACKS
1. Bill Stanfill	1969	8.0
2. A.J. Duhe	1977	7.0
3. Marco Coleman	1992	6.0
4. DERRICK RODGERS	1997	5.0

PRO CAREER

1997 – Started all 15 games in which he played at middle linebacker . . . Was inactive for the season-opener vs. Indianapolis (8/31) while still recovering from a fractured left fibula sustained in a preseason game against Denver in Mexico City (8/4) . . . Still led the team in tackles for the second straight year, with 149 total (107 solo), marking the second consecutive season in which he topped the 100-tackle plateau . . . That figure is the eighth-most in franchise history . . . Also came up with a half-sack, an interception and ten passes defensed, which were second-most on the squad and first among linebackers . . . Added one stop on special teams . . . Led the team in tackles on eight occasions, and finished with double-digit tackle totals nine times . . . Made season debut vs. Tennessee (9/7) and was second on the team with ten tackles . . . Led club with 11 stops at Green Bay (9/14) . . . Topped team with 12 tackles at Tampa Bay (9/21), when he picked off a Trent Dilfer pass and returned it ten yards for his only interception of the year . . . Tallied a team-high 11 tackles at N.Y. Jets (10/12) . . . Recorded a team and season-high 16 tackles and two passes defensed vs. Chicago (10/27) . . . Registered a team-high 11 tackles and two passes defensed vs. N.Y. Jets (11/9) . . . Led Dolphins with 14 tackles, including a half-sack, at Oakland (11/30) . . . Partial sack was shared with Tim Bowens and resulted in a Dolphins touchdown as Bowens stripped the ball from Jeff George in the end zone following a ten-yard loss, and Bowens recovered for the score . . . Matched that tackle total the following week with 14 stops vs. Detroit (12/7) . . . Recorded a team-high 13 tackles at Indianapolis (12/14) . . . Started First-Round Playoff game at New England (12/28) at middle linebacker . . . Amassed a team-high 12 total tackles.

1996 – Started all 16 games at middle linebacker as a rookie . . . Finished as team's leading tackler with 180 tackles (131 solo), and added two sacks, three interceptions, two fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and five passes defensed . . . Also recorded two special teams tackles and had one kickoff return for 17 yards . . . His three interceptions tied with eight others for second-most by a Dolphins linebacker in club history, surpassed only by John Bramlett, who had four interceptions in 1967 . . . It marked the most interceptions by a Dolphins linebacker since Earnie Rhone had three in 1981, and also is the most ever by a Dolphins rookie linebacker . . . Made NFL debut in start at middle linebacker against New England (9/1) and led the team with 13 tackles, including one sack . . . Along with Karim Abdul-Jabbar, Daryl Gardener, and Stanley Pritchett, it was only the third time in club history and the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins started four rookies in the season opener . . . Led the Dolphins with 15 tackles at Arizona (9/8) and also forced fumble and recovered it on same play to set up Dolphins touchdown . . . Had 15 stops against N.Y. Jets (9/15) . . . Posted season-high 16 tackles against Seattle (10/6), when he also defensed a pass, forced a fumble and recovered one . . . Topped team with 12 tackles at Buffalo (10/13), while adding a sack and first career interception . . . Matched season-high with 16 tackles at Philadelphia (10/20) . . . Amassed team-high eight stops at New England (11/3) . . . Tied for team lead with nine tackles against Indianapolis (11/10) . . . Led team with ten tackles at Houston (11/17) and came up with an interception, picking off a Chris Chandler pass with 10:42 left in the game and returning it 26 yards for first career NFL touchdown, giving the Dolphins their first lead of the contest at 20-17 en route to their eventual 23-20 victory . . . It was the third interception return for a touchdown by a linebacker in team history (and second ever in the regular season), the other two being by Tom Erlandson, a 26-yard TD return at Denver on December 4, 1966, and by A.J. Duhe, a 35-yard TD return in the AFC Championship game against the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983 . . . Tallied team-best 12 tackles against Pittsburgh (11/25) . . . PRO CAREER

1997 – Started all 16 games at left tackle, the sixth consecutive season and seventh time in his eight NFL seasons that he has accomplished the feat . . . His 110 straight starts are the most-ever in Dolphins history . . . He attained the record in the season finale vs. New England (12/22) when he snapped a tie (109) with Jim Langer (1972-79) . . . His streak dates back to a September 15, 1991 game at Detroit . . . The last time Webb missed a game was on September 8, 1991 against Indianapolis - the second game of the '91 season - due to a knee injury sustained during preseason . . . He also missed the season-opener that year, also with a knee injury . . . Including playoffs, Webb has started each of the last 116 Dolphins games . . . If he plays in all 16 games in 1998, he would surpass Bob Bamhower for third on the Dolphins' all-time chart for consecutive games played:

1996 – Started all 16 games at left tackle . . . Participated in all but two offensive snaps over course of year . . . Voted to seventh consecutive AFC-NFC Pro Bowl . . .

PRO BOWL: Named as reserve offensive tackle for AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Coupled with Pro Bowl selections from 1990-95, Webb is the only player in team history to be selected to Pro Bowl team each of first seven seasons in league, two better than quarterback Dan Marino (1983-87) and linebacker John Offerdahl (1986-90), who were Pro Bowl performers in each of their first five seasons . . . Webb's seven Pro Bowl selections is the most by an offensive tackle in team history, ahead of the two selections of Norm Evans (1972 and 1974) . . . Has played in all seven Pro Bowls, tied with a group of 20 other players for ninth in league history for consecutive Pro Bowls played . . . In fact, Webb, Kansas City's Derrick Thomas and former New York Giant Lawrence Taylor are the only NFL players to have appeared in the Pro Bowl in each of their first seven seasons in the league:

Selected first-team All-AFC by Football News and United Press International . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for fifth straight season (1990-94) and joined Hall of Famers Jim Langer (1973-77) and Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as the only players in team history to win award five or more consecutive seasons . . .

PRO BOWL: Voted as starting offensive tackle for Pro Bowl team . . . Selected to start contest along with fellow offensive lineman Keith Sims in Pro Bowl for the first time that the Dolphins had two offensive linemen start in the Pro Bowl since 1984 when center Stephenson and guard Ed Newman were named as starters . . .

AGAINST SACK LEADERS: As Miami's starting left tackle, Webb was responsible for blocking some of the NFL's best pass rushers . . . Went up against San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (12.5 sacks) in the playoffs and held the AFC's second-leading sacker to two tackles and no sacks . . . Faced Kansas City's Derrick Thomas (11 sacks) on two occasions and held him to seven tackles and a sack . . . Battled Buffalo's Bruce Smith (ten sacks) on two occasions in '94 and limited him to nine tackles and one sack . . . Also faced Pittsburgh's Greg Lloyd (ten sacks) and held him without a sack.

1993 – Started all 16 games at left tackle . . . Selected as starter for 1993 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Earned Pro Bowl recognition for fourth time in career and second time as a starter . . . Was named second-team All-Pro by Associated Press and first-team All-AFC by The Football News and United Press International . . . Selected by the NFL Players Association as AFC Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year . . . Became first Dolphin offensive lineman to win the honor since Dwight Stephenson in 1987 . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for fourth straight season (1990-93) and joined Hall of Famers Jim Langer (1973-77) and Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win the award four or more consecutive seasons . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter at tackle for 1993 AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . It marked second consecutive Pro Bowl start . . . Webb became the only tackle in Dolphins history to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter . . . Joined teammate guard Keith Sims on the Pro Bowl squad as they became the first pair of Dolphins offensive linemen to be selected to the Pro Bowl in the same year since 1985 when center Dwight Stephenson and guard Roy Foster were selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad.

1992 – Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at left tackle . . . Was selected as starter for 1992 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Earned Pro Bowl recognition for third time in career and first time as starter . . . Named first-team All-NFL by the Associated Press and The Sporting News, and second-team All-NFL by College and Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Honored with first-team All-AFC honors by The Football News and United Press International . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for third straight season (1990-92) and joined Hall of Famers Larry Little (1970-72), Jim Langer (1973-77) and Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win award three or more consecutive seasons . . . Was hampered by ankle injury vs. Houston (11/22) . . . Started at left tackle in both playoff games . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter at tackle for 1992 AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . It marked first career Pro Bowl start . . . Webb became the first tackle in Dolphins history to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter.

1991 – Started each of the last 14 games at left tackle in 1991 . . . Was selected for the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991 for second consecutive season . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman . . . Was inactive for first two games of season while recovering from preseason knee injury . . . Had suffered ligament damage to left knee vs. L.A. Raiders in Tokyo (8/4), however no surgery was necessary . . . Missed the final three preseason games and first two regular season contests as a result of knee injury . . . Was one of two inactive players in season-opener at Buffalo (9/1) . . . Dressed but did not play vs. Indianapolis (9/8) . . . Saw first action of season as starting left tackle at Detroit (9/15) . . . Held Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas (13.5 sacks in '91) to just three tackles and no sacks at Kansas City (10/13) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected as reserve tackle for 1991 Pro Bowl squad . . . Webb's two Pro Bowl selections tied him with Norm Evans for the most Pro Bowl selections by an offensive tackle in team history, a club mark he broke with his third Pro Bowl selection in 1992.

1990 – Started all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests at left tackle . . . Actually played in all 1,028 offensive downs for Miami in regular season and playoffs . . . In fact, only missed one offensive series (seven plays) in preseason . . . Selected as a reserve to 1990 AFC Pro Bowl squad, but started game due to injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Muñoz . . . Named NFL Rookie of the Year by United Press International, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly (see complete list of honors below) . . . Key member of the Dolphins' front line that allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks . . . Was accountable for only two sacks . . . Amazingly, Webb was called for only one holding infraction in '90 . . . Made first NFL start in season opener at New England (9/9) . . . Anchored offensive line which allowed Miami to rush for 177 yards which was team's highest single-game rushing output in a non-replacement contest since 178-yard effort on December 5, 1982 against Minnesota . . . Started in opener alongside rookie left guard Keith Sims (second-round pick) and became the first Dolphin rookie draft choices ever to start in the season opener on the offensive line . . . They also became just the third and fourth rookie draft choices to start on opening day on offense in the history of the Dolphins; the only other rookie draft choices to start for Miami on offense on opening day at that point were FB Larry Csonka (1968) and WR Otto Stowe (1971) . . . In addition, rookie NT Alfred Oglesby (third-round pick) also started in season opener at New England which marked the first time in Dolphins history that each of the team's top three draft choices all started on opening day . . . First-round draft choice (ninth overall) of Miami in 1990 . . .

HONORS: Many post-season honors in 1990 included: UPI AFC Rookie of the Year, Sports Illustrated Rookie of the Year, The Sporting News Rookie of the Year, Pro Football Weekly Rookie of the Year . . . Named as Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Lineman and Rookie of the Year in 1990 by South Florida media . . . Also won Tommy Fitzgerald Award as outstanding rookie in training camp . . .

PRO BOWL: Voted by NFL peers as backup offensive tackle for the 1990 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Started in contest due to shoulder injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Muñoz . . . Webb became the first rookie offensive tackle and just the second rookie offensive lineman to be selected to the Pro Bowl (other was Colts guard Chris Hinton in 1983) . . . His rookie selection to the Pro Bowl placed him ahead of All-Pro tackles such as Cincinnati's Anthony Muñoz, who was a first-round pick in 1980 and was first selected to the Pro Bowl following the '81 season; St. Louis' Dan Dierdorf, who was a second-round pick in 1971 and was first selected following the '74 season; Washington's Joe Jacoby, who joined the NFL as a free agent in 1981 and was first selected following the 1983 season; and Chicago's Jim Covert, who was a first-round pick in 1983 and was first selected following the 1985 season . . . Became the first Dolphins rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl since John Offerdahl in1986 . . . One of only three Miami rookies ever selected to the Pro Bowl with the others being Offerdahl and QB Dan Marino (1983) . . . Also was the first Dolphins offensive lineman selected to the Pro Bowl since center Dwight Stephenson, who earned the recognition in 1987 . . . Joined Norm Evans (1972 and '74) and Wayne Moore (1973) as the only Dolphin tackles ever selected to the Pro Bowl . . .

AGAINST SACK LEADERS: As Miami's starting left tackle, Webb was responsible for blocking some of the NFL's best pass rushers . . . Miami allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in '90 and Webb was accountable for only two of them . . . Faced Kansas City's Derrick Thomas (20 sacks) in playoffs and held him to three tackles and no sacks . . . GAME 1

DOLPHINS 16, INDIANAPOLIS 10
August 31, 1997

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

In his first NFL game, Olindo Mare kicked three field goals, and the Dolphins' defense allowed just three points and came up with three turnovers, propelling the Miami Dolphins to a 16-10 opening day victory over the Indianapolis Colts before 70,813 at Pro Player Stadium. For Miami, it was their sixth straight win on opening day (the longest current win streak on opening day in the NFL) and improved the team's overall opening day record to 17-14-1. In addition, the Dolphins raised their record to 24-4 (.857) in home openers from 1970-97, the NFL's best home opener winning percentage over that time span. The game marked the first time the Dolphins had ever played a regular season game in August and with the win, the Dolphins became the second NFL team and first AFC club ever to record a regular season win in the month of August. The first team was the Minnesota Vikings, who notched a 34-13 victory over the Buffalo Bills that same day. Minnesota's win took two hours, 46 minutes to play, while Miami's contest with the Colts last two hours, 58 minutes, the second-fastest of that Sunday's early games. In the contest, the Colts traveled 50 yards to the Dolphins' 25 on the opening series of the game, but it resulted in a Cary Blanchard missed 42-yard field goal attempt. Miami took over and went 61 yards in nine plays, ending in an Olindo Mare 23-yard field goal. Indianapolis put together another impressive drive following that, going 52 yards to the Dolphins' 28, before Blanchard missed another field goal attempt, this from 45 yards out, on the second play of the second quarter. Just two plays later, Colts linebacker Elijah Alexander stepped in front of a Dan Marino pass and raced 43 yards for a touchdown. The Dolphins went back on top with a ten-play, 55-yard drive that ended in a Karim Abdul-Jabbar nine-yard scoring run. Blanchard missed his third field goal of the game as he was short on a 58-yard field goal attempt on the final play of the first half. Mare replaced an injured John Kidd at punter in the second half, and with 6:18 left in the third quarter, Mare had a 53-yard punt that was downed at the Colts' one. Three plays later, Derrick Rodgers forced a Marshall Faulk fumble that was recovered by Shawn Wooden. Four plays afterward, Mare converted on a 34-yard field goal. Following Miami's next series, Mare's 49-yard punt was downed at the Colts' three. Four plays later, Shawn Wooden intercepted a Jim Harbaugh pass, putting the Dolphins at the Colts' 31. That led to Mare's 19-yard field goal, 4:15 into the fourth quarter. The Colts got into Dolphins territory with 8:00 to play in the fourth quarter, but Wooden came up with his second interception of the day. The Colts closed the gap to six points when a Blanchard 35-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining capped an 11-play, 50-yard drive. Ray McElroy recovered the ensuing onside kick, putting the Colts at midfield. They got as far as the Dolphins' 34 before a Derrick Rodgers sack pushed them back to the 45. The game clock ran out following the next play, a 20-yard completion from Paul Justin to Aaron Bailey. With two interceptions, Wooden was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career.

DOLPHINS 16, TENNESSEE 13 (OT)
September 7, 1997

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

Olindo Mare's 29-yard field goal in overtime gave the Miami Dolphins a 16-13 win over the Tennessee Oilers before a crowd of 64,439 at Pro Player Stadium. It was the first overtime win for the Dolphins since a 20-17 triumph over the L.A. Raiders on October 16, 1994, at Pro Player Stadium. The win improved the Dolphins record to 2-0 on the season, the fourth consecutive season and 13th time in team history that the Dolphins opened with two consecutive wins. In the contest, Miami put together a 73-yard drive to open the game, but came out empty-handed following a missed 25-yard field goal attempt by Mare. The Dolphins took the first lead of the game, 5:47 into the second quarter when Mare's 23-yard field goal capped a 14-play, 82-yard drive that used 7:21 of the clock. Quarterback Dan Marino completed four of six passes for 57 yards on the march, including a 13-yard strike to Bernie Parmalee on third-and-eight from the Oilers' 24. Tennessee answered with a ten-play, 79-yard drive that resulted in an Eddie George 13-yard scoring run. The key play was a 27-yard completion from Steve McNair to Ronnie Harmon on third-and-five from their own 49. The Oilers added to their lead with a Del Greco 24-yard field goal with 14 seconds remaining in the first half. Eddie George rushed for 33 yards on just four carries during the course of the drive. The Dolphins closed the gap to four points at 10-6 with 5:27 left in the third quarter when Mare booted a 22-yard field goal. Marino threw for 59 yards on five completions on the drive. On Miami's next series, however, Fred Barnett fumbled and Rayna Stewart recovered at the Dolphins' 25. That led to a Del Greco 37-yard field goal four plays afterward. Irving Spikes returned the ensuing kickoff 34 yards to the Dolphins' 37, setting up a nine-play, 63-yard drive that ended on a two-yard touchdown run by Spikes to tie the score at 13-13. The score came one play after Denard Walker was called for pass interference in the end zone. Tennessee marched down to the Dolphins' 25 (the key play being when McNair connected with Chris Sanders for a 46-yard completion to the Dolphins' 22), but Del Greco missed a 43-yard field goal with five seconds left. Miami won the coin toss in overtime and Spikes took the opening kickoff and raced 48 yards to the Oilers' 45. A 16-yard completion from Marino to Bernie Parmalee put the Dolphins at the Oilers' 29, and a Marino nine-yard completion to Fred Barnett followed by an unnecessary roughness penalty gave Miami the ball at the Tennessee 11. Mare's 29-yard game-winning kick came on the next play. For Marino, it was the 53rd 300-yard passing game of his career during the regular season, and the 33rd time in his career he had engineered a fourth-quarter comeback win.

GREEN BAY 23, DOLPHINS 18
September 14, 1997

Lambeau Field
Green Bay, WI

The defending Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers defeated the Miami Dolphins for the first time ever in the nine games played in this series with a 23-18 win before a crowd of 60,075 at Lambeau Field. The Dolphins dropped to 3-7 in games against defending Super Bowl champions. In all, there were five lead changes in the game. The Dolphins created the first turnover of the game when Dewayne Dotson stripped the ball from Bill Schroeder following a John Kidd punt, and Bracey Walker recovered at the Packers' 36. That started a seven-play, 30-yard drive that culminated with an Olindo Mare 24-yard field goal. An 18-yard completion from Dan Marino to Troy Drayton two plays prior to the score put the Dolphins at the Green Bay six. After the Packers went three and out, Miami took over at the Packers' 47 following a 24-yard punt return by Charles Jordan. The Dolphins converted that into a Mare 31-yard field goal 12 plays afterward to take a 6-0 lead. During the drive, Packers cornerback Roderick Mullen was called for pass interference on fourth-and-ten, putting Miami at the Packers' 24. The Dolphins had originally lined up for a 32-yard field goal attempt on fourth-and-one, but holder John Kidd ran four yards for the first down to the Packers' 11. Green Bay took their first lead of the day at 7-6 when Brett Favre connected with Antonio Freeman for a two-yard touchdown pass on third-and-two, 3:03 into the second quarter. The score capped a ten-play, 72-yard drive. The key plays were a 23-yard completion from Favre to Mark Chmura which put the Packers at the Dolphins' 24, and an eight-yard completion to William Henderson on third-and-two from the Miami 16. Favre completed six of seven passes for 51 yards on the drive. Miami re-gained the lead at 9-7 on Mare's third field goal of the day, from 22 yards out with 1:55 left in the first half. The field goal capped a 13-play, 75-yard drive which used 5:42 of the clock. Marino hit on five of his seven passes for 42 yards on the march, and a 21-yard run by Karim Abdul-Jabbar put the Dolphins at the Green Bay 23. The Packers claimed the edge once again 34 seconds before the half on a Ryan Longwell 26-yard field goal to take a 10-9 lead. Green Bay had started at their own ten with 1:55 to play in the half, and needed just 1:21 to cover 82 yards. A 48-yard completion from Favre to Robert Brooks put the Packers at Dolphins' 26. Mare kicked his fourth field goal of the game (to set a Dolphins rookie record for most field goals in a game) on Miami's opening possession of the second half to take a 12-10 lead. It culminated a seven-play, 61-yard drive, 44 of which came on a completion from Marino to Charles Jordan to the Packers' 18. The lead changed hands once again, with 2:26 to play in the third quarter, when Longwell kicked a 24-yard field goal to end a 16-play, 78-yard drive that took 9:04 and gave the Packers a 13-12 lead. Green Bay took over at the Miami 34 following a failed fake punt attempt, and converted that opportunity into a Longwell 39-yard field goal eight seconds into the fourth quarter to increase their lead to 16-12. The Packers took an 11-point lead at 23-12 with 5:33 remaining when Favre and William Henderson hooked up for a ten-yard touchdown pass, culminating a 12-play, 83-yard drive in which Favre completed seven of eight for 47 yards and Dorsey Levens rushed for 28 yards on four carries. Dunstan Anderson recovered a Favre fumble at the Packers' 35 with 2:56 left in the game, and the Dolphins capitalized when Marino hit Jordan for a 29-yard touchdown pass with 1:47 on the clock. The Packers recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran out the final 1:42.

TAMPA BAY 31, DOLPHINS 21
September 21, 1997

Houlihan's Stadium
Tampa, FL

Tampa Bay quarterback Trent Dilfer completed 18 of 24 passes for 248 yards and four touchdowns, and the Buccaneers scored on five of their eight possessions, as the Dolphins dropped their second straight game, 31-21, to the Bucs before a sold out crowd of 73,314 at Houlihan's Stadium. The Bucs scored first on their initial possession of the game on a three-yard touchdown pass from Trent Dilfer to Mike Alstott, culminating an eight-play, 49-yard drive that began following a Karl Williams 25-yard punt return. The key play was a 21-yard completion from Dilfer to Warrick Dunn on third-and-three from the Dolphins' 42. Tampa Bay was knocking at the door once again, late in the first quarter, but Zach Thomas intercepted a Dilfer pass and returned it ten yards to the Bucs' 28. Tampa Bay put together another impressive drive on their next possession, one which ended in a one-yard scoring pass from Dilfer to Alstott, midway through the second quarter and gave the Bucs a 14-0 lead. The march consumed 7:49 of the clock and saw Dilfer complete all seven of his pass attempts, for 65 yards. The Dolphins scored their first points of the night 22 seconds prior to halftime on a ten-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino to O.J. McDuffie, capping a 14-play, 85-yard drive that used 7:12 of the clock and cut the score to 14-7. Including the touchdown, McDuffie caught three third down passes to keep the drive alive. Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 24 yards on six carries during the drive. The Bucs opened the second half with a Michael Husted 22-yard field goal to cap a nine-play, 70-yard drive, of which 41 yards came on a pass interference penalty, and increased Tampa Bay's lead to 17-7. The Bucs took over at their own 37 on their next series after Jason Maniecki blocked an Olindo Mare 47-yard field goal attempt. Four plays later, Dilfer connected with Reidel Anthony for a 38-yard touchdown pass to move the score to 24-7. The Dolphins responded with a nine-play, 71-yard drive that ended in a Karim Abdul-Jabbar one-yard touchdown run on the second play of the fourth quarter to cut the score to 24-14. Marino hit on five of his six pass attempts, for 63 yards during the drive, and Abdul-Jabbar had a six-yard gain on fourth-and-one from the Bucs' 28. Tampa Bay put the game out of reach at 31-14 on the ensuing series, when on third-and-29 from their own 42, Dilfer found Warrick Dunn for a short pass, and Dunn raced 58 yards for a touchdown, 5:42 into the fourth quarter. The Dolphins closed out the scoring as they put together a 13-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a Marino to Fred Barnett one-yard scoring pass on fourth-and-goal, with 3:25 remaining. Marino connected on eight of ten passes for 76 yards during the drive.

GAME 5

DOLPHINS 17, KANSAS CITY 14
October 5, 1997

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

Olindo Mare's 26-yard field goal with 5:40 remaining gave the Miami Dolphins a 17-14 win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 71,794 at Pro Player Stadium. The victory marked the Dolphins' 300th win in franchise history, and their fifth consecutive victory over the Chiefs. For quarterback Dan Marino, it was the 126th victory of his career as a starting quarterback, moving him into sole spot of second place on the NFL's all-time list, ahead of Fran Tarkenton. The Dolphins held the Chiefs to just 96 rushing yards, the first time in 1997 that they held an opponent to less than 100 yards on the ground. Miami took the first lead of the game on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's ten-yard touchdown run on third-and-one, with 5:35 to play in the first quarter. The Dolphins had gained possession at the Chiefs' 44 following a 15-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on the Chiefs. Completions of 25 and 18 yards from Marino to O.J. McDuffie put the Dolphins in scoring position. The Chiefs knotted the score at 7-7 4:06 into the second quarter when Elvis Grbac connected with Andre Rison for a 16-yard touchdown pass. The score capped a 12-play, 65-yard drive that used 6:09 of the clock. After forcing Miami to a three-and-out, the Chiefs took over at their own 46 and claimed their initial lead six plays later when Grbac and Tony Gonzalez combined for a 21-yard scoring pass and a 14-7 lead. The Dolphins answered to tie the game at 14-14 on the ensuing series with a nine-play, 95-yard drive that ended with a Marino to Bernie Parmalee seven-yard touchdown pass on a bootleg. A 16-yard pass from Marino to McDuffie on third-and-15 three plays earlier kept the drive alive. Miami put together an impressive 46 yard drive to open the second half, but Mare missed on a 41-yard field goal. The score remained tied until Mare booted his game-winner, culminating an 11-play, 60-yard drive. The win was preserved when Dolphins linebacker Anthony Harris stopped Marcus Allen short of a first down following a one-yard reception on fourth-and-three from the Dolphins' 39.

GAME 6

DOLPHINS 31, N.Y. JETS 20
October 12, 1997

Giants Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

Dan Marino had his most productive day since the 1995 season finale as the Dolphins recorded their third straight victory over the Jets and their sixth win in the last seven meetings with a 31-20 win at Giants Stadium before a crowd of 75,601. The Jets took an early 7-0 lead, 4:30 into the game, on a one-yard touchdown run by Leon Johnson. The score came one play after Neil O'Donnell and Wayne Chrebet combined for a 70-yard completion. The Dolphins knotted the score at 7-7 at 3:23 into the second quarter when Dan Marino hit a wide open Karim Abdul-Jabbar down the left sideline for a 36-yard catch-and-run. It was Abdul-Jabbar's first touchdown reception of his career, and the longest catch of his career. It was Abdul-Jabbar who kept the 81-yard drive alive one play earlier with a five-yard gain on fourth-and-one from the Jets' 41. The Jets re-gained the lead with 7:04 to play in the first half when Keyshawn Johnson snared an O'Donnell pass in the end zone on third-and-goal from the seven for a 14-7 lead. The score came three plays after O'Donnell connected with Jeff Graham for a 22-yard completion on third-and-17 from the Dolphins' 28. Miami evened the count at 14-14 on their ensuing series with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Lamar Thomas, capping an eight-play, 75-yard drive. Marino completed a 25-yard pass to O.J. McDuffie to the Jets' 27 two plays prior to the score. The Dolphins took their first lead of the day on the final play of the first half at 17-14 on an Olindo Mare 23-yard field goal. The score ended a 67-yard drive which was engineered by Marino in just 1:47. Marino completed four of seven passes for 56 yards on the march. The Dolphins put together an impressive 64-yard drive to open the second half, but it came to an end when Mare missed wide right on a 30-yard field goal attempt. The Jets had a chance to tie the game 1:25 into the fourth quarter, but John Hall's 30-yard field goal attempt went wide right. Miami extended its lead to ten points with 4:09 left in the game as Marino hit Charles Jordan for a 22-yard completion to the Jets' four, but Jordan fumbled and O.J. McDuffie picked up the loose ball and found the end zone for a 24-14 lead. On the following series, Derrick Rodgers stripped the ball from O'Donnell, and Trace Armstrong recovered at the Jets' 36. That led to an Irving Spikes eight-yard touchdown run with 1:56 remaining, two plays after Bernie Parmalee took a shovel pass from Marino and raced 21 yards to the Jets' 12 on third-and-seven. New York concluded the scoring with an eight-yard touchdown pass from O'Donnell to Chrebet with 1:03 left in the game. The Dolphins registered five sacks, led by rookie linebacker Derrick Rodgers, who accounted for the first multiple sack game of his career. For his performance, Rodgers was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career.

GAME 7

DOLPHINS 24, BALTIMORE 13
October 19, 1997

Memorial Stadium
Baltimore, MD

The Dolphins rushed for 148 yards and three touchdowns in securing their third consecutive victory including their second straight on the road with a 24-13 win over the Baltimore Ravens at Memorial Stadium before a crowd of 64,354. This was the first-ever meeting between the two teams, but the Dolphins 15th game played in Baltimore (the previous 14 games were played against the Baltimore Colts from 1970-83). The last time the Dolphins played a regular season game in Baltimore was on October 23, 1983, with a 21-7 win at the Colts. Miami played a preseason game against the New Orleans Saints in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium and dropped a 17-3 decision on August 27, 1992. The Ravens opened the scoring on a Matt Stover 38-yard field goal, 5:25 into the game. Baltimore started their 32-yard drive at their own 49 after a 16-yard punt return by Jermaine Lewis. Bam Morris then carried the ball five times for 25 yards, setting up the field goal. The Dolphins answered on their ensuing possession with a ten-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a Karim Abdul-Jabbar five-yard touchdown run. Abdul-Jabbar rushed six times for 45 yards on the march, which was highlighted by a ten-yard completion from Dan Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-ten from the Dolphins' 48. Miami got the game's first turnover when Daryl Gardener stripped the ball from Bam Morris, and Trace Armstrong recovered at the Ravens' 34. Three plays afterward, Abdul-Jabbar gave the Dolphins an 11-point advantage at 14-3 with a five-yard touchdown run, two plays after Marino and Drayton hooked up for a 23-yard completion to the Ravens' 11. Miami came up with another turnover when Terrell Buckley forced the ball loose from Derrick Alexander, and Derrick Rodgers recovered at the Dolphins' 40. The Dolphins could only get as far as the Ravens' 40 before the drive halted. Abdul-Jabbar notched his third touchdown of the game with 4:47 left in the first half on a six-yard run, which culminated an 11-play, 60-yard drive. The key play was an 18-yard completion from Marino to McDuffie on third-and-17 from the Dolphins' 33. Baltimore threatened late in the first half, but could not convert on fourth-and-one from the Dolphins' 25. Miami's first possession of the second half started at their own 48 following a 22-yard punt return by Charles Jordan. The Dolphins got to the Ravens' 30 before Abdul-Jabbar fumbled and Michael McCrary recovered at the 31. For the Dolphins, it was their first turnover since week three, at Green Bay on September 14. Prior to the fumble, they had gone 247 straight offensive plays without a turnover. From there, the Ravens traveled 64 yards in 12 plays for a 23-yard field goal by Stover with 6:13 remaining in the third quarter to bring the score to 21-6. Baltimore converted two third downs on the drive, including a 19-yard completion from Vinny Testaverde to Michael Jackson on third-and-nine from the Dolphins' 32. The Dolphins matched that with an Olindo Mare 23-yard field goal, 1:08 into the fourth quarter, ending a drive that went 60 yards on 13 plays and used 7:21 of the clock and increased the lead to 24-6. The Ravens scored their first touchdown of the game with 10:51 left in the contest on a 34-yard pass from Testaverde to Derrick Alexander, capping a nine-play, 82-yard drive. Testaverde connected with Jermaine Lewis for an 18-yard completion on third-and-ten from the Ravens' 48 one play earlier. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 10:51 on the clock. Although a fourth-and-one attempt from the Ravens' 14 failed, the drive covered 66 yards and consumed 8:09 of the clock. Baltimore took over at their own 15 and had a first-and-goal from the two, but could not punch it in on four consecutive plays, including an incompletion on fourth-and-goal from the one with 12 seconds remaining.

The Chicago Bears equaled the fourth-largest comeback win ever by a team against the Miami Dolphins, by scoring the final 15 points of regulation, and an overtime field goal in earning a 36-33 win at Pro Player Stadium before a crowd of 73,156. The game was moved to a Monday night contest to accommodate Game 7 of the World Series between the Marlins and the Indians, which was played on Sunday at Pro Player Stadium. Chicago scored first on their opening possession of the game on a one-yard touchdown run by Raymont Harris. The score occurred six plays after John Thierry stripped the ball from Dan Marino and Bryan Cox recovered at the Dolphins' 20. Miami evened the score with 4:08 left in the first quarter when Jerris McPhail broke loose for a 71-yard scoring run, his first NFL touchdown and the third-longest run from scrimmage in Dolphins history. Jeff Jaeger gave the Bears a three point lead on a 39-yard field goal, 1:00 minute into the second quarter. The Bears' defense again came up big on the ensuing series when John Thierry sacked Marino in the end zone, forcing the ball loose and out of the end zone for a safety. It was the first safety scored against the Dolphins since November 26, 1995, when Tony Bennett dropped Marino in the endzone at Indianapolis. Chicago opened a 15-7 advantage with a 13-play, 57-yard drive that used 7:58 of the clock and ended with a Jaeger 23-yard field goal. The Dolphins cut the margin to two points at 15-13 when Marino hit McPhail for a ten-yard touchdown pass with 50 seconds remaining in the first half. The score culminated a ten-play, 75-yard drive, in which the key play was a 20-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-15 from their own 20. The two-point try failed. The Bears opened a five-point lead at 18-13 on Jaeger's third field goal of the night, from 47 yards out on the opening possession of the second half. The Dolphins took their first lead of the game at 19-18 with 3:05 left in the third quarter when Terrell Buckley scooped up a Ricky Proehl fumble forced by George Teague at the Bears' 22 and ran it in for the score. It was the first career fumble return for touchdown by Buckley. The two point attempt failed after the score. The Dolphins took an eight-point lead at 26-18 at 1:54 into the fourth quarter on a Marino to Troy Drayton 22-yard scoring pass, capping an 83-yard march. Erik Kramer fumbled on the ensuing series, and Trace Armstrong recovered at the Bears' 32. A penalty on Chicago and a 13-yard completion to Charles Jordan preceded a two-yard touchdown run by Karim Abdul-Jabbar, with 7:26 left in the game to give the Dolphins a 33-18 lead. The Bears, however, needed just six plays to drive 80 yards in 1:38, the final eight yards coming on a Kramer to Bobby Engram eight-yard touchdown strike with 5:48 remaining. A 54-yard completion to Curtis Conway two plays earlier set up the score. After stopping the Dolphins on three straight plays on successive possessions, the Bears took over at their own 41 with 2:35 on the clock after an 18-yard punt return by Tyrone Hughes. Kramer connected with Engram for a 23-yard completion on third-and-four from the Bears' 47, setting up a 25-yard scoring pass from Kramer to Chris Penn three plays afterward, on third-and-five with 1:25 left. Kramer and Engram combined for the two-point conversion to tie the score. In overtime, after both teams failed to score on their initial possessions, Barry Minter stripped the ball from Marino, and Carl Reeves recovered at the Dolphins' 17, setting up Jaeger's fourth field goal, from 35 yards out with 5:35 remaining in overtime.

BUFFALO 9, DOLPHINS 6
November 2, 1997

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins dropped a 9-6 decision to the Buffalo Bills before a crowd of 78,011 at Rich Stadium in a game that was played in a light rain through most of the first half. It marked the first time since a 10-6 loss at Indianapolis on September 23, 1996, that the Dolphins were held without a touchdown in game and the first time since November 20, 1988, when Miami dropped a 6-3 decision to New England, that the Dolphins have been involved in a game in which neither team scored a touchdown. The Bills took a 3-0 lead on a Steve Christie 41-yard field goal with 4:40 left in the first quarter. Buffalo's scoring drive, which used 5:08 of the clock, started at their own 48 after they stopped the Dolphins deep in their own territory. Quarterback Alex Van Pelt scrambled for a nine-yard gain on third-and-10 from the Dolphins' 41, and ran for a two-yard gain on the fourth down play that followed. The Bills added to the lead on Christie's second field goal of the game, from 40 yards out, 3:18 into the second quarter. Running back Antowain Smith churned out 22 yards on the 49-yard drive, which consumed 6:11. Miami missed a chance to cut into the lead when Olindo Mare missed wide left on a 32-yard field goal attempt, four plays after Shawn Wooden recovered Smith's fumble at the Bills' 23. Christie missed wide left on a 41-yard field goal try on the ensuing series. The Dolphins got their first points of the day on an Olindo Mare 27-yard field goal, just 23 seconds before the half. The score culminated a ten-play, 66-yard drive. Quarterback Dan Marino completed his first four passes of the game on the drive, for 67 yards, before leaving the game with a sprained ankle prior to the drive's final play. Marino returned to start the second half, but left again following the Dolphins' initial series of the second half, and was replaced by Craig Erickson. Miami tied the game on a 35-yard field goal by Mare, 39 seconds into the fourth quarter. The Bills responded, however, with an eight-play, 53-yard drive that ended in a Christie 39-yard field goal, 4:18 into the final frame. The key play was a 29-yard run by Eric Moulds off a reverse. Miami went three-and-out on each of their next two possessions before threatening on their final series of the game. They got to the Bills' 48 before Erickson was intercepted by Jeff Burris with 1:01 to play.

GAME 10

DOLPHINS 24, N.Y. JETS 17
November 9, 1997

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their fourth straight regular season win over the Jets, their longest winning streak of the series since 1982-84, with a 24-17 win at Pro Player Stadium before a crowd of 73,809. The Dolphins opened the game with an 11-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a Karim Abdul-Jabbar four-yard touchdown run. The Dolphins rushed for 57 yards on the drive, 47 by Abdul-Jabbar. A 17-yard completion from Dan Marino to Lamar Thomas on third-and-four from the Jets' 21 one play prior to the score kept the drive alive. New York missed an opportunity for their first points of the game when John Hall missed wide left on a 39-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left in the first quarter. Hall responded, however, with a 29-yard field goal with 5:55 to play in the second quarter to bring the score to 7-3. After forcing a three-and-out, the Jets got the ball back at their own 26 with 4:09 remaining in the first half. They marched the length of the field in just nine plays and 2:33, with the final play coming on a Glenn Foley to Kyle Brady 18-yard touchdown pass to take a 10-7 lead. The key play was a 20-yard completion from Foley to Dedrick Ward on third-and-ten from the Jets' 39. Miami got the ball back at their own 23 with 1:36 on the clock and all three timeouts. Dan Marino engineered a 77-yard touchdown drive that took just 1:31 and ended with a 23-yard scoring pass to Brett Perriman and a 14-10 lead. Marino completed six of his eight pass attempts, for 77 yards on the drive. Miami extended its lead on their initial possession of the second half with an Abdul-Jabbar five-yard touchdown run, on third-and-goal to increase the lead to 21-10. The run capped a 12-play, 66-yard drive in which the Dolphins got to the Jets' ten on a 21-yard pass interference penalty. The Jets threatened to close the gap late in the third quarter when they had the ball first-and-ten from the Dolphins' 21, but sacks by Derrick Rodgers and Jason Taylor on consecutive plays changed that. Taylor's sack forced the ball loose from Foley, and Taylor recovered at the Dolphins' 41. That led to an Olindo Mare 21-yard field goal, 6:10 into the fourth quarter, and a 24-10 lead. Three plays later, however, Adrian Murrell busted loose for a 43-yard scoring run, closing the margin to 24-17 with 7:37 to play. After stopping the Dolphins deep in their own territory on three straight plays, the Jets got the ball back at the Dolphins' 47. They had a fourth-and-5 at the Dolphins' 30 before a pass intended for Wayne Chrebet was ruled incomplete. New York stopped Miami once again on three consecutive plays on the ensuing series, and started their final drive of the game at their own 17 with 2:41 remaining. Foley led the Jets to the Dolphins' 35 before he had a pass intercepted by George Teague on third-and-ten with 1:00 left in the game.

GAME 11

DOLPHINS 30, BUFFALO 13
November 17, 1997

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins scored two touchdowns within the final 5:11 to break open a 16-13 game, and record their 33rd victory on Monday Night Football, tying the Oakland Raiders for the most in the history of MNF, with a 30-13 win over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium in front of a crowd of 74,155. For the second consecutive week, the Dolphins scored on their opening possession of the game, when Olindo Mare capped a nine-play, 56-yard drive with a 37-yard field goal. Buffalo traveled 44 yards to the Dolphins' 36 on the ensuing series, but was stopped on fourth-and-3 when a Todd Collins pass fell incomplete. Miami notched the first touchdown of the game when an 11-play, 90-yard drive culminated with a three-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino to Ed Perry on third-and-one. That was the tenth touchdown pass of the season by Marino and the Dolphins, to ten different receivers. In the process, they became the first NFL team to have ten different receivers account for the first ten touchdown passes of a season. Marino completed all five of his passes, for 76 yards, on the march including a pair of completions totaling 49 yards to Lamar Thomas. Three plays later, George Teague intercepted a Collins pass and returned it to the Buffalo 30, setting up a Mare 30-yard field goal six plays afterward. Miami held a 13-0 halftime lead, marking the first time this year that the Dolphins shut out an opponent in the first half. On the opening series of the second half, the Bills marched 52 yards on nine plays, ending with a Darick Holmes one-yard touchdown run. Two plays earlier, Thurman Thomas broke loose for a 16-yard run on third-and-seven from the Dolphins' 17. On the first play of Buffalo's next series, Zach Thomas stripped the ball from Antowain Smith, and Daryl Gardener recovered at the Bills' 24, leading to a Mare 35-yard field goal four plays later. Buffalo cut the margin back to six points when Steve Christie booted a 36-yard field goal with 1:58 remaining in the third quarter, capping a ten-play, 58-yard drive. A pass interference penalty put the Bills in Dolphins territory, and a 30-yard completion from Collins to Thurman Thomas gave the Bills possession at the Dolphins' 19. Irving Spikes fumbled the ensuing kickoff, and Steve Tasker recovered at the Dolphins' 16. Miami's defense again came up big, stopping the Bills on three straight plays after they had a first-and-goal from the 6. Anthony Harris sacked Collins on third-and-goal from the three, forcing a Christie 24-yard field goal, 1:04 into the fourth quarter. The Dolphins extended their lead to ten points when Marino hit a wide open Troy Drayton for a 30-yard touchdown pass with 5:11 left in the game. Two plays earlier, Marino connected with Brett Perriman for a 26-yard completion on third-and-four from the Dolphins' 45. The Dolphins stopped the Bills on the ensuing series, including a Collins incompletion on fourth-and-six from their own 24. Miami took over and needed just four plays before Abdul-Jabbar scored on a one-yard touchdown run with 3:45 remaining. Abdul-Jabbar carried the ball four times for all 24 yards on the march.

GAME 12

NEW ENGLAND 27, DOLPHINS 24
November 23, 1997

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

A second-half rally which saw the Dolphins put together 21 unanswered points fell just short, as the Patriots came away with a 27-24 win at Foxboro Stadium before a crowd of 59,002. The Patriots took the initial victory in a season series with the Dolphins for the first time in nine years. In the contest, Dan Marino finished by completing 38 of 60 passes for 389 yards with no touchdowns and three interceptions. His completion total is the second-highest of his career (behind 39 completions on November 16, 1986, at Buffalo) and his 60 attempts are tied for his most in the regular season (with 60 attempts against the N.Y. Jets on October 23, 1988) and behind his 64 attempts in an AFC Playoff game at Buffalo on December 30, 1995. In addition, Marino had two of his three interceptions returned for touchdowns. It was the second time in Marino's career (also at Pittsburgh on December 18, 1988) that two interceptions had been returned for scores in a game. New England broke out to a 3-0 lead on a 36-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri with 1:42 left in the first quarter. The Dolphins tied the score at 3-3 at 4:12 into the second quarter on an Olindo Mare 25-yard field goal which capped a 13-play, 67-yard drive. Charles Jordan caught two passes for 36 yards, including a 16-yard reception on third-and-nine, and Karim Abdul-Jabbar accounted for 30 yards on the march, 24 of them on the ground. The Patriots re-gained the lead at 10-3 at 2:37 prior to the half when running back David Meggett connected with Troy Brown for a 35-yard touchdown pass. The score came one play after Drew Bledsoe gained three yards on a fourth-and-one from the Dolphins' 38. Four plays later, Larry Whigham picked off a Dan Marino pass, on third-and-five from the Patriots' 45, and returned it 60 yards for a touchdown. The Dolphins took over and appeared as though they would cut into the lead when they drove 69 yards, setting up a first-and-goal from the seven, but Jimmy Hitchcock picked off a Marino pass at the goal line and raced the length of the field for a 100-yard return, giving the Patriots a 21-point advantage at 24-3. New England added to its lead on the first possession of the second half with a Vinatieri 27-yard field goal, capping a 12-play, 57-yard drive that used five minutes of the clock for a 27-3 lead. The Dolphins scored their first touchdown of the game on their initial possession of the second half when Abdul-Jabbar established a career-high with his 12th touchdown of the year. One play earlier, Marino completed a 23-yard pass to Lamar Thomas. Abdul-Jabbar scored his second touchdown in as many drives when he again punched it in from one yard out, 3:04 into the final frame, narrowing the deficit to ten points at 27-17. The 80-yard scoring drive was highlighted by a 5-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on fourth-and-4 from the Dolphins' 39. Olindo Mare's onside kick that followed was recovered by Miami's O.J. Brigance at the Dolphins' 39. The Dolphins then drove the ball all the way to the New England one where they had a first-and-goal. Two straight losses on rush attempts put Miami in a third-and-six when Whigham intercepted a Marino pass in the end zone for a touchback. The Patriots then drove to the Dolphins' 29 before being stopped on fourth-and-one. The Dolphins took over and traveled 71 yards in 16 plays, capped by Abdul-Jabbar's third touchdown of the day, a one-yard run on fourth-and-one with ten seconds on the clock. The touchdown was the 13th rushing score of the year for Abdul-Jabbar setting a new Dolphins single-season record. The Dolphins recovered the ensuing onside kick, but were called for an illegal touch. Miami's Jerry Wilson recovered the re-kick, and the Dolphins had the ball at their own 42 with eight seconds remaining, but two Marino passes fell incomplete and the contest ended.

DOLPHINS 34, OAKLAND 16
November 30, 1997

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

The Miami Dolphins recorded their first-ever victory in Oakland after eight straight defeats with a 34-16 over the Raiders at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum before a crowd of 50,569. Along with New England's win over Indianapolis and the Jets' loss at Buffalo, the Dolphins put themselves in a three-way tie for first place in the AFC East at 8-5, along with the Patriots and Jets. Oakland took a 7-0 lead six minutes into the game on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Jeff George to Tim Brown on third-and-five. The key play on the 75-yard scoring drive was a 29-yard run by Napoleon Kaufman to the Dolphins' 29. Miami got its first points of the game on the ensuing series when Olindo Mare connected on a 28-yard field goal to cut the score to 7-3. The score capped a 59-yard drive in which Dan Marino hit Bernie Parmalee for a 12-yard completion on fourth-and-five from the Raiders' 33. Karim Abdul-Jabbar also rushed for 33 yards on six carries during the drive, including a 17-yard run to put the Dolphins in Raiders territory. Miami went ahead 10-7 on their next offensive possession when Marino hit Charles Jordan for an eight-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal midway through the second quarter. The score culminated a 14-play, 73-yard drive in which Marino completed five of his nine passes for 65 yards. The Dolphins scored on their third consecutive series to increase their lead to 17-7 when Marino connected with Jordan over the middle on third-and-six, and Jordan broke free for a 44-yard touchdown, with 1:59 remaining in the first half. It marked Jordan's first career game with two touchdowns. Cole Ford missed wide left on a 47-yard field goal with 13 seconds to play in the opening half. One play earlier, Jerry Wilson sacked Jeff George on third-and-ten from the Dolphins' 22. Oakland cut its deficit to seven points midway through the third quarter when Ford converted on a 44-yard field goal. The score came five plays after Lorenzo Lynch intercepted a Marino pass on third-and-seven from the Raiders' 49 and returned it six yards to the Dolphins' 48. Four plays prior to the score, George connected with Brown for a 22-yard completion to the Dolphins' 26. The Dolphins took a 24-10 lead on the following series when Karim Abdul-Jabbar scored on a two-yard run, his 15th touchdown of the season, the second-highest single-season figure in Dolphins history. Two key plays by the Dolphins came on a pair of completions from Dan Marino to Jordan. The first was a 23-yard strike on third-and-ten from the Dolphins' 21. The second was a 17-yard completion on third-and-ten from the Raiders' 29. The pass deflected off Jerris McPhail into Jordan's hands. In addition, the Raiders were called for two pass interference penalties on the drive, totaling 30 yards. The Dolphins took a commanding 21-point lead three plays afterward when Zach Thomas stripped the ball from George in the end zone, and Tim Bowens recovered the fumble for his first career touchdown. The Raiders scored their final points of the game and cut the score to 31-16 when George connected with James Jett for consecutive completions of 50 and 27 yards. The latter went for a touchdown, 3:04 into the fourth quarter. The extra point was no good. On the following play from scrimmage, Eric Turner recovered a Karim Abdul-Jabbar fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Three straight incompletions preceded a Trace Armstrong sack on fourth down. From there, Miami moved the ball from their own 42 to the Raiders' 23, setting up an Olindo Mare 42-yard field goal. The Dolphins registered a season-high six sacks. Marino surpassed the 3,000-yard passing mark for the season, the 12th time in his career he has accomplished that feat, an NFL record.

GAME 14

DOLPHINS 33, DETROIT 30
December 7, 1997

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins improved to 9-5 on the season and clinched the 21st season with a winning record in club's 32-year history with a 33-30 victory over the Detroit Lions on a Sunday night contest at Pro Player Stadium before a crowd of 72,266. In the contest, Detroit overcame a 13-point second-half deficit and tied the game with 1:14 to play, but in vintage style, Dan Marino drove the Dolphins 54 yards on seven plays in 1:14, ending in an Olindo Mare 42-yard field goal as time expired. It was Mare's fourth field goal of the game, tying a season-high and the Dolphins all-time single-game rookie record. Miami scored on its opening possession of the game on a Marino to Troy Drayton 27-yard touchdown pass. Two plays earlier, Marino connected with Brett Perriman for a 23-yard completion on third-and-nine. The Lions came back on the ensuing series with an eight-play, 71-yard drive that culminated with a Jason Hanson 26-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored their second touchdown in as many possessions when Karim Abdul-Jabbar capped a 13-play, 76-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run on fourth-and-goal. The Lions got to the Dolphins' two-yard line early in the second quarter, but Shane Burton recovered a Scott Mitchell fumble on first-and-goal. Trace Armstrong forced a Mitchell fumble on Detroit's next offensive play, and Jason Taylor recovered at the Lions' 18. That led to a Mare 19-yard field goal six plays later and a 17-3 Dolphins lead. It was his 23rd field goal of the season, establishing a new Dolphins record for a rookie or first-year player. Detroit answered with their initial touchdown of the game on a Barry Sanders seven-yard scoring run with 56 seconds left in the half. The touchdown ended an 88-yard drive, in which Sanders rushed for 32 yards on six carries and Mitchell completed three of four passes for 56 yards. The Dolphins took over at their own 28 with 49 seconds remaining in the half and got to the Lions' 15, setting up a Mare 33-yard field goal as time expired in the half for a 20-10 lead. One play earlier, Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for a 26-yard completion. O.J. Brigance recovered a punt that hit off Detroit's Mark Carrier early in the third quarter, setting up a Mare 21-yard field goal seven plays afterward. The Lions then put together an eight-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a Mitchell to Johnnie Morton 35-yard touchdown strike and cut the score to 23-16 after the 2-point attempt failed. On the second play of the fourth quarter, Bryant Westbrook picked off a Marino pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown. The PAT was off the mark, and Detroit trailed 23-22. Terrell Buckley intercepted a Mitchell pass on Detroit's next offensive series and returned it six yards to the Lions' 37, setting up a Marino to Drayton 23-yard touchdown pass four plays later. Buckley also intercepted another pass on the Lions' following series, but the Dolphins were unable to score off the turnover. Detroit took over at their own four with 5:32 remaining and Mitchell proceeded to complete six of seven passes for 79 yards, the final 16 of which came on a touchdown strike to Herman Moore. Mitchell and Moore combined for the two-point conversion to tie the game at 30 prior to the game-winning drive, in which Marino completed all four of his passes, for 46 yards leading to the game-winning field goal.

GAME 15

INDIANAPOLIS 41, DOLPHINS 0
December 14, 1997

RCA Dome
Indianapolis, IN

The Indianapolis Colts scored on each of their first six possessions and put the game out of reach early leading to a 41-0 win at the RCA Dome before a crowd of 61,282. In the process, the Colts denied the Dolphins a chance to clinch a playoff spot. In addition, the 41-point margin of defeat was tied for the second worst in Dolphins history with a 41-0 loss at Kansas City on October 8, 1967, and behind a 45-point loss (48-3) against Kansas City on September 28, 1968, in the Orange Bowl. It also was the first time the Dolphins had been shut out since November 29, 1987, snapping a string of 162 straight games in which they had scored. The Colts took to a 3-0 lead on a Cary Blanchard 21-yard field goal with 6:52 left in the first quarter. The score came nine plays after a failed fake punt attempt gave the Colts possession at the Dolphins' 42. The Colts had a third-and-goal from the one, but Zach Thomas stopped Zack Crockett for a two-yard loss to force the field goal. Indianapolis extended its lead 35 seconds into the second quarter on a ten-yard touchdown pass from Jim Harbaugh to Marshall Faulk. The ten-play, 87-yard drive saw Harbaugh complete all seven of his passes, for 93 yards, including a 43-yard strike to Ken Dilger, putting the Colts at the Miami 35. The Dolphins had an opportunity to cut into the lead, but Olindo Mare's 50-yard field goal attempt 4:02 into the second quarter went wide left. The Colts scored their second touchdown in as many possessions on the next offensive series when Harbaugh hit Dilger for a seven-yard touchdown strike, two plays after Harbaugh found Marvin Harrison for a 41-yard completion to the Dolphins' seven. Two plays afterward, Dan Footman recovered a Dan Marino fumble at the Dolphins' 21, setting up a Blanchard 50-yard field goal four plays later. The Colts made it five straight possessions with a score less than four minutes later when Harbaugh and Dilger combined for a 31-yard touchdown pass. Marino fumbled two plays after the score and Ellis Johnson recovered at the Dolphins' 14, leading to another Harbaugh to Dilger connection, from eight yards out with 53 seconds remaining in the first half. The 31 points scored by the Colts in the second quarter were the most-ever by a Dolphins opponent in a quarter. Jason Taylor stripped the ball from Harbaugh on the first series of the second half and Shawn Wooden recovered at the Colts' 37. The Dolphins had a third-and-goal from the one before being stopped on consecutive plays by the Colts' defense. The Colts wrapped up the scoring with a Faulk seven-yard run to cap a 13-play, 68-yard drive that used 8:17 of the clock.

GAME 16

NEW ENGLAND 14, DOLPHINS 12
December 22, 1997

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The winner of this Monday Night game would stake its claim as the 1997 AFC East champions and the Patriots held on to their title by scoring touchdowns in each of the final two quarters after being shut out in the first half and coming away with a 14-12 win at Pro Player Stadium. Miami traveled 49 yards on their initial series of the game, one which culminated with an Olindo Mare 50-yard field goal, the first 50-yard field goal by a Dolphin since Pete Stoyanovich's 50-yarder at Buffalo on December 17,1995. The Dolphins took a 6-0 lead with 1:29 left in the first half on Mare's 41-yard field goal. Two plays later Jerry Wilson recovered a Shawn Jefferson fumble at the Patriots' 36, but Miami was turned back when Mare missed wide right on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Patriots scored their first points on their first series of the second half, when a nine-play, 70-yard drive was capped by a Mario Grier two-yard scoring run. Of the 70 total yards on the march, 65 came via the arm of Drew Bledsoe, who completed five of his seven attempts on the drive, including a 20-yard connection to David Meggett one play prior to the score. New England extended its lead to eight points on a David Meggett five-yard touchdown run, 2:53 into the final frame. The score capped a 55-yard drive, 18 of which came on a pass interference penalty two plays before the score. Miami answered with a 14-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 8:21 of the clock and ended with a Dan Marino eight-yard scoring pass to Lamar Thomas on third-and-four. Karim Abdul-Jabbar ran it in on the two-point try, but the Dolphins were called for holding. The pass for the two-point conversion fell incomplete on the play that followed, and the Dolphins trailed 14-12 with 3:46 remaining. The Dolphins forced the Patriots into a three-and-out and got the ball back at the New England 47 with 1:58 to play, but a fumble on third-and-five forced Miami into a fourth-and-15 situation, and Marino's pass was intercepted by Lawyer Milloy.

DOLPHIN FACT

In the 32-year history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had 17 dual 100-yard receiving games, 18 including playoffs. The most frequent duo has been Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, who combined for four dual 100-yard receiving games. Overall, Clayton was part of eight such games while Duper was in seven. The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two receivers surpass the 100-yard mark occurred on November 27, 1994 at the N.Y. Jets when Mark Ingram totaled 117 yards and four touchdowns on nine catches and Irving Fryar tallied 103 yards on five receptions.

PRESEASON GAME 1

GREEN BAY 20, DOLPHINS 0 — Lambeau Field
July 26, 1997 — Green Bay, WI

The Green Bay Packers racked up 404 yards of total offense, including 160 on the ground, as they shut out the Dolphins, 20-0, before a crowd of 59,089 at Lambeau Field. The Packers handed the Dolphins their fifth shutout loss in preseason, and their first since a 37-0 preseason loss at Atlanta on August 11, 1995. In addition, the 20-point margin of defeat was the Dolphins' largest in the preseason since the 37-0 loss at Atlanta. The Packers struck first six minutes into the game on a 20-yard field goal by Brett Conway. Completions of 38 and 31 yards from Brett Favre to Antonio Freeman put Green Bay into scoring position, and highlighted the nine-play, 70-yard drive. Green Bay added to the lead with five minutes to play in the opening half when Chris Darkins ran it in from one yard out for a 10-0 lead. A 49-yard run to the Dolphins' 14 by Travis Jervey six plays earlier set up the score. The Packers took over at their 42 with just more than a minute left in the first half, and needed only seven plays and 51 seconds before Steve Bono found Bill Schroeder open in the end zone from 20 yards out on third-and-10 for a 17-0 advantage at the half. The Dolphins threatened in the third quarter when they got to the Green Bay ten in a drive that covered 78 yards on 13 plays, but Packers safety Brad Edwards recovered a Spence Fischer fumble at the seven to end the march. The Packers converted that turnover into a 14-play drive that ended in a 24-yard field goal by Conway for the game's final score. Packers quarterback Doug Pederson, who played for the Dolphins in 1993, completed six of six passes for 57 yards leading to the score.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DOLPHINS 38, BRONCOS 19 — Estadio Guillermo Canedo
August 4, 1997 — Mexico City, Mexico

The Dolphins improved their record in American Bowl series games to a perfect 4-0 with a 38-19 win over the Denver Broncos in Mexico City before a crowd of 104,209. The crowd of 104,209 that was present is the most to have ever witnessed a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to Washington in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983 at the Rose Bowl. With the win, the Dolphins became the first NFL team to notch four American Bowl series victories, and also became the first club to win an American Bowl series contest in each of the three continents in which these games have been staged (Europe, Asia and North America). On Denver's first possession of the game, John Elway led the Broncos to the Dolphins' 15 before rookie defensive end Jason Taylor sacked Elway for a 14-yard loss on third-and-eight, forcing a Jason Elam 47-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. The Broncos moved from their own 16 to the Dolphins' seven on their next series, but on third-and-five, Taylor again came up big, sacking quarterback Jeff Lewis for a six-yard loss. The Broncos had to settle for an Elam field goal, from 31 yards out with 1:26 remaining in the first quarter and a 6-0 lead. Miami began their first scoring drive of the pre-season at their own 21 and Dan Marino completed five of seven passes for 80 yards, the final 19 of which came on a touchdown pass to Brian Manning, 5:03 into the second quarter, to take a 7-6 lead. Facing a fourth-and-four from the Broncos' 40, Marino hit Charles Jordan for a seven-yard completion, and a 19-yard completion to Ed Perry three plays prior to the score put the Dolphins at the Broncos' 14. Craig Erickson replaced Marino on the Dolphins' next series, and he picked up where Marino left off. Starting at their own 20, Erickson completed all four of his pass attempts, for 57 yards before an eight-yard touchdown pass to fullback Dewayne Dotson on second-and-goal culminated the 12 play drive that consumed 7:33 of the clock and gave Miami and 14-6 lead. Karim Abdul-Jabbar also shined on the march, rushing six times for 28 yards. The Dolphins faced just one third down on the drive, and Erickson completed a 27-yard pass to Manning on third-and-12 from the Miami 18. Jason Elam's 54-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left in the first half fell short. Miami extended its lead to 17-6 on Olindo Mare's 41 yard field goal, 6:37 into the third quarter. The Broncos scored their first touchdown of the night to close the score to 17-12 with just 2:08 left in the third quarter on a nine-yard pass from Jeff Lewis to Byron Chamberlain. Vaughn Hebron's rush attempt for the two-point try fell short of the goal line. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Craig Erickson hit Manning in stride, and he outraced the Bronco defenders for a 66-yard touchdown catch-and-run and a 24-12 lead. Denver again closed the gap to five points at 24-19 when quarterback Bubby Brister scored on a one-yard touchdown run on third-and-goal with 6:51 to play. Earl Little intercepted a Brister pass and returned it 26 yards to the Broncos' 23 on Denver's next series, leading to a 31-yard touchdown run by Brandon Bennett three plays afterward and a 31-19 lead. The Dolphins put the game away for good with 1:33 remaining when linebacker Anthony Harris outjumped an intended receiver for the ball on a pass thrown by Brister, and ran 53 yards for a touchdown and the final score of the game.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 21, BEARS 14
August 10, 1997

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

Irving Spikes' two-yard touchdown run with 1:36 to play in the third quarter proved to be the winning points as the Miami Dolphins defeated the Chicago Bears, 21-14, at Pro Player Stadium. The Bears threatened late in the game when they got to the Dolphins' 24-yard line with just more than a minute remaining, but on the final three defensive plays of the game, the Dolphins came up big with two sacks and an interception to thwart the threat, and preserve their first preseason victory over the Bears since 1975. On the first series of the game, Dolphins cornerback Calvin Jackson intercepted a Rick Mirer pass and returned it two yards to the Bears' 12. That led to a ten-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino to Lamar Thomas two plays later and a 7-0 lead. Chicago took over and marched 80 yards on ten plays in 5:39, culminating in a Mirer to Keith Jennings eight-yard scoring pass to tie the game at 7-7. Mirer completed all four of his passes on the drive, for 38 yards. Erik Kramer entered the game at quarterback on Chicago's next possession and guided the Bears from their own 20 to the Dolphins' 11 before a fourth-and-two pass fell incomplete. On Miami's next series, however, Dolphins running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar fumbled at the Bears' 40 following a nine-yard gain, and Bears safety John Mangum picked up the loose ball and scampered 59 yards to the Dolphins' one, leading to a Raymont Harris one-yard scoring run two plays afterward and a 14-7 lead. Chicago again made it into Dolphins territory on their next series, but Shawn Wooden recovered a Haywood Jeffires fumble at the Dolphins' 19 with 1:43 left in the first half to end the drive. From there, Marino led the Dolphins to the Bears' 11, on six of seven passing for 82 yards, before the clock ran out on the opening half. The Dolphins tied the game at 14-14 on the initial series of the second half when Craig Erickson led the Dolphins on an eight-play, 68-yard drive that ended in a six-yard touchdown pass to Troy Drayton. On the play prior to the score, Erickson connected with Brian Manning for a 21-yard completion to convert a third-and-17. Irving Spikes capped Miami's next possession with a two-yard scoring run, with 1:36 remaining in the third quarter. The game-winning drive covered 68 yards on 11 plays in 5:54. Spikes hauled in a 12-yard pass from Erickson on the previous play to convert a third-and-five. Erickson also hit Charles Jordan for an eight-yard completion to convert a fourth-and-one earlier in the drive. From that point, the Dolphins netted just 17 yards of total offense, while the Bears were turned back on four drives in the final period of play with all four Dolphins sacks on the night coming in the fourth quarter.

PRESEASON GAME 4

BUCCANEERS 24, DOLPHINS 10
August 16, 1997

Houlihan's Stadium
Tampa, Florida

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers notched the final 17 points of the game en route to the 24-10 victory over the Miami Dolphins at Houlihan's Stadium in a game that was delayed for almost an hour due to lightning. The Dolphins got the first break of the game on the opening series when Anthony Harris forced the ball loose from Mike Alstott following a reception, and Shawn Wooden recovered at the Bucs' 37. That led to an Olindo Mare 25-yard field goal and a 3-0 lead for the Dolphins. A 23-yard completion from Dan Marino to Fred Barnett on third-and-11 put the Dolphins at the Bucs' 14 four plays before the field goal. Tampa Bay went ahead on the next series when quarterback Trent Dilfer scored from two yards out on a naked bootleg on fourth-and-goal. A 43-yard kickoff return by Marvin Marshall gave the Bucs possession at their own 44, and a pass interference penalty on Terrell Buckley gave Tampa Bay a first-and-goal from the four. The Dolphins re-gained the lead at 10-7 with 1:22 left in the first quarter when Karim Abdul-Jabbar broke loose for a 35-yard touchdown run. Marino and Barnett connected for a 22-yard completion two plays prior to the score. The Bucs took the lead for good 17 seconds before halftime when Trent Dilfer connected with Karl Williams for a seven-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal for a 14-10 lead. Dilfer had a 35-yard scramble on third-and-five to put Tampa Bay at the Dolphins' 30. Bjorn Nittmo increased Tampa Bay's lead to 17-10 on a 43-yard field goal with 2:48 remaining in the third quarter. The score capped a ten-play, 50-yard drive that saw wide receiver Reidel Anthony rush for 24 yards on a reverse, and catch a 12-yard pass on third-and-11. The Bucs went up by two touchdowns 5:37 into the fourth quarter when LaCurtis Jones blocked a John Kidd punt, and Al Harris recovered the loose ball in the end zone.

PRESEASON GAME 5

DOLPHINS 28, REDSKINS 7
August 21, 1997

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, Florida

The Dolphins used an opportunistic defense which produced three touchdowns, and solid play on special teams and in the running game, to conclude the preseason with a 3-2 record following a 28-7 win over the Washington Redskins at Pro Player Stadium. It's the second consecutive winning mark in preseason for Miami, and the sixth time in the last seven years they have produced a winning register in preseason. On the first series of the game, Washington got to the Miami 17 following a 45-yard completion from Gus Frerotte to Leslie Shepherd, but on the very next play Dolphins cornerback Tim Jacobs intercepted a Frerotte pass at the goal line and returned it 23 yards. Two Redskin possessions later, Shawn Wooden picked off another Frerotte pass, and brought it back 21 yards to the Redskins' 40. From there, the Dolphins traveled 40 yards on eight plays, culminating with a Bernie Parmalee four-yard touchdown run on third-and-two for a 7-0 lead. With the Redskins at the Dolphins' 41 early in the second quarter, Derrick Rodgers came up with Miami's third interception of the night, picking off a Jeff Hostetler pass and returning it seven yards to the Dolphins' 42. After Washington was stopped once again on their next series, Dolphins returner Charles Jordan fielded a Matt Turk punt at his own four-yard line, and raced past Redskins defenders for a 96-yard touchdown. On the next series, with the Redskins at their own 44, George Teague forced the ball loose from Kerry Joseph after a ten-yard run, and Sam Madison scooped it up and scampered 34 yards to the Redskins' 22. That led to a Jerris McPhail ten-yard touchdown run four plays later for a 21-0 lead. On Washington's following series, Madison forced another Joseph fumble, and he picked it up and ran away for a 58-yard touchdown, 2:18 before halftime, and a 28-0 lead. It was the fifth turnover forced by the Dolphins on the night, their most since the third game of the 1996 preseason schedule when they also came up with five in a 24-17 win over Minnesota on August 19 at Pro Player Stadium. The Redskins lone score of the night capped a five-play, 31-yard drive, following a Keith Thibodaux interception of a Damon Huard pass, with a 20-yard touchdown pass from Trent Green to Albert Connell.

DOLPHIN FACT

Miami owns an 8-1 record in games following a bye week. In 1990, Miami followed a bye with a 17-10 win over New England. In 1991, the Dolphins returned to action with a 10-6 win at Indianapolis. In 1992, Miami opened the season with a bye (due to Hurricane Andrew) and came back with a 27-23 win at Cleveland. In 1993, the Dolphins had two bye weekends and rebounded with a 22-13 win over Buffalo and a 31-27 win over Indianapolis. In 1994, the Dolphins came back from a bye weekend and won by a 23-3 score at New England. In 1995, the Dolphins returned to action with a 25-23 win at Cincinnati. Miami lost for the first time after a bye when they dropped a 22-15 decision to Seattle in 1996. In 1997, Miami followed a bye with a 17-14 win over Kansas City. They are 4-4 in games preceding the bye week.

In 1998, the Dolphins will take on the Pittsburgh Steelers at home on September 20 before the bye and return from the off-week on October 4 at the New York Jets.

OPPONENTS INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The game is played in 96 degree heat - the warmest game in Dolphins' history.

Oct. 16 – Miami wins its third consecutive game of the season as the Dolphins defeat the San Diego Chargers, 31-28. Quarterback Dan Marino throws for 329 yards and moves into sole possession of second-place on the NFL's career 300-yard passing games list with his 27th such game (behind only Dan Fouts with 51).

Oct. 23 – Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL history – 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y Jets defeat the Dolphins, 44-30, at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Oct. 30 – Shula Bowl III – Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium.

Dec. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former quarterback Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, receiver Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

Jan. 22 – Joe Robbie Stadium hosts Super Bowl XXIII only two-and-a-half years after its initial opening. San Francisco comes back in the final minutes of the game to defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-16. The game marks the first time since Super Bowl XII (January 21,1979) that the NFL's championship game is played in Miami.

Jan. 23 – Dolphin Linebackers Coach Chuck Studley resigns after five seasons with Miami.

Jan. 25 – Former Miami Hurricanes defensive coordinator Dave Wannstedt joins the Dolphins coaching staff as linebackers coach.

Feb. 27 – David Shula, the Dolphins' assistant head coach and passing game coordinator, and Dave Wannstedt, the team's linebackers coach, resign their position to accept new posts with the Dallas Cowboys.

March 1 – George Hill is named the new linebackers coach for the Dolphins, while John Sandusky, the Dolphins' offensive line coach, is promoted to assistant head coach.

March 6 – Gary Stevens, formerly of the University of Miami, is named quarterbacks/pass offense coach for the Dolphins.

May 15 – Chuck Connor, the Dolphins director of player personnel for 11 seasons, announces his resignation to join the Atlanta Falcons as director of pro scouting.

June 12 – Tom Heckert, formerly a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Cleveland Browns, is named Miami's Director of College Scouting.

Sept. 10 – Jim Kelly scores on a two-yard run on the game's last play to give the Buffalo Bills a 27-24 win over the Dolphins. The loss dropped Miami's record in season openers to 10-13-1 and in home openers to 18-5-1 and it also snapped a 13-game winning streak in home openers, which had been the NFL's longest active home opener winning streak.

Sept. 17 – In Miami's 24-10 win at New England, Dan Marino throws his 200th career touchdown pass, becoming the 13th player in NFL history to throw for 200 TDs. It was just his 89th career game, and he reaches the 200 touchdown pass mark faster than any quarterback in NFL history.

Oct. 8 – In Miami's 13-10 overtime win vs. Cleveland, Dan Marino goes over 25,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone. Marino also breaks Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 25,992 career passing yards.

Nov. 5 – Sammie Smith rushes for 123 yards in Miami's 19-13 win over the Indianapolis Colts, the third best single game rushing total ever by a Dolphin rookie. It also breaks a 27-game streak in which the Dolphins did not have a running back gain 100 or more yards.

Nov. 12 – Pete Stoyanovich kicks a team-record 59-yard field goal in a 31-23 victory over the New York Jets, a kick that also tied the third longest field goal in NFL history.

Nov. 19 – Miami defeats Dallas 17-14 in Shula Bowl IV, as Don Shula extends his record to 4-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time Shula was opposed by son Dave, the Assistant Head Coach of the Cowboys. The win also was the Dolphins' sixth win in their last seven games and moved them into a first-place tie with the Buffalo Bills atop the AFC East.

Dec. 3 – Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year in Miami's 26-21 loss at Kansas City. It was his sixth season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Dan Fouts' NFL record of six 3,000 yard seasons.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins are eliminated from playoff contention with a 27-24 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the season finale at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is played in 40-degree weather, the coldest home game in the history of the Dolphins.

Jan. 7 – Joseph Robbie, founder and owner of the Dolphins and the driving force behind the construction of Joe Robbie Stadium, dies of respiratory failure at age 73.

Jan. 12 – The Miami Dolphins and Robbie Stadium Corporation undergo an organization realignment to ensure continued administration of both entities by the Robbie family. Tim Robbie becomes President of the Dolphins, Dan and Janet Robbie are named Executive Vice Presidents of the team, while Eddie Jones is named Executive Vice President and General Manager of the club. In addition, J. Michael Robbie is named Executive Vice President of Robbie Stadium Corporation.

Jan. 19 – Dolphin President Tim Robbie announces that the Dolphins have signed Don Shula to a three-year contract to remain as head coach.

Jan. 27 – Former Dolphin great Bob Griese is among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Dolphin quarterback becomes the fourth player in Miami history to earn the honor with induction scheduled for August 4.

Feb. 7 – Monte Clark, former San Francisco and Detroit Head Coach and Dolphin Assistant Coach, is named Miami's Director of Pro Personnel, while Charley Winner is given expanded duties and is named the club's Director of Player Personnel.

March 7 – H. Wayne Huizenga, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video, purchases fifty percent of the Robbie Stadium Corporation (the parent company of Joe Robbie Stadium) as well as a fifteen percent limited partnership in the Miami Dolphins.

Sept. 9 – Sammie Smith rushes for an opening-day record 159 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins break a five-year losing streak in season openers with a 27-24 win at the New England Patriots.

Sept. 16 – Team founder Joe Robbie is the first enshrinee on the "Dolphin Honor Roll" at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, the Dolphins end a six-game losing streak to the Buffalo Bills and move into undisputed first place in the AFC East for the first time since Week 15 of the 1985 season with a 30-7 triumph. It is also Don Shula's 200th career regular season win as head coach of the Dolphins.

Oct. 18 – In Miami's 17-10 win over the New England Patriots, Don Shula coaches in his 400th career regular season game as a head coach in the NFL.

Nov. 19 – During halftime of Miami's 13-10 loss to the Los Angeles Raiders, the team's four Hall of Fame enshrinees, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield, are inducted into the "Dolphin Honor Roll."

Nov. 25 – Miami improves its record to 9-2 and clinches the team's first winning season since 1987 with a 30-13 win over the Cleveland Browns. Also, Dan Marino goes over 30,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 11th player in NFL history to reach the 30,000-yard mark. It is just his 114th career game, and he reaches the 30,000-yard plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history.

Dec. 9 – The Dolphins earn a 23-20 overtime win over the Philadelphia Eagles and clinch the team's first playoff berth since 1985.

Dec. 16 – In Miami's 24-17 win over the Seattle Seahawks, Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year. It is his seventh season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Joe Montana's NFL record of seven 3,000-yard seasons.

Dec. 19 – Richmond Webb becomes the first rookie offensive tackle – and second rookie offensive lineman overall – to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino throws his 20th touchdown pass of the season in Miami's 24-14 loss at the Buffalo Bills. It is his eighth season with 20 or more touchdown passes and he ties Johnny Unitas' NFL record of eight 20-plus touchdown seasons.

Jan. 5 – The Dolphins return to the playoffs after a four-year absence with a 17-16 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Pete Stoyanovich sets an NFL playoff record with a 58-yard field goal.

Jan. 12 – Miami drops a 44-34 playoff decision at the Buffalo Bills. The two teams combine for 78 points – the highest scoring non-overtime playoff game in history. The only higher scoring playoff was Miami's 41-38 overtime loss to the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 2, 1982.

Jan. 24 – Monte Clark, the Dolphins director of pro personnel, announces his resignation.

Jan. 27 – Larry Csonka is named to the NFL's all-time Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team.

Feb. 2 – Richmond Webb is named NFL Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News.

March 8 – Mike Shula joins Dolphins as a Coaches' Assistant.

March 26 – The Robbie Family and Wayne Huizenga purchase 107 acres of land adjacent to Joe Robbie Stadium for additional parking and future development.

May 23 – At the NFL owners meetings in Minneapolis, Joe Robbie Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIX (1995).

Aug. 3 – The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to take on the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.

Aug. 20 – Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

Sept. 22 – Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.

Nov. 10 – In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

Nov. 18 – During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Nov. 24 – The Dolphins record a 16-13 overtime win at Chicago in 27- degree snowy weather, only the second win ever for the Dolphins in their nine games in which the temperature has been 27 degrees or colder.

Dec. 1 – Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.

Dec. 9 – Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino set an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.

Dec. 15 – Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.

Dec. 22 – The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just 44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

Feb. 1 – Former Dolphin All-Pro center Dwight Stephenson rejoins Miami as assistant offensive line coach.

Feb. 3 – Hall of Fame defensive tackle Joe Greene is named as the Dolphins' defensive line coach. Greene replaced Dan Sekanovich, who announced his resignation.

May 20 – Dolphins sign a long-term agreement to build a new training facility at Nova University in Davie, to be ready by the start of the 1993 training camp.

June 1 – Charley Winner announces his retirement as Miami's Director of Player Personnel. Winner, who had served 37 years in the NFL as a coach and administrator, originally joined the Dolphins in 1981.

June 4 – Tom Heckert is named as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel. Heckert had worked the previous three years as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

June 12 – Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

July 17 – Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.

Aug. 16 – The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil. The Dolphins join the L.A. Rams as only teams which have recorded wins in contests played in each of the three American Bowl sites (London, Tokyo and Berlin).

Aug. 31 – Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.

Sept. 29 – The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson.

Oct. 4 – The Dolphins improve to 4-0 and take over sole possession of first place in the AFC East for the first time in 34 weeks with a 37- 10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium. The win snaps Miami's six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. The Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986. With the win, Miami moves ahead of the second-place Bills (4-1) in the AFC East for the first time since the second week of the 1990 season. Individually, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.

Oct. 18 – Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.

Nov. 8 – The Dolphins record a 28-0 win at the Indianapolis Colts. Miami's shutout is the first by the team since October 11, 1987, when the Dolphins posted a 42-0 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in a replacement contest at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, it is the first Dolphin shutout in a non-replacement game since December 22, 1985, in a 28-0 win over the Buffalo Bills in the Orange Bowl and the first road shutout since September 4, 1983, in a 12-0 win at the Buffalo Bills in Rich Stadium.

Nov. 16 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 – Miami reverses history by earning a 20-7 win over the Los Angeles Raiders on Monday Night Football at Joe Robbie Stadium. The contest marks the Dolphins' first win over the Raiders in a game played in Miami since a 23-6 triumph on December 10, 1978, in the Orange Bowl.

Dec. 20 – The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer.

Dec. 27 – The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

Jan. 10 – The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.

Jan. 17 – The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The attendance of 72,703 marks the largest crowd to witness a Dolphin game at JRS. The previous high was 71,224 which was set the previous week on January 10 to witness the Dolphins' 31-0 win over San Diego in an AFC Divisional Playoff game.

Jan. 26 – Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.

Jan. 30 – Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.

Feb. 7 – The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Feb. 11 – Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight end coach of the Chicago Bears.

Feb. 22 – Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970 will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.

May 21 – Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92 resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.

June 1 – Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.

June 4 – Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.

July 11 – Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.

Sept. 12 – Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.

Oct. 10 – Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn Achilles in right foot) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.

Oct. 24 – Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The game marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.

Oct. 31 – Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all-time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.

Nov. 14 – The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.

Nov. 21 – Steve DeBerg becomes the third player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins in 1993 as he throws for 252 yards and a pair of touchdowns to lead Miami to a 17-13 win over New England. DeBerg, the NFL's oldest player, had joined the team just 11 days prior to the Pats game and was forced into his first start in place of the injured Scott Mitchell.

Nov. 25 – The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.

Dec. 5 – Miami drops a 19-14 decision to the New York Giants at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins fall to 12-1 at home against teams in the NFC East since the NFL merger in 1970 and 11-1 at home against opponents from the NFC since the team moved to Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987. The last team to defeat the Dolphins in an inter-conference game played in Miami was the Atlanta Falcons who earned a 20-14 win on November 30, 1986, in the Orange Bowl.

Dec. 13 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 – Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.

Jan. 24 – The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.

Feb. 8 – Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.

March 16 – John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.

March 23 – The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.

June 28 – H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.

July 8 – The Dolphins and WIOD Radio (610 AM) announce the hiring of Bill Zimpfer as the team's play-by-play announcer and "Voice of the Dolphins." Zimpfer replaces Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970 and announced his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner on May 6, 1993. Zimpfer joins former Dolphin tight end and color analyst Jim Mandich in the broadcast booth.

July 21 – H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.

Sept. 4 – Dan Marino throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.

Oct. 2 – Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach with a 23-7 win over the Bengals.

Oct. 16 – Bernie Parmalee receives two game balls – one for offense and one for special teams – for his performance in Miami's 20-17 overtime win against the Los Angeles Raiders. Parmalee rushes for 150 yards on 30 carries and adds a pair of tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams. In addition, the Dolphins reverse history in the all-time series against the Raiders as Miami records wins in consecutive games against the Raiders for the first time in the history of the series. Miami earned a 20-7 win over the Raiders on December 14, 1992, in the last meeting between the two teams.

Oct. 30 – The Dolphins earn a 23-3 win at the New England Patriots to sweep the season series over the Patriots for the fifth time in the last six years and win for the 11th time in the last 12 games played between the two teams. The win improves Miami to 6-0 in games following a bye weekend. In addition, Bernie Parmalee gains 123 rushing yards and ties the all-time team record for consecutive 100-yard performances. His 273 rushing yards in consecutive games surpasses the previous best of 258 yards rushing by Mercury Morris who accomplished the feat with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973.

Nov. 13 – Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Don Shula battles his son and Bears tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.

Nov. 27 – Mark Ingram catches four touchdown passes, including the game winner with just 22 seconds left in regulation, to lead the Dolphins to a come-from-behind 28-24 win over the New York Jets at Giants Stadium. The Dolphins trail by an 18-point margin midway through the third period (24-6) before rebounding to outscore the Jets by a 22-0 edge to win the game. Ingram's four touchdowns and 24 points in the game tie the team's single-game records with Paul Warfield's four touchdowns (all receiving) and 24 points against Detroit on December 15, 1973.

Dec. 7 – Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.

Dec. 12 – Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.

Dec. 25 – The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.

Dec. 27 – Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.

Dec. 31 – Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

Jan. 9 – Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.

Jan. 18 – Assistant head coach/offensive line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.

Feb. 6 – Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.

Feb. 9 – Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.

May 19 – The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.

Sept. 3 – The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.

Oct. 1 – The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.

Oct. 8 – Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to fullback Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Marino suffers knee and hip injuries which force him to miss the next two games (at New Orleans and at the N.Y. Jets).

Oct. 30 – The Dolphins earn their first home win over the Buffalo Bills since the 1990 season with a 23-6 triumph at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's last home win against Buffalo was a 30-7 victory on September 10, 1990. The game marks the first time that the Dolphins have held the Bills without a touchdown since Miami dropped a 9-6 decision at Rich Stadium on September 11, 1988.

Nov. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a nine-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 26 – Dan Marino tosses a six-yard touchdown pass to fullback Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.

Dec. 11 – Guard/Tackle Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during half-time ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with an incomplete pass attempt to wide receiver Randal Hill in the fourth quarter. In addition, the game is a sellout and marks the second consecutive season and fourth time overall (also 1972-73) that every home game has been sold out and it is just the second time in team history (also 1973) that every game has been sold out before the television blackout deadline.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record and clinch a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration.

Dec. 30 – Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL post-season record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards.

Jan. 5 – Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as he assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to owner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.

Jan. 11 – Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the previous two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (Univ. of Miami, 1987).

Jan. 16 – Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's General Manager/Head Coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.

Jan. 17 – The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Godette, who replaces Joe Greene, had served as defensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers in 1995, Jones was head coach at Oklahoma State University from 1984-94, and Lewis was head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94.

Jan. 19 – Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach, replacing Tony Nathan. Brown had served as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1995) and N.Y. Jets (1990-92).

Jan. 24 – Bob Ackles is named as the Dolphins Director of Football Operations. Ackles joins the team after serving as Director of Football Administration for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 and working three years with the Arizona Cardinals as Director of College Scouting (1992-93) and Assistant General Manager (1994).

Feb. 16 – The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line, replacing Monte Clark. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff. Beightol joins the Dolphins after having served as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers (1995), N.Y. Jets (1990-94), San Diego Chargers (1989), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-88) and Atlanta Falcons (1985-86).

March 1 – The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

April 23 – Dan Marino, who broke every significant passing record in NFL history during the 1995 season, signs a three-year contract through the 1998 season to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

April 26 – The Jimmy Johnson era officially begins as the Dolphins take the field for the first time in mini-camp under the new Dolphins head coach.

Aug. 26 – Pro Player, a sports apparel company, enters into a ten-year agreement with Joe Robbie Stadium, home of the Dolphins since 1987, to re-name the stadium Pro Player Park. The deal is worth $2 million annually over the term of the contract.

Sept. 1 – The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 24–10 at Pro Player Park, in Jimmy Johnson's debut as head coach. Of the three head coaches in team history, Johnson is the only one to record a victory in his initial game. Also, rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 115 yards and a TD on 26 carries in Miami's victory over the Patriots, the first Dolphin rookie since Sammie Smith on November 5, 1989, against Indianapolis to rush for 100 yards. He also becomes the first player in Dolphins history to rush for 100 yards in his NFL debut.

Sept. 10 – Pro Player Park is re-named Pro Player Stadium.

Sept. 15 – On his 35th birthday, quarterback Dan Marino throws for 257 yards and three touchdowns as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets, 36-27, at Pro Player Stadium. One of the scoring passes is a 74-yard strike to rookie fullback Stanley Pritchett, the longest completion to a Dolphins running back in team history. The win marks the third straight year and fourth time in the last five campaigns that Miami has opened the regular season with three consecutive victories.

Oct. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino plays in his 191st regular season game, against Dallas at Pro Player Stadium. In the process, he breaks Bob Kuechenberg's club career record for regular season games played of 190. The game is witnessed by 75,651 fans, the highest attendance figure in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous high was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII between San Francisco and Cincinnati on January 22, 1989. The former record for a Dolphins game was 73,080 for a November 20, 1995 contest against San Francisco.

Oct. 29 – WQAM Radio (560 AM) signs a five-year contract for broadcast rights to the Dolphins, Florida Marlins and Florida Panthers. Dolphins football will be aired on WQAM through the year 2001. The Dolphins' flagship station had been WIOD Radio since the team's inception in 1966.

Oct. 31 – At the NFL fall meetings in New Orleans, the league awards the 1999 Super Bowl to the city of Miami. The game will be played at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 10 – A 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter puts quarterback Dan Marino over the 50,000-yard mark for his career, the first quarterback in NFL history to reach that plateau. His eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter is the 4,000th completion of Marino's career, also making him the first quarterback in league history to achieve that feat. These accomplishments occur in a 37-13 victory over Indianapolis at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 17 – The Dolphins defeat the Houston Oilers, 23-20 at the Astrodome, the 50th career regular season victory for head coach Jimmy Johnson.

Nov. 25 – At halftime of a 24-17 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, former Head Coach Don Shula is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. In that game, running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 57 yards on 16 attempts, breaking the club's rookie rushing record of 711 formerly held by Andra Franklin (1981).

Dec. 16 – On Monday Night Football, the Dolphins record a 16-14 victory over Buffalo at Pro Player Stadium, marking the first time since 1986 that Miami has swept the season series from the Bills. It's also the first time since December 22, 1985, that the Dolphins have defeated Buffalo in the month of December or January, snapping a seven-game losing streak against Buffalo in such games.

Dec. 22 – In a season-ending 31-28 win at the New York Jets, running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 152 yards and a TD on 30 carries. His performance is the fifth-highest single-game total in franchise history, and the second-most by a rookie. It is his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the year, establishing a new club rookie standard, also tying for the second-best mark in team annals. In the process, he also surpasses the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the season, the sixth Dolphins player to achieve that feat and the first since Delvin Williams in 1978. Abdul-Jabbar's 1,116 rushing yards is the third-best single-season total in team history. He scores on a 17-yard run in the third quarter, his 11th rushing touchdown of the year, tying Ron Davenport's club rookie record, first achieved in 1985.

Jan. 14 – Miami Dolphins unveil a modified team logo and new uniforms for the 1997 season. The basic logo and team colors remain the same. The sunburst on the logo is more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeters, while the dolphin's features are accentuated by navy highlights. The home and road jerseys added a script "Dolphins" below the collar, and several subtle accents were added to the uniform to highlight and strengthen the team's traditional colors.

Jan. 25 – Former head coach Don Shula (1970-95), the NFL's all-time winningest coach with 347 victories, is selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

March 11 – At the NFL spring meetings in Palm Desert, Calif., the NFL Owners approve limited cross ownership, finalizing H. Wayne Huizenga's ownership of the Dolphins.

March 21 – Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract extension, which runs through 1998, to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.

April 17 – Les Koenning, wide receivers coach at Texas A&M the previous three seasons, is named as an offensive assistant.

April 18 – The Dolphins unveil the first "official" mascot in team history during a press conference at the team's training facility. He makes his public debut on April 19 at the team's Draft Day party at Pro Player Stadium.

June 3 – Doug Blevins is named as the team's kicking coach.

June 4 – "T.D." is picked as the name of the Dolphins official team mascot, it is announced at the team's annual Awards Banquet. Sarah Fernandez and her two sons, Nelson and Vincent, win the "Name the Mascot" contest, and receive two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.

June 13 – Dan Marino signs a one-year contract extension through the 1999 season.

July 26 – Don Shula becomes the sixth former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Mike Haynes, Wellington Mara and Mike Webster.

Aug. 16 – The Dolphins travel to Mexico City and earn a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance is the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, in the Rose Bowl. The game marks the fourth time overall that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 4-0 in games played on foreign soil. Miami's previous American Bowl games had been in London (1988), Tokyo (1991) and Berlin (1992). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

Aug. 31 – The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 16-10, at Pro Player Stadium in their 1997 season-opener. It's the Dolphins' first-ever regular season game in month of August. It also marks their sixth consecutive opening-day victory.

Oct. 5 – The Dolphins defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 17-14, at Pro Player Stadium, marking the 300th victory in franchise history, including playoffs. The Dolphins become the second team from the old AFL to reach the 300-win plateau. The Oakland Raiders were the first.

Oct. 27 – After the Dolphins built a 33-18 fourth-quarter lead, the Chicago Bears stormed back for 18 unanswered points, including a Jeff Jaeger 35-yard field goal with 5:35 remaining in overtime, to come away with a 36-33 victory on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium. It equaled the fourth-largest comeback win ever against Miami. The game originally was scheduled to be played on Sunday, October 26, but was pushed back due to Game 7 of the Marlins-Indians World Series.

Nov. 17 – At halftime of a 30-13 win over the the Buffalo Bills on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins honor the 25th anniversary of the 1972 Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII.

Nov. 23 – RB Karim Abdul-Jabbar scores three rushing touchdowns in a 27-24 loss to the Patriots in Foxboro. His third touchdown of the game came on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter. It was his 13th rushing TD of the year, a new Dolphins record. His 12 rushing scores had been tied with Mercury Morris, Don Nottingham and Larry Csonka.

Nov. 30 – The Dolphins record a 33-15 victory over the Raiders at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. It's the first-ever win by Miami against the Raiders in Oakland after Miami had dropped each of their previous eight meetings there.

Dec. 14 – The Dolphins are shut out, 41-0, by the Indianapolis Colts in the RCA Dome. The shutout snaps a streak of 162 consecutive games - the second longest active streak in the NFL at the time - in which the Dolphins had scored. The last time Miami had been held scoreless was on November 29, 1987, in a 27-0 loss at the Buffalo Bills.

Dec. 22 – In the season finale against New England at Pro Player Stadium, left tackle Richmond Webb starts his 110th consecutive regular season game, a new Dolphins record. His 109 straight starts were tied with Jim Langer.

Dec. 28 – The Dolphins drop a 17-3 decision to the New England Patriots in Foxboro in an AFC First-Round Playoff game, Miami's first postseason appearance under Head Coach Jimmy Johnson.

Jan. 24 – Former Dolphins center Dwight Stephenson (1980-87) is among a group of five who are elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Feb. 11 – Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson announces the following changes to the team's coaching staff: Kippy Brown, the Dolphins' running backs coach for the last two years, is named as offensive coordinator, replacing Gary Stevens; Larry Seiple, formerly the club's wide receiver coach, handles the quarterbacks; Joel Collier, a defensive assistant since 1994, coaches the running backs; Robert Ford, tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys since 1991, takes over as Miami's wide receivers coach; and Randy Shannon, an assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.), serves as a defensive assistant on the staff.

March 23 – Jimmy Johnson signs a one-year contract extension to remain the Dolphins General Manager and Head Coach through the year 2000. Johnson originally signed a four-year contract with the club on January 21, 1996.

August 1 – Center Dwight Stephenson becomes the seventh former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Anthony Munoz, Mike Singletary, Tommy McDonald and Paul Krause.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14
December 27, 1970

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 24 (2 OTs)
December 25, 1971

Kansas City Municipal Stadium
Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFLs scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0
January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin nine in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3
January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium
New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14
December 24, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17
December 31, 1972

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7
January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16
December 23, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7
January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium
Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 30, 1979 — Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT) — Orange Bowl
January 2, 1982 — Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

January 8, 1983 — Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13
January 16, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0
January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17
January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20
December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark

Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami s Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10
December 29, 1984

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28 — Orange Bowl
January 6, 1985 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16 — Stanford Stadium
January 20, 1985 — Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21
January 4, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14
January 12, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, KANSAS CITY 16
January 5, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 44, DOLPHINS 34
January 12, 1991

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SAN DIEGO 0
January 10, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased

Its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BUFFALO 29, DOLPHINS 10
January 17, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, KANSAS CITY 17
December 31, 1994

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped their lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took their first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 22, DOLPHINS 21
January 9, 1995

Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee – in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 37, DOLPHINS 22
December 30, 1995

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead enroute to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with current teammate Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a short three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins than attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

NEW ENGLAND 17, DOLPHINS 3
December 28, 1997

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Supr Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. Marino's 13 straight playoff games with a touchdown is an NFL record. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Corey Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Chris Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions - getting as far as the 45 and 43 - but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DON SHULA

Head Coach (1970-95)
Vice Chairman (1996-98)
Born: 1/4/30
College: John Carroll '51
Player: 1951-57 • Assistant Coach: 1960-62
Head Coach: 1963-95 • Year Inducted: 1997

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

Starting with the 1996 season, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 29th season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named Head Coach of the club in 1970. In addition, on June 16, 1998, he was named Executive Vice President of the Dolan (Larry and Charles) Family Ownership Group in their bid to purchase the new Cleveland Browns.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995 he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only four coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (1976, 1988) in that span. He averaged almost ten wins per season in his career (328 regular season wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games each.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns. He was the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 though 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules as well as regulations designed to improve the safety of playing conditions.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was further honored by being selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little, and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) in the same day.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way, and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On May 17, 1994, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its athletic complex the Don Shula Sports Center.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful enterprises, Don Shula's Hotel and Golf Club along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's oldest son David, 39, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher, and Matthew. David served as the Head Coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 in Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the first time ever in professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. Dave currently is Executive Vice President of Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's other son Mike, 33, was named as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1996 after spending the three previous seasons as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears.

Mike and Dave Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has three children, Alex, Lindsey, and Tyler, and is married to Steve Cohen. Another daughter, Sharon, currently serves as the Director of Development of the Don Shula Foundation. Youngest daughter Annie lives in the Miami area.

Shula and his wife Mary Anne reside in Miami and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. They were married on October 16, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children and eight grandchildren.

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

LARRY CSONKA

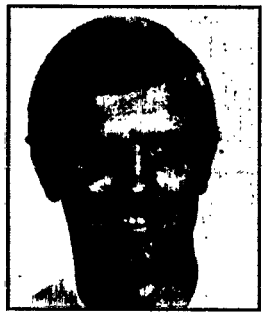

Fullback
Born: 12/25/46
College: Syracuse '68
NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79
Dolphins: 1968-74, 1979
Year Inducted: 1987

#39

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 20th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

BOB GRIESE

Quarterback #12
Born: 2/3/45
College: Purdue '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1967-80
Year Inducted: 1990

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. In 1990, he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

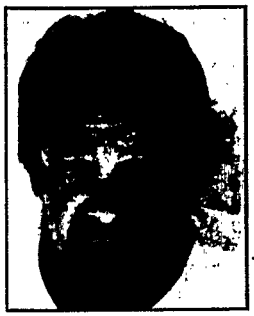

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

Since becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

JIM LANGER

Center #62
Born: 5/16/48
College: South Dakota St. '70
NFL: 1970-81
Dolphins: 1970-79
Year Inducted: 1987

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts (a record since broken by Richmond Webb in 1997). Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

DOLPHIN FACT

Over the past two years a common theme has developed with the Dolphins running game. During this two-year span, the Dolphins are 17-3 when they have had 25 or more rushing attempts, including a mark of 9-1 in 1997. In contests in which they have had less than 25 rushing attempts, Miami is 0-12, including a mark of 0-8 in 1997.

LARRY LITTLE

Guard
Born: 11/2/45
College: Bethune-Cookman '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1969-80
Year Inducted: 1993

#66

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphin player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions.

DWIGHT STEPHENSON

Center
Born: 11/20/57
College: Alabama '80
NFL: 1980-87
Dolphins: 1980-87
Year Inducted: 1998

#57

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the third-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on December 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects and he remains the only Dolphin to win that award since its inception in 1970. Stephenson also served as an Assistant Offensive Line Coach on Don Shula's Dolphin staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on December 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

PAUL WARFIELD

Wide Receiver
Born: 11/28/42
College: Ohio State '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77
Dolphins: 1970-74
Year Inducted: 1983

#42

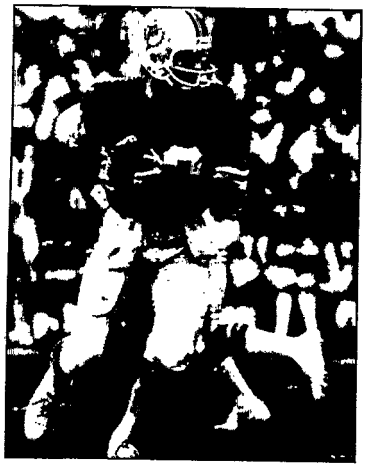

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs – good enough to place him 14th on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. His 85 touchdown catches is tied for the sixth highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

RETIRED JERSEY #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. Heading into the 1998 season, his No. 12 is the only Dolphin number to be honored in that fashion.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

DOLPHIN FACT

In the 32-year history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard rushing games. Two of the dual 100-yard games were accounted for by the tandem of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick (both in 1971). The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two runners surpass the 100-yard mark occurred on October 5, 1975 at Green Bay when Mercury Morris rushed for 125 yards on 31 attempts, while Don Nottingham ran for 102 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries.

DOLPHIN FACT

In home openers, Miami is 25-6-1 (.797). In road openers, the Dolphins are 17-14-1 (.547).

In addition, the Dolphins own a 24-4 (.857) record in home openers since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, which is the best of any NFL club over that time span, ahead of the Raiders (22-5-1, .804) and Broncos (also 22-5-1)

DOLPHIN FACT

Jimmy Johnson was named General Manager/Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 11, 1996, and became the third coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Excluding the NFL's two newest expansion teams, the Dolphins have had the NFL's low total of three head coaches in the history of their club.

- The Dolphins lead the all-time series 6-1, including wins in each of the last two meetings.
- The Falcons lone win in the series occurred on November 30, 1986, at the Orange Bowl by a 20-14 count. In that game Miami quarterback Dan Marino completed 20 of 40 pass attempts for 303 yards and two touchdowns, but was intercepted four times by Atlanta's defense.
- This will be Miami's first regular season visit to the Georgia Dome. The last time the Dolphins played a game in Atlanta was on September 21, 1980 when they handed the Falcons a 20-17 loss. Overall, the Dolphins hold a 2-0 advantage in games played in Atlanta, while they are 4-1 against the Falcons in games played in Miami.
- The Georgia Dome is one of three NFL stadiums in which Miami has never played a regular season game but will visit in 1998. The Dolphins also travel to Carolina's Ericsson Stadium and Jacksonville's ALLTEL Stadium this year.

- After splitting the two games played in 1997, the Dolphins lead the all-time regular season series 41-22-1, including wins in four of the last six matchups. Buffalo has captured all three playoff games in which these teams have met.
- Last season was the tenth time the teams split in the 32-year history of the series. The home teams were victorious in seven of those ten seasons, while the road teams came out on top on only three occasions.
- Miami holds a three-game winning streak over the Bills at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins longest home winning streak over Buffalo was 16 games, from 1967-1979. Overall, Miami is 22-9-1 against the Bills at home during the regular season, although Buffalo has won the only postseason contest played in Miami.
- The Dolphins hold a 19-13 advantage in regular season games decided in Buffalo. However, the Bills have emerged victorious in both playoff contests. Miami has posted a regular season mark of 15-10 at Rich Stadium.
- Miami set an NFL record for consecutive wins over one team with 20 against Buffalo, from 1970-79.

- This will be the first ever meeting between these clubs. Entering the 1998 season, the Dolphins were 18-10 in games where they play a franchise for the first time. Miami also meets the Jacksonville Jaguars this year for the first regular season matchup between those clubs.
- The Dolphins will be playing at Ericsson Stadium for the first time when the team's meet on November 15. Ericsson Stadium is one of three NFL venues in which Miami has never played a regular season game but will visit in 1998. The Dolphins also travel to Jacksonville's ALLTEL Stadium and Atlanta's Georgia Dome this year.
- The Dolphins are one of five teams that Carolina has yet to play during the three-year history of their franchise. The Bengals, Browns, Lions and Seahawks are the others.

- This will be the first regular season meeting between these teams since September 29, 1985, when the Dolphins came away with a 30-26 victory at Mile High Stadium. Overall, Miami and Denver have played a total of eight games, with the Dolphins leading the series 5-2-1.
- The 1985 matchup was the first and only time quarterbacks Dan Marino and John Elway faced each other in their 15-year careers. In that game, Marino completed 25 of his 43 pass attempts for 390 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. Elway threw 37 passes, completing 18 for 250 yards with no touchdowns and one interception.
- This could be John Elway's first ever regular season appearance in Miami. The last time the Broncos played a regular season contest in South Florida was on December 20, 1975 as the Dolphins closed out their regular season with a 14-13 victory at the Orange Bowl.
- When the Dolphins and Broncos meet this season, it will mark the fourth straight year and 14th time in team history that Miami has faced the defending Super Bowl Champions. In their previous 13 games, the Dolphins have posted a record of 3-10, including three straight losses.
- Although the Dolphins have appeared on ABC Monday Night Football an NFL-high 57 (33-24) times and Denver has played on Monday night on 37 (16-20-1) occasions, this will be the first time the two teams have ever squared off against each other in the Monday night spotlight. Miami entered the 1998 season with a 13-6 record when playing a team for the first time on Monday night. The Dolphins also face the Jacksonville Jaguars on Monday, October 12, the first Monday night meeting between those clubs.

- Miami has won 29 of the last 39 meetings between these teams. They are 18-10 against the Colts since the organization moved to Indianapolis in 1984.
- The Dolphins defeated the Colts 14 straight times between 1980-87 before Indianapolis recorded a 40-21 win over Miami on November 6, 1987 at Joe Robbie Stadium, the first time the teams had met there. The Colts longest win streak against Miami is five games, from 1975-77.
- The Colts have captured each of the last four matchups between these clubs at the RCA Dome after the Dolphins had emerged victorious in the previous four. Miami has topped Indianapolis in seven of the last nine meetings at Pro Player Stadium. Overall, the Dolphins are 21-7 against the Colts during the regular season in Miami and 7-4 at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins are 1-0 in playoff meetings. Miami is 16-12 on the road versus the Colts, including an 8-6 mark in Indianapolis.
- The Dolphins are 18-19 in domed stadiums, including a 0-1 mark in 1997. Overall, they are 8-6 against Indianapolis (RCA Dome), 6-6 against Houston (Astrodome), 1-2 against Detroit (Silverdome), 1-3 against New Orleans (Superdome), 1-1 against Seattle (Kingdome), 0-1 against Minnesota (Metrodome) and 1-0 against St. Louis (Trans World Dome). The only domed stadium in which Miami has never played a regular season game is the Georgia Dome. The Dolphins will meet the Falcons there this season on December 27.
- The last shutout recorded by the Dolphins defense occurred against the Colts in a 28-0 decision on November 1, 1992 at the RCA Dome. The last time the Dolphins were shut out by an opponent was on December 14, 1997, also at the RCA Dome, when Indianapolis defeated Miami 41-0, ending the Dolphins' consecutive scoring streak of 162 games, which had been the second longest streak in the NFL at that time.
- Dan Marino has faced the Colts 29 times in his career and owns a 19-10 record as a starter. Marino has a better touchdown to interception differential with a +31 (46 TDs to 15 INTs) against the Colts than against any other opponent. Overall, he has connected on 544 of 903 passes (60.2%) for 6,489 yards.

- This will be the first regular season meeting between these clubs. The Dolphins are 18-10 in games where they play a franchise for the first time. Miami also meets the Carolina Panthers this year for the first ever matchup between those clubs.

• On August 4, 1995 the Dolphins and Jaguars squared off in a preseason contest at Pro Player Stadium as Jacksonville handed Miami a 24-21 defeat to gain the franchise's first victory, preseason or regular season.

• The Dolphins will be playing at ALLTEL Stadium for the first time when the team's meet on October 12. ALLTEL Stadium is one of three NFL venues in which Miami has never played a regular season game but will visit in 1998. The Dolphins also travel to Atlanta's Georgia Dome and Carolina's Ericsson Stadium this year.

• This will be the Dolphins 58th (33-24) appearance on Monday Night Football, while it will be the Jaguars second (1-0) time playing on Monday night. Miami is 13-6 when playing a team for the first time under the Monday night spotlight.

• The Dolphins are one of five teams that Jacksonville has yet to face in the regular season during the three-year history of their franchise. The Cardinals, Chargers, Vikings and 49ers are the others. In addition to Miami, the Jaguars also face the Vikings this season.

• Miami has captured 13 of the last 18 regular season games between these teams, however New England swept the series in 1997. It was the Patriots first sweep over the Dolphins since the 1988 season. Miami has swept the season series in five of the last nine years.

• These clubs also met in the first round of the playoffs in 1997 as the Patriots emerged victorious 17-3 at Foxboro Stadium. It was only the third playoff meeting in the 32-year history of the series and the first in New England. Both of the previous games were played in Miami, with New England winning 31-14 in the 1985 AFC Championship Game, and the Dolphins coming out on top 28-13 in the first round of the 1982 playoffs.

• The Dolphins have recorded victories in seven of the last nine games against the Patriots at Pro Player Stadium. Overall, the Dolphins are 25-7 against the Patriots in games decided in Miami, including a 24-6 mark in the regular season. Their record versus New England at Pro Player Stadium is 7-4. The Dolphins are 13-18 against the Patriots in New England during the regular season, including a 12-16 register at Foxboro Stadium.

• The November 23 game at Foxboro Stadium will be the eighth Monday Night Football matchup between these teams and the second straight season in which they have played under the Monday night spotlight. The Dolphins won the first four Monday night games played in the series, however the Patriots have won the last three, including their 14-12 AFC East clinching triumph on the final Monday night of the 1997 regular season. This will mark the first Monday night meeting in New England between the clubs, as the previous seven games were played in South Florida.

• Miami's longest win streak against New England is nine games from 1989-93. The Patriots' longest streak versus the Dolphins is six games from 1986-88. New England currently holds a three-game win streak over Miami, dating back to the second game of the 1996 season.

• The Dolphins lead the all-time series 4-3, although the Saints have claimed the last two contests.

• This will be the Saints' first regular season visit to Pro Player Stadium and the first time New Orleans has played a regular season contest in Miami since September 28, 1980 when the Dolphins defeated the Saints 21-16. Of the seven games played in this series, only two have been played in South Florida, both of which were Dolphins victories. Miami is 2-3 in games played in New Orleans.

• The last time the Dolphins defeated the Saints came on December 7, 1986, as Miami handed New Orleans a 31-27 loss at the Louisiana Superdome. In that game, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino completed 27 of his 41 pass attempts for 241 yards and three touchdowns with no interceptions en route to the victory.

• This will be the third time in Miami Dolphins General Manager/Head Coach Jimmy Johnson's coaching career that he has gone head-to-head with New Orleans Saints Head Coach Mike Ditka. However, the two previous meetings came while Johnson was leading the Dallas Cowboys and Ditka was the Head Coach of the Chicago Bears. Johnson's teams are 2-0 versus Ditka's, with one victory coming in the regular season and one in postseason play.

• Jimmy Johnson's first ever NFL regular season game occurred versus New Orleans in a 28-0 loss on September 10, 1989 at the Louisiana Superdome.

- The Dolphins lead the all-time regular season series 34-29-1. Miami is 1-0 versus the Jets in postseason. New York captured each of the first eight contests in this series, but the Dolphins have gone 34-21-1 since.
- The Dolphins have won four straight games over the Jets, sweeping the season series in 1996 and 1997, and have registered victories in seven of the last eight meetings. The Jets hold a 17-15 advantage in games played in New York, including an 8-6 mark at Giants Stadium. The Dolphins are 19-12-1 in regular season play, and 1-0 in the postseason against the Jets in Miami. They are 7-4 versus the Jets at Pro Player Stadium with wins in four straight matchups and five of the last six. The last Jet victory in South Florida came on September 12, 1993 as New York handed the Dolphins a 24-14 loss.
- In regular season action, Miami Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino has thrown for more touchdown passes (67) and yards (7,699) against the Jets than against any other NFL team. In his last six games against New York, Marino has thrown 16 touchdowns and just five interceptions. Over his last 11 outings against the Jets, Marino has had 26 touchdown passes and eight interceptions, and has thrown at least two touchdown strikes in ten of those 11 games. In addition, his career single-game highs for attempts (60 on 10/23/88; tied at New England 11/23/97), yards passing (521 on 10/23/88), touchdown passes (six on 9/21/86) and interceptions (five on 10/23/88) all came against the Jets. In his career, Marino has posted a record of 17-9 as a starter against New York. He has completed 565 of 945 (59.8%) passes for 7,699 yards with 67 touchdowns and 28 interceptions for a quarterback rating of 97.1.
- Marino has more fourth quarter comeback wins against New York (five) than against any other NFL team during his 15-year NFL career.
- In four games against the Jets, Dolphins running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar has carried the ball 96 times for 441 yards (4.6 yards per carry) and has scored five touchdowns (four rushing, one receiving).

- Oakland leads the all-time regular season series 15-6-1, while also holding a 2-1 edge in playoff competition. The Dolphins recorded a 34-16 victory on November 30, 1997, at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, marking their first-ever win over the Raiders in Oakland. Prior to that game, the Raiders held an 8-0 advantage over the Dolphins in Oakland, including two playoff victories.
- This is the third straight season in which the Dolphins will face the Raiders at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, Miami has never faced a non-divisional opponent in three straight regular season road games.
- The Raiders own the best all-time series record of any NFL team against Miami, with a 17-7-1 mark.
- Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino's first NFL regular season action came against the Raiders, on September 19, 1983, at the L.A. Coliseum, when he completed 11 of 17 passes for 90 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions in a reserve role in Miami's 27-14 loss. In nine career games against the Raiders, eight as a starter, Marino has completed 174 of 314 passes for 2,186 yards with 17 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.

- The Dolphins lead the regular season series by an 8-7 advantage and the overall series 10-8, although the Steelers have won five of the last seven meetings between these teams, including the most recent contest in 1996.
- Of the 18 games played in this series, ten have been decided in Miami, including five at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins are 7-3 at home versus the Steelers, including a 1-0 slate in the playoffs. They are 3-5 when playing in Pittsburgh, splitting the two postseason games they have played there. This will be the third straight game in this series staged at Pro Player Stadium.
- Miami holds a 2-1 postseason advantage over Pittsburgh. Their two playoff victories over the Steelers came in AFC Championship games, propelling them to Supor Bowls following the 1972 and 1984 seasons.
- Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino, a Pittsburgh native, has faced the Steelers 11 times in his career and is 6-5 in those games. That record includes a 1-0 mark in the playoffs, as Marino passed for 421 yards and four touchdowns in the 1984 AFC Championship played in the Orange Bowl. Marino has been on the winning side of four of the seven games he has played against Pittsburgh in Miami.

• The Dolphins and 49ers have squared off on three previous occasions during the preseason, with Miami leading the preseason series by a 2-0-1 count. The Dolphins won the games played during the 1970 and 1988 preseasons and the teams played to a 17-17 tie in the 1971 contest.

• This will be the first time the Dolphins play a preseason game against the 49ers in San Francisco. The games in 1970 and 1971 were both in Miami and the July 31, 1988 contest was played at London's Wembley Stadium in front of a crowd of 70,535. This was the first of four American Bowl Series Games in which the Dolphins have played.

• The all-time series between these teams is deadlocked at four wins apiece, with the Dolphins winning the first four meetings and the 49ers emerging victorious in the most recent four. San Francisco's first win in this series came in Super Bowl XIX as the 49ers handed the Dolphins a 38-16 loss at Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto, California.

• Miami leads the all-time preseason series between these teams by an 8-4 count, including victories in each of the last four meetings.

• The Dolphins recorded a 28-7 victory over the Redskins, August 21, 1997 at Pro Player Stadium to close out last year's preseason.

• The last Redskins victory over the Dolphins in preseason occurred on August 25, 1989 at RFK Stadium, 35-21.

• The game will mark the Dolphins first visit to Jack Kent Cooke Stadium.

SUPER BOWL CITY

When Super Bowl XXXIII comes to Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999, it will mark the eighth time that Miami has played host to a Super Bowl, tying New Orleans for the most times that a city has been the focal point of the NFL's championship game. The first five times that the Super Bowl was staged in South Florida the contest was decided at the Orange Bowl. This will be the third time that Pro Player Stadium has been the site of the game, in the 12-year history of the Dolphins' home stadium. The first occurred on January 22, 1989 when the San Francisco 49ers defeated the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-16, in Super Bowl XXIII. The last time the Super Bowl was played in South Florida came on January 26, 1995, when the 49ers again were the victors, this time recording a resounding 49-26 triumph over the San Diego Chargers. The following are the seven previous Super Bowls that have been played in South Florida.

Super Bowl	Date	Score	Site	Att.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WQAM

The 1998 Miami Dolphins' season marks the second with WQAM (560 AM) serving as the flagship station for the Dolphins' radio network. This year the network has over 18 stations covering more than 70 markets in Florida.

WQAM is known for its outstanding sports programming, and is one of the leading sports and entertainment radio stations in the country. In addition to the Dolphins games, WQAM also broadcasts the games of the Florida Marlins and the Florida Panthers. WQAM is the home of the popular "First Team" morning show of Jeff DeForrest, ex-Dolphin Joe Rose, and Steve Goldstein. Hank Goldberg handles the afternoon and hosts the weekly "Jimmy Johnson Show" with Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. Former Dolphins Jim Mandich and Kim Bokamper also host talk shows. WQAM carries extensive Dolphins programming on game-days, beginning with a five-hour pre-game show and culminating with a two-hour post-game wrapup. WQAM also broadcasts live from the team's training camp and carries comprehensive Dolphins updates during the season.

Handling the play-by-play and entering his fifth season as "The Voice of the Dolphins" is Bill Zimpfer. Zimpfer, 42, joined the Dolphin broadcasts in 1994, after six years (1988-93) as play-by-play announcer for the Penn State football network. During the football off-season, Zimpfer also serves as morning sports anchor for WOGL-FM in Philadelphia. He resides with his wife and family in East Greenville, Pa.

Joining Zimpfer in the booth is analyst and ex-Dolphins favorite Jim Mandich. Mandich, in his seventh year as the color commentator on Dolphin game broadcasts, was a member of the Dolphins' 1972 club that was the NFL's only undefeated team. In his eight seasons as a Dolphins tight end (1970-77), Mandich caught 121 passes for 1,406 yards (11.6 yards per catch) with 23 touchdowns and ranks 21st in Dolphins team history in receiving and is tied for 18th in club annals in scoring with 138 points.

WQBA

For the 15th time in the last 17 years, the Dolphins' South Florida Latin fans will be able to follow the team home and away on WQBA (1140 AM). The 1997 season marked a return of the Dolphins' Spanish broadcast to WQBA following a two-year absence. The Dolphins and WQBA signed a three-year agreement to broadcast the team's games beginning with the 1997 season.

Rene Giraldo, who has been part of the Spanish broadcasts of Dolphins games for all 17 years, will handle the play-by-play for his 14th straight year after previously serving as a color analyst. He will be joined by color analyst Roly Martin, also a long-time member of the Dolphins' Spanish broadcast team. WQBA's Dolphins game-day broadcasts will begin with a 30-minute pre-game show and will conclude with a post-game show featuring interviews from the team's locker room.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Two of the four Dolphins preseason games in 1998 will be telecast on a national basis by ESPN and FOX-TV, while the other two games will be broadcast in Miami on WFOR-TV (Channel 4). In addition, the preseason games that are broadcast on WFOR also will be telecast by WTVX-TV (Channel 34) in West Palm Beach.

The Dolphins' first preseason game, on Saturday, August 8th against the Washington Redskins at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium in Raljon, Maryland, will be telecast live at 7:30 p.m. by WFOR. In addition, WFOR also will televise the Dolphins' preseason finale on Friday, August 28th against the NFC Champion Green Bay Packers at Pro Player Stadium. That game will be telecast live at 7:00 p.m. if it is sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise it will be broacast on a delayed basis beginning at 9:00 p.m.

The Dolphins will make their first national television appearance of the season on Thursday night, August 13th, when they host the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at Pro Player Stadium in a game that will be telecast by ESPN at 8:20 p.m. That game will be televised locally if it is sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise it will be blacked out.

They will make their second preseason appearance on national TV when they face the San Francisco 49ers on Sunday, August 23rd at 3Com Park in San Francisco at 4:00 p.m. in a game that will be shown live on FOX-TV (Channel 7 in Miami).

ESPN Sports broadcaster Brad Nessler will handle the play-by-play for the WFOR telecasts for the seventh straight year. He has broadcast a variety of events in his career that has included two years at CBS Sports before joining ESPN in September, 1992. Former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese, a member of ABC-TV's broadcast team for college football, will be a color analyst along with Nat Moore, the Dolphins' third all-time leading receiver who is making his debut on the team's preseason telecasts. Mac McDonald returns as executive producer and Mike Horvath as producer for WFOR-TV.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least four working days in advance to: Harvey Greene, Vice President - Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, 7500 S.W. 30th Street, Davie, FL 33314 (954/452-7010). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located outside Gate G of Pro Player Stadium, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Pro Player Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the exclusive press elevator to the press box. There are two levels: working press (level 2) and TV/radio/coaches booths (level 3). Stairs and the elevator connect both levels. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins or the Professional Football Writers of America will be honored for admittance to Pro Player Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with "Locker Room Access," will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter of the way around the stadium to locker rooms and interview room.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Coach Johnson will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter way around the stadium. Turn left into corridor before locker room to interview room.

PARKING: Press parking at Pro Player Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Vice President - Media Relations, (954/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Thania Diaz, BellSouth Special Accounts at (954) 958-4154. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (954/452-7010).

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 3400 Coral Springs Dr., Coral Springs, FL 33065 (954/384-0620).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper and TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, except when there are less than six minutes remaining in the game.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's media relations representative visit training camp on Wednesday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

PRACTICE: Regular-season practice sessions usually are held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Friday and Saturday (home games). Practices normally are closed to out-of-town media (and, except for the final 15 minutes, all local media) unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange any interviews, contact the Dolphins' media relations department. The team locker room is open to the media for 45 minutes (lunchtime) Monday and Wednesday through Friday. The players are off on Tuesdays.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Vice President - Media Relations; Neal Gulkis, Media Relations Coordinator; Seth Levit, Media Relations Assistant; and Gayle Baden, Administrative Assistant. Office phone is (954) 452-7010 and (954) 452-7000-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at Nova University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.

DIRECTIONS

FT. LAUDERDALE TO TRAINING CAMP: From the north, take I-95 South to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO TRAINING CAMP: From the airport, take 836 West to 826 North. Follow 826 North to exit for Florida Turnpike North. Take Turnpike North to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

FROM THE SOUTH TO TRAINING CAMP: From the south, take I-95 North to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

FT. LAUDERDALE TO STADIUM: Take I-595 West to Florida Turnpike South. Take Turnpike South nine miles to Exit 2 (N.W. 199th Street/Honey Hill Road). Proceed off exit to 199th Street and make right. Enter parking Gate 4.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO STADIUM: Take I-95 North to Ives Dairy Road. Proceed west for five miles (name of road changes to 199th Street) and stadium is on right. Enter parking Gate 4.

DOLPHINS ON THE INTERNET

All the information you need to read and hear about the Miami Dolphins in 1998 can be obtained on the Dolphins web site, located at http://www.dolphinsendzone.com. Miami's official home page contains useful information that is updated on a daily basis throughout the year. Releases, rosters, statistics, depth charts and updated biographies are just a few of the things that are featured. In addition, the site is updated daily with sound bites from Head Coach Jimmy Johnson and Dolphin players. The quality of sound will enable not only fans to hear what the Dolphins are saying, but also can be used by the media. Pre-game and post-game analysis begins in preseason, and on gamedays, the site contains an analysis of the action on the field as it is happening, as well as photos throughout the course of the contest. Fans can submit questions and comments about the team daily. Live chats with Dolphin players, coaches and front office staff will be conducted twice a month. Other information on the Dolphins, in addition to the latest on the National Football League and the other 29 teams, can be accessed through the NFL's home page on http://www.nfl.com.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.
Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.
Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.
Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.
Achilles' Tendon – The tendon at the back of the heel.
Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.
Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

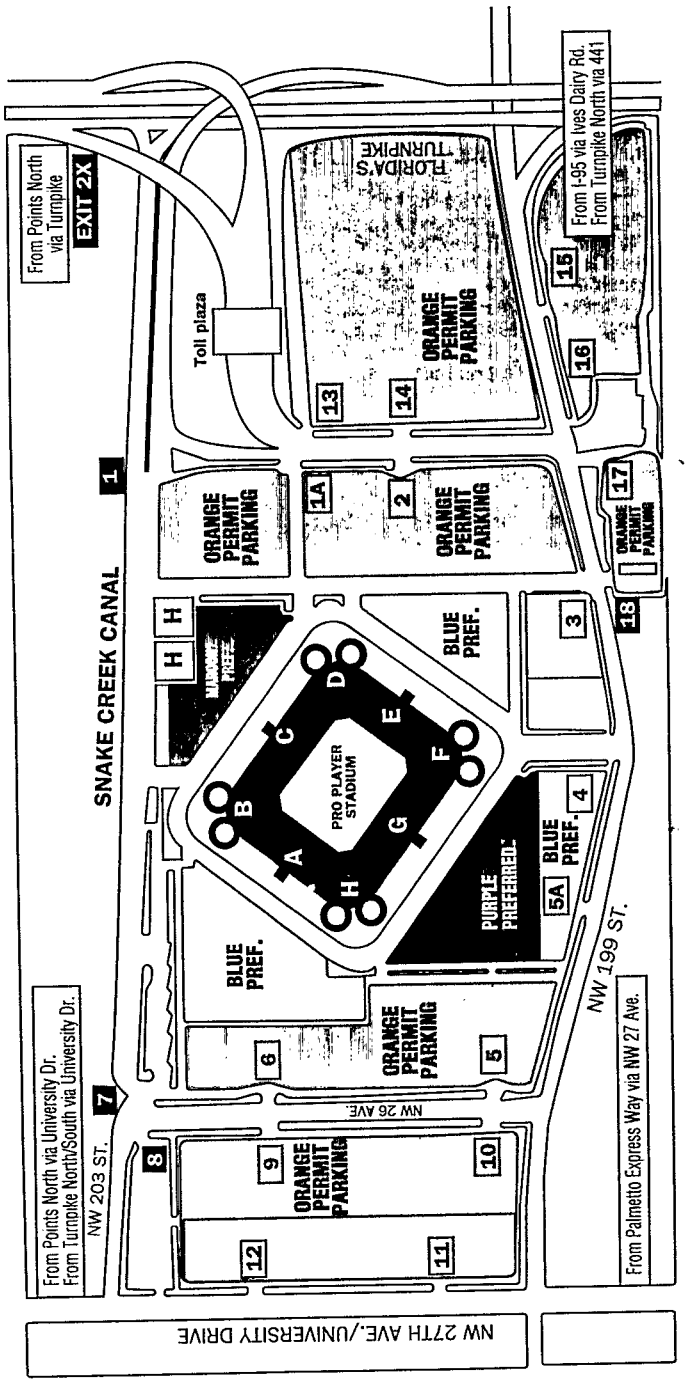

Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).
Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.
Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.
Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.
Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.
Anteriogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.
Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.
Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.
Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.
Articular Cartilage – Cartilage lining the opposing surfaces of bones.
Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.
Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.
Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.
Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.
Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.
Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.
Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.
Burner – Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.
Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.
Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.
Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.
CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.
Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.
Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.
Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.
Chondral Fracture – Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.
Chondromalacia – A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.
Clavical – The collar bone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.
Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.
Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.
Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.
Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.
Cortisone – An anti- inflammatory medication.
Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.
Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.
Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.
Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.
Debridement – The removal of foreign material and dead or damaged tissue.
Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.
Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.
Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.
Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.
Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.
Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.
Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.
Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.
Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.
Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.
Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.
Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.
Fascia – A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.
Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.
Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.
Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.
Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.
Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.
Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.
Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacar-pophalangeal joint of the thumb.
Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.
Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.
Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.
Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.
Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.
Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.
Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.
Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.
Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.
Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.
Hip Pointer – Contusion to the iliac crest.
Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.
Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.
Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.
Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.
Illiotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.
Impingment Syndrome – Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue inthe shoulder, which is common in throwing.
Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.
Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.
Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) – Ligamament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head.

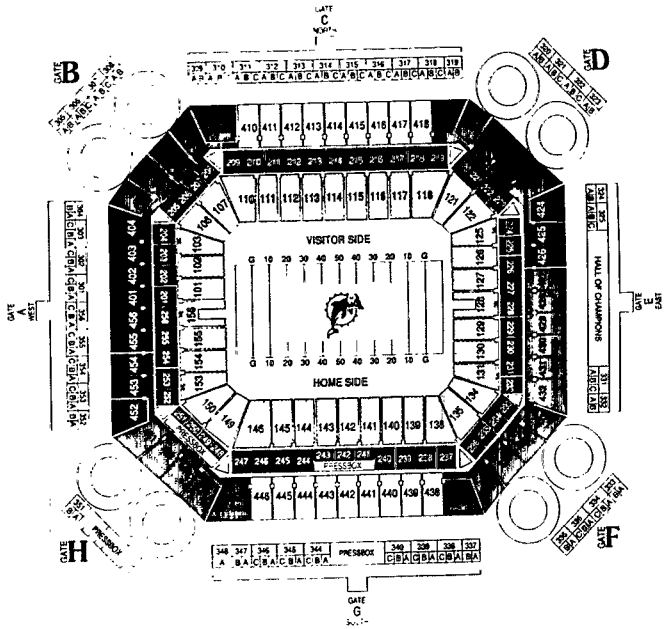

It provides lateral stability to the knee.
Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.
Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.
Malleolus – Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.
Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) – Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle and to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.
Medial Retinaculum – The band of connective tissue that attaches to the medial structures of the knee joint, including the patella and patellar tendon.
Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.
Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.
Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.
Myositis – Inflammation of a muscle.
Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.
Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.
Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.
Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.
Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.
Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.
Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."
Patellofemoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.
Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.
Phalanx – Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.
Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.
Plantar – Pertaining to the sole of the foot.
Plantar Fascia – The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.
Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.
Radiography – Taking of X-rays.
Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.
Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.
Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.
Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.
Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.
Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.
Sacrum - Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.
Scapula – Shoulder blade.
Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.
Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.
Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.
Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) - Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.
Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.
Spondylitis– Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.
Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.
Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.
Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.
Sternum – The breast bone.
Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.
Stinger – Common term for plexus trauma in the neck.
Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.
Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.
Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.
Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.
Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.
Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.
Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.
Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.
Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.
Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.
Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.
Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.
Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.
Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.
Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.
Trachea – The windpipe.
Trascutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.
Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.
Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.
Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.
Turf Toe – Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.
Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.
Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.
Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.
Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.
Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.
Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.
Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.
"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.
Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).
Zygoma – The cheekbone.

PRO PLAYER STADIUM PARKING

TICKET INFORMATION

Seating Category	Season Ticket Price	Individual Price
Club Level	$900-2,500	$130
Sidelines Lower	$42	$49
Sidelines Upper	$38	$45
Lower Corners	$35	$42
Endzones Lower	$33	$40
Upper Corners	$31	$38
	$30	$37
Economy Sections	$17	$24

Single-game tickets for Dolphins home games are tiered in price from $24 to $130, with season tickets priced from $170 to $900. Tickets for all Dolphins home games are available at the Dolphins Ticket Office, located at Gate G of Pro Player Stadium and all TicketMaster outlets. The Dolphins Ticket Office is open Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m. and Saturday 8:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Payment methods accepted are cash, American Express, Visa and Mastercard.

Group seating of 25 or more individuals is also available through the Dolphins group sales office. For more information or to receive a brochure on group sales, please call (305) 620-2578.
